Make Me a Woman : Chapter 1

A/N: Hello everybody! I wanted to wait a few days before I released this story, but I kind of got impatient! I wanted to tell you about this story, espicially the main character. I am not making fun of overweight people. I am overweight myself. She is not really overweight, maybe just chubby. You know how teenagers are, they are pure body image and she feels ugly and she is really not. So, please don't comment that I mean for making her feel like that, I felt like her when I was her age! Thank you! Oh yeah, go to my profile and the character pictures are there :D

Chapter 1

"Savannah Loftis, what the fuck is wrong with you?" my friend, Jennifer Sparks, asked me during our lunch break at school.

"What do you mean, what the fuck is wrong with me? I don't want to go to a party!" I said to her and continued to eat my chili cheese hot dog.

"It's not just a party, it's Annabella Gregory's party and she actually invited YOU to the party!" Jenny said to me.

"And why would a girl like Annabella invite me? She just wants to humiliate me in front of the school body!" Let me introduce you to myself. My name is Savannah Loftis. I am seventeen years old, a high school senior and I never had a boyfriend that lasted long. You know why I never had a real boyfriend? I am not really attractive. Well, people say I am pretty, but I don't believe it. I have raven black hair, light green eyes with gold flakes, and I am a size 12. What part of me that doesn't appeal to guys? Me being overweight. I am about twenty pounds overweight and I have chubby thighs and a not skinny belly. My ass is huge and my boobs are big also.

"Just because Annabella made fun of you on our freshman year doesn't mean she will do the same thing now. People grow up!" Jenny said and I looked at her beautifully sculpted body. She is average, not skinny as a rail, but not fat like me. She has a wonderful boyfriend since our sophomore year name Fritz Schmidt. Yes, he is German, he was a German foreign exchange student. When he came over here to Oak Ridge, Tennessee, he fell MADLY in love with Jenny. He decided to stay here with her. Now, they are engaged to get married after we graduate and I'm the maid of honor. Fritz came over and sat beside Jenny and he wrapped his arm around her.

"May I take Jen away from you for a bit?" Fritz said in his German accent. His blonde hair and blue eyes shined when he seen Jenny. I think they look so cute together. Jenny has chestnut colored hair with light brown eyes and like I said before, she is skinny.

"Sure, why not!" I said and they ran off, giggling at each other. I stood up and grabbed my tray and took it to the lunch lady. As I walked back to my table, Annabella walked up to me with her beautiful blonde hair and sculpted body frame and smiled at me.

"Are you coming to my party or not, Savannah?" She asked me with her hands on her hips.

"I got things to do tonight," I said and she laughed.

"What, stuff your face in with food?" her other friends laughed and I rolled my eyes. "Listen Loftis, you are coming to my party. There will be beer and hot older guys there," She added.

"Are you going to embarrass me?"

"Why fuck no! I am trying to look good for the student body, after all, I am the student body president!" Annabella smiled and I sighed and gave in.

"All right, I will go, what time should I be there?" I said and she smiled.

"Party starts at eight, see you there!" Annabella walked away and her sexy football player boyfriend, Adam, grabbed her ass and she giggled like a little girl. I rolled my eyes and when I turned around, Jenny is behind me.

"I couldn't talk you into going but she did. What did she say to make you go?" Jenny asked me. Fritz is behind her, holding her by her waist.

"The hot guys?" I said and she laughed.

"Well, that would've got me to go, but I got my Fritz!" Jenny turned around and kissed her boyfriend.

"Wait, you are not going?" I said and she laughed.

"Of course not silly! Fritz has reservations at this place in Knoxville for a week now! You can go to this party alone!" I groaned in disgust but I cannot go to Annabella and tell her I can't go. I love Jenny and I hate her at the same time.

An hour before the party, I ran to my closet and tried to find something that will look good. Thanks to my weight, I cannot wear short skirts or low cut tops like Annabella and Jennifer. I found a pretty top I wore to a party with my family and the skirt to go with it. I went to my vanity station and I brushed my hair out and made sure my makeup looks good. My mom, Mary, came in and she sat on my bed. My mom is a full figure woman, but she became like that due to giving birth to me and my little brother, Cameron.

"So, you are going to a party. Will there be drinking?" My mom said and I have to lie. I kind of want to go to this party, and I don't know why.

"Of course not, its just a party!" I said and I can sense that my mom knows that I am lying, but she let it go.

"Be careful honey!" she said and kissed my forehead. When it became time to go to the party, I ran out the door and ran down the street since Annabella lived down the street from me. I heard loud rap music coming out of the house and a group of already drinking teens are on her porch. I squeezed my way by and I walked into a huge group of dancing teens. I walked into the kitchen and Annabella is standing there passing out beers.

"Oh, Savannah, want a slice of pizza or a beer?" She said and everybody laughed. I grabbed the beer and drank it down. I hated the taste of it, but it felt good to drink it front of Annabella and her group of cheerleaders.

"Another one please?" I asked and she gladly gave me one and she has a surprised look on her face. I walked into the dance area and after I finished drinking that beer, I began to dance. I actually had fun. I danced, talked to a few people, met a few older guys that are very hot. But one stood out to me. His dark hair and green eyes stood out to me like a fire in the middle of the snow. He is sitting on the couch, drinking a beer and ignoring all the teenage girls hitting on him. I didn't know how to approach him, so I decided to check him out without him noticing. When I wanted another beer, I walked pass him and I can smell his cologne and it heighten my senses. Annabella is not in the kitchen handing out beers and I opened the refrigerator and grabbed two beers. When I turned around, he is standing there in front of me.

"H-hello!" I stuttered out.

"Hello there, is that for me?" He asked and I gave him the beer.

"You can have it, it was really for me." I opened the fridge again and grabbed another beer and I heard him laugh.

"I seen you check me out in there," he said and my heart raced. I closed the fridge door with my ass and looked into his eyes which made me melt.

"I'm sorry, I didn't mean to make it obvious!" I said and I tried to leave, but he lightly touched my shoulder.

"I'm Todd Middleton by the way," he said and I smiled.

"Savannah Loftis, I'm a senior," I said and he smiled.

"Wow, so you are seventeen or eighteen?" Todd asked.

"Seventeen."

"I am twenty-four years old." Wow, Annabella is right about older men being at her party. I don't care what age he is, Todd is one fucking good looking man!

"Oh Savannnahhhhh!" Annabella yelled and wobbled into the kitchen and wrapped her arm around my shoulder. "This is my dad's bosses son, Todd. Ain't he a hottie?" Annabella said and I knew she is drunk, she would never be this nice to me.

"Yes, he is very good looking," I said looking at him and he laughed.

"Come party with me, Savannah!" Annabella said and I walked with her, looking back at Todd's smiling face and we danced together. Every time Annabella got a beer, she got me one too, so I ended up getting drunk as well. Around midnight, I decided to try to leave but my world is tilting and I felt so chipper and happy.

"Don't leave yet, Savannah!" Annabella said and I looked down at her and sat beside her on the floor.

"I have to go home or my mom wouldâ ¦WORRY!" I blurted out the word worry. She ended up passing out on the floor and I decided that she deserves to go to her bedroom. I tried to lift her off the floor and she is heavy. I thought I was fat! Todd seen me try to lift her up and I began laughing because its so funny how I cannot lift a girl that is a lot smaller than me.

"Having trouble, Savannah?" Todd said and I began to laugh.

"She is so fat, and I thought I was fat!" I laughed.

"You are not fat, Savannah!" Todd said and I blushed. He lifted Annabella over his shoulder and took her to her bedroom. I watched him put her into her bed and tucked her in. I tried to walk down the stairs but my legs felt like pudding, so I slid down the stairs. Todd caught me and I laughed.

"Whoops, clumsy me!" I said and he walked me to the door. I tried to walk off the porch, but I fell again and this time it hurt. I wailed in pain and Todd is behind me and put his arm around me to support me.

"Did you drive?" Todd asked me. I shook my head no. "Do you live close?"

"Yeah, I'll show you!" I said and he walked me down the street and I pointed out my house and he walked a little faster.

"I think somebody is up, the lights are on!" Todd said and I started to freak out.

"Oh shit, oh shit, my mom is up! She will see you!" I said and he laughed.

"I think I am the least of her problems, I think seeing you drunk will be the problem!" he said and I knew he is right. He helped me up the porch and he knocked on the door. I thought he would run off, but he help me stand up. My mom knocked on the door and I waved at my mom and burped really loudly when I tried to say hey to her and laughed because I burped.

"Mrs. Loftis, your daughter got drunk at the party and I escorted her home," Todd said and I hit on his chest and smiled.

"So you are sexy AND a gentleman!" I said and began laughing.

"Thank you young man, if you don't mind, can you take her to her bedroom and get her in bed," my mom asked and he walked me to my room and by the time I felt my fluffy pillows, I am feeling rather drowsy.

"When will I see you again, Todd?" I asked him.

"If you remember me, soon. I will write down where I work," Todd said and he found a sheet of paper and I fell asleep after thatâ ¦

Chapter 2: First Real Date

A/N: Heya! I just LOVE breaks! Thanks for all the reads for the first chapter. Continue to read this story and comment. I love all of my readers :D. Sorry if things are not sexy yet, but I promise they will be in the next few chapters. Todd has to get her comfortable to have sex and how to love

Chapter 2

Fuck, my head hurts like someone is drilling into my temple. I woke up in my bedroom and the sun is hurting my eyes. I am still in my clothes I wore to the party and I heard drumming from across the hall. Cameron is already playing on his drums. I opened the door and walked across the hall to my little brother's room and he is playing away on his drums.

"Cut that out, dork face!" I said and he smiled.

"Mom said that I could, to teach you a lesson!" Cameron said and continued to play, which made my head hurt even worse. I walked to the kitchen and my mom is brewing some coffee and she handed me a cup of coffee.

"Hangover?" My mom asked and I nodded my head. I hate black coffee, but I know it will help my hangover. I don't remember anything from last night. All I remember is Annabella and myself dancing and she was VERY drunk. I remember that guy, was his name Tom or Todd? I remember him vaguely. I remember his charming smile and I remember that he is twenty-four or five years old.

"I'm sorry for lying, I wanted to go so bad," I said as I drank the coffee.

"You are not going to anymore of that Annabella's parties. Drinking is enough, and a older man brought you home. Was he at the party also?" My mom asked as she poured some pancake batter into the skillet.

"Yeah, he was, but what I remember, he is very sweet."

"He was nice enough to help you home and into bed. I made sure he didn't do anything to you. He helped you into your bed, covered you up and left. I offered him something to drink, but he said he is going home to go to bed. He said something about going to work tomorrowâ¦" When she said the word "work" something inside me clicked. I finished my coffee and I excused myself to my bedroom. I went to my end table and I seen a piece of paper with "Oak Ridge Auto shop, Todd Middleton" written on it. I seen a flash back from last night and I remember him writing this down, and mentioning that it's his work place. I changed out of my clothes from last night to something more comfortable like a plain tee-shirt and a pair of old jeans. Mom hollered for us to come eat and Cameron ran down the hallway and made it to the dining room before me. I didn't feel good enough to eat anything, so I ate one pancake with butter and syrup. Cameron talked about his football game yesterday and how they beat the opposing team and my mom is so proud of him. I am not involved in after school projects or sports, never have and never will. I just want to go home after school, I cannot see how some people can do sports and activities after school. Jenny was involved in lacrosse, but she decided to not do lacrosse this year; she said something about wanting scholarships to colleges. I know the reason why she is not doing sports, Fritz. She wants to spend more time with Fritz and planning their wedding.

"Mom, I am going to town for a little bit, is that okay?" I said and picked up my plate and didn't want for an answer.

"I am okay with it, if you feel like doing it," she said and Cameron laughed.

"Vannah got drunk last night!" Cameron said and I smacked the back of his head. My mom yelled at me, but I don't care. I love the little dweab, he's is my little brother! I got in my car and I drove to the auto shop written on the paper and I parked in front of it and I heard a lot of noise coming from it and loud, manly laughter. Butterflies began to flutter in my stomach and I breathed a little and started to walk to the garage. I heard them laugh again and I seen two men drinking soda and they are shirtless. Todd is one of those guys, covered in black car grease, smiling and I could not keep my eyes away from his sexy body. He is not built like a body builder, but he has a nice, lean, fit body. He is also really tanned and I started to feel all hot all of the sudden. I walked up there and cleared my throat. Todd and the other guy turned around and the laughter stopped.

"Todd Middleton?" I asked and Todd smiled and leaned against the wall.

"That's me, how may I help you?" Todd said and I swallowed loudly and looked up into his light green eyes.

"To talk?" I asked and he excused himself and we went to the office. He sat down in the chair behind the desk and I sat down in front of him and nervously messed with my pants.

"So, Savannah, what do you want to talk about?" Todd asked and I looked up at him and he is smiling.

"I don'tâ ¦remember hardly anything from last night. I just wondered if I done anything bad," I said, lying. I just wanted to see him.

"No, you didn't do any drugs, didn't fuck anybody, just danced and laughed the whole time." I sighed in relief and I looked around in the tiny office and then at him.

"I remember Annabella telling me you are her dad's bosses son, does he own this garage?" I asked and he laughed.

"Fuck no, my dad is the owner of the lumberyard. Annabella's dad is the head manager," he said and I felt like laughing. For some reason, I don't see Annabella as wealthy as she think she is. She acts like she is rich and she is a snobby bitch. If her dad is just the manager, he might get paid as much as my father, which works there as a truck driver. I looked over at Todd and I know he is checking me out. His eyes are roaming my body and I can feel them on me. My breasts are tingling in my shirt and I feel my nipples getting erect in my bra. He is the first man to do this to me, EVER!

"Do you want to go out to dinner tonight?" Todd asked me and my heart raced. I have not been out on a date, an actual REAL dateâ ¦well ever! Guys has taken me to the football games at the high school and sat with me at the lunch table, but they never took me to a restaurant!

"Sure, when and where?" I asked and he leaned back and placed his hands on the back of his head. When he done that, it made the muscles in his chest and stomach even bigger and more desirable. I just want to lick him from his neck to his naval right now. Well, he has to clean up or I will be tasting grease!

"How about Baby Back BBQ at six?" he said and I agreed. I stood up and as I walked by him, he reached over and touched my hand.

"You know, I am glad that we met, Savannah. I don't care that you are seven years younger than me, I see you as a very beautiful woman," he said and I blushed.

"I don't think I am beautiful," I said and he half smiled.

"Trust me, you are beautiful, Savannah and you don't even know it." I looked down and I started to mess with the dirt on the ground.

"So, uh, six at Baby Back BBQ? I will see you there," I said and he laughed.

"Now, don't get shy on me! I think it's cute when you blush!" he said and I laughed. We said our goodbyes and I went to my car and went home.

I planned it all out, sort of. I know my mom would NEVER let me go on a date with Todd, since he is twenty-four. I called Jenny and explained to her about tonight. First, she freaked out that I am going out on a date with a much older man. Then, she finally got something planned out.

"Ah Ha! Tell your mom that you're going to be with me and Fritz tonight. Tell her that we are going to the movies together. If she calls me, I will tell her that you are in the bathroom," Jenny said and I squealed.

"Thank you so much for helping me, I feel so different around Todd and we just met last night!" I said.

"At Annabella's party?" Jenny said.

"Yeah, but he was different than the other guys there. He ignored all the girls flirting with him, he kept looking at me!"

"Maybe he likes you!"

"He keeps calling me beautiful, Jenny. I know I am not beautiful, but when he calls me that, I feel so warm and happyâ ¦"

"Sounds like you are getting horny!"

"Well, I did get hot and my nipples got all hard and tingly when he checked me out."

"Congratulations Savannah, you just got horny!" I laughed and Jenny joined me. We talked for several minutes longer and my mom came in.

"So, you got any plans for tonight?" she asked.

"Yeah, Jenny and Fritz are taking me to the movies tonight," I said and she smiled.

"Fritz is the guy I want to see you with! I am glad Jenny has somebody to love. Well, I hope you three will have fun!" When she closed the door behind her, I sighed in relief and I went to the closet and got ready. I kept the jeans on, but I put a nice top with a camisole underneath it and I put my hair in a ponytail. I didn't put any makeup on because I only had thirty minutes left to meet Todd at the restaurant. I ran out the door, kissing my mom on the cheek and I went to meet Todd. I never felt so nervous in my life. Is it because it's my first date, if it's even a date? Is it because I am highly attracted to Todd? Maybe my body knows something is going to happen tonight and if something does happen tonight, I know it will be good!

A/N again: Whoops, you have to find out how the date goes for them in the next chapter MWHAHAHAHAHAHA! Sorry, got carried away there! I will remind y'all again that if you are curious about what the characters look like, go to my profile!!!!

Chapter 3: The Date that Started it All

A/N: One word, WOW! Thanks for all the comments y'all! This may seem rushed because I've been very busy since Wednesday due to nursing school. I had a few comments demanding a update ASAP, so here it is! Also, their relationship is going sort of fast, but today, every relationship is going fast! Me and my husbands relationship went pretty fast and we are doing just fine!

Chapter 3

I made it to the BBQ place ten minutes early. I didn't really mean to show up early. Now I can sit in my car and my nerves will build up and I will get extremely nervous. I pulled my visor down to see myself in the mirror and I started to mess with my hair. I mess with my hair when I get nervous. I closed my eyes and placed my hands in my lap.

"This is just dinner, nothing else. It ain't like he is going to ask you to date him. I defiantly would date him, he is a total hottie!" I told myself. Somebody knocked on my window and Todd is looking at me and smiling. I rolled my window down and I smiled.

"How may I help you tonight, sir?" I said trying to be funny. I also try to be funny when I am nervous.

"I would like Savannah Loftis to step out of the car and give me a hug, please?" Todd said, joining in.

"She will be right out, she needs to get a few things." I grabbed my purse and I stepped out of my car and I wrapped my arms around his fit body. Todd hugged me back and he smelled so good. I loved his cologne, it's the same thing he wore at the party.

"I love you cologne, Todd. You wore it at the party," I said and he chucked.

"I sure did, how did you remember?" he asked.

"It's the first thing I noticed on you, other than how good looking you are." I am feeling rather bold right now, and I like it!

"The first thing I noticed about you is your eyes. I think they are beautiful and unusual. They have gold flakes in them."

"My dad did too, I got them from him." My parents are divorced by the way. They divorced when Cameron was 5 and I was 12 years old. He comes over and sees us once in a while, but it's only for us, not my mom, of course. He is married again to some twenty-nine year old woman name Nadine. I really don't like her, she is not that much older than me and she is my step-mom!

"Are you ready to eat? I am starving!" Todd asked and I nodded. He grabbed my hand and laced his fingers through mine and I felt electricity running through my nerves and down to my feet. I smiled and we went inside and we found a table for two away from the hustle in the main dining area. The waitress came to our table and took our drink orders, which I got a water and Todd got a Pepsi.

"Now, don't you order something puny because you want to impress me. The only way you can impress me is eating a huge steak!" Todd said and I laughed. I was actually going to get a grilled chicken plate with a side salad, but he wants me to eat a steak, I guess I'll eat a steak! I found a T-bone steak that is decent in size and good in price. It comes with a side order of fries and soup or a salad.

"I'm getting the 10 oz. T-bone steak with the fries and a salad," I said and he smiled.

"That's more like it!" Todd said and I laughed. Todd makes me feel so good. The waitress came back with our drinks and got our food orders, which Todd got the same thing as I did, but he made his steak a little bigger and instead of a salad, he got homemade tomato soup. When the waitress left, Todd leaned towards me and grabbed my hand again.

"It feels so right to be with you, Savannah. Ever since the party last night, I cannot stop thinking about you," Todd said and my heart raced.

"Ever since then also, you cannot get out of my mind," I said and he smiled.

"Why do you down yourself so much? Weight is not a factor to most men anymore. The main factor is the woman's attitude about everything and herself."

"I don't know, but all the guys I've been with never wanted to hold me or touch me because I'm overweight. They kissed me and that is it," I said and he raised an eyebrow.

"You're saying you never had sex or been touched other than holding hands and a kiss?" He asked and I blushed.

"That is right." The waitress came back and gave me my salad and his soup. We ate and every time I looked up to look at him, he is looking at me. I blushed and he chuckled.

"You blush easy, well, you are a virgin, I would expect you to blush a lot," he said and I blushed again.

"Sorry," I said and he laughed.

"Why you sorry? I told you earlier today that I think its cute when you blush."

"I know, I just can't help to be sorry about everything."

"It's okay, blush all you want though, its very cute!" I blushed and he laughed. Why do I blush so much? Our food came and we devoured, well he did, I ate slow, our food. He finished first and I got full when I finished my steak and halfway through my fries. He paid for our food and we went out to the parking lot.

"That went fast, where do you want to go for a little while?" Todd asked. I looked at my watch and the "movie" I am suppose to watch with Jenny and Fritz doesn't even start till eight and it's quarter pass seven.

"I am supposedly with my friends at the movies and the 'movie' doesn't start till eight. So, how about the park?" I said and his face tensed up.

"Why you lying about being with me?" Todd asked and I can tell he is sort of hurt.

"My mom would never allow me to go on a date with a twenty-four year old man."

"So, you are also considering this a date?"

"If you are, I thought it was since you asked me to dinner."

"Of course I think this is a date! I understand where you're coming from, Savannah and I am not mad. I thought you we're hiding me because you are ashamed of meâ ¦"

"I am not ashamed of you, Todd! I want to be with you and my mom would not let me see you if I mentioned you. I am turning eighteen in four months, so we can be together, but I have to hide and lie till then. Jenny, my friend, can help us out by telling my mom that I am with her," I said and he grabbed my shoulders and pulled me closer. His hands went to my face and his fingers touched my eyebrows, the corner of my eyes, then the bridge of my nose then his thumb massaged my lips.

"I am defiantly not ashamed of you, either Savannah. I talked about you for the rest of the day when I left to the guys. They think you are cute, but I told them you are the most beautiful woman I have lay my eyes on, and that you are mine," Todd said and I closed my eyes and I felt so touched.

"Savannah, can I kiss you?" Todd said and I nodded. He pulled my face closer to his and he brushed his lips on mine and he lightly kissed me. We kissed like that for a few moments and I wrapped my arms around his neck and pulled myself closer to his body. Todd moaned and his tongue began to tickle my lips, opening them and played with my teeth so I would open my mouth for him. When I did, his tongue dived into my mouth and he kissed me deeply and erotically. I have never been kissed like this in my life. My pussy is tingling and throbbing and then, I became wet. My pussy never became wet like this over a guy. For some reason, I became scared. What if we did have sex? Will he leave me? Will he get tired of me after while and start cheating on me? I am not ready for sex yet, I want to be 100% ready before we have sex. This kiss is the best kiss I have ever received in my life. I dug my nails into his neck and he let go.

"I cannot get enough of you, Savannah. I need you," Todd said and I closed my eyes and swallowed.

"I need you too, Todd," I said and he smiled and kissed me again. His hand went around my back and he pulled me closer and I felt something hard against my stomach. Oh no, I made him hard! I don't want sex yet! I let go and looked up at him and bit my lip. He needs to know my feelings about sex as of now.

"I'm not ready, Todd," I said and he pulled me back a little and put some of my hair behind my ear.

"I will wait on you. I understand that you are a virgin and it will take some time. I want to be your first of everything. Your first caress, your first oral, your first and only man to have sex with you," Todd said and I closed my eyes.

"I hope so too that you will be the only man I need, but we don't knowâ ¦"

"Trust me Savannah, I know I will be your only man." I closed my eyes and leaned against his broad chest and he ran his fingers though my hair. It felt so right to be with him. I remember my mom saying that God picks us that special person and our job is to find them. I know I found mine, Todd Middleton.

"Does this mean you're my boyfriend?" I asked and Todd smiled and touched my cheekbones.

"I sure hope so, am I?" he asked and I giggled.

"You haven't asked me to be your girlfriend yetâ ¦"

"Well, Savannah, will you be my girlfriend?" I pretended to think for a moment and Todd actually got anxious for my answer. "Baby, what is your answer?" he asked me.

"Yes, I will be your girlfriend," I said and he placed his lips on mine and pressed me against his hard on again. I know he will probably want me to fuck him till the end of time, but if he is willing to wait, then he is the man for me. We went to the park near the restaurant and we walked around, talking about ourselves. I told him about my parents divorce and he told me about his own parents divorce too. They divorced when he was sixteen years old and it was hard for him.

"My mom and dad wanted me to stay with them but mom was moving to Nashville, and I wanted to stay here in Oak Ridge with my friends," he said and I squeezed his hand. I listened to him as he listen to me whine about myself. I told him why I think I am unattractive and of course, he got kind of irritated.

"There is no reason why you should think you are unattractive just because you are a little overweight. I prefer women with extra weight on them bones!" Todd said and I kissed his cheek.

"Where we're you all my life?" I asked him.

"Here in Oak Ridge, waiting on you to come into my life." Todd wrapped me in his arms and I felt so warm and cozy in them. He is so muscular and fit and I felt so safe in his arms. He pecked at my lips with his and then he kissed me passionately, tongue and all. Oh I am going to love this. He is treating me like a Queen. I am his Queen and he is my King!

Chapter 4: Sex Fantasies and Wanting to be a Woman

A/N: Hey guys! Sorry that it's shorter than my previous chapters. I am having a writers block and it was hard to write this. It may not be as good as my other chapters and I am sorry. A heads up, the italics part is a dream ;) yes, that kind of dream! Thanks for reading and I love you all!*

Chapter 4

Even though Todd wanted to take me home and walk me to the door, he couldn't. He did follow me to the beginning of my street and said good bye to me. I forgot to mention, Todd has a fucking nice car. He has a 1969 Dodge Charger, you know, the General Lee car from Dukes of Hazzard. It's not orange with the confederate flag on top of it, it's cherry red with a black leather interior. It's a very nice car. I got out of my car and Todd is already walking to me and when he got to me, he wrapped his arms around me and kissed me. I will never get tired of his kisses. His lips are soft as rose petals and he tastes like sweet honey. When he let go, he kissed the tip of my nose and then he smiled. His smile is so warming and sweet, I feel it down into my soul.

"I'll call you sometime tonight," He said and I nodded. We finally exchanged numbers, which I had to give him my cell phone, so we can talk of course!

"Okay, when can we see each other again? I have to go to church tomorrow and my mom is the head Sunday school teacher, so I cannot miss it," I said.

"We can see each other Monday after you get off school."

"That's sound good to me."

"Bye baby." He pulled me closer and kissed me goodbye and I watched him drive away in his car, waving at me from the drivers seat. I got into my car and I drove back to my house. My mom is still up and I walked into the living room and she smiled at me.

"How was the movie?" she asked me.

"It was good," I said.

"You took a lot of bathroom breaks, are you okay? Do you need to see the doctor?"

"I just drank a lot of water and couldn't stop going."

"Well, I am glad you got to have a good time with Jenny and Fritz. Better get to bed honey, we got a big day tomorrow." I kissed my mom's cheek and walked down the hallway. I opened my little brother Cameron's door and seen him on his Playstation 3 playing some army game. I laughed when he cussed the guy he is playing with and I went to my bedroom, got undressed to my tee shirt and waited on Todd's phone call. He called me about an hour later and we didn't talk long because we we're both tired. After the phone call, I immediatly went to sleep.

"Oh Todd, touch me there!" I said as Todd touched me all over my naked body. Todd reached down to my pussy and played with my clit with his finger. I moaned loudly and when his tongue touched it and licked it. I raised my hips up to feel his tongue more and ran my fingers through his hair. I felt my orgasm build up and I moaned louder and I cum all over his face. Todd looked up at me and licked his lips.

"Oh Savannah, you taste so good!" Todd said and I got on my hands and knees and grabbed his erect and HUGE cock. I ran my hand up and down his cock and his head jerked back and his hand went to my head and he gently pushed me down to his cock. I knew what he wanted, so I placed my mouth on him and sucked his cock. My tongue circled and licked his head and Todd began to moan my name over and over. It got to the point where he cannot stand it anymore, so I got on my back and he crawled on top of me and he kissed me.

"I love you, Savannah!" Todd said and I kissed him back.

"I love you, too, Todd!" I said and he pushed his cock inside me. I felt the quick pain of losing my virginity, but the pleasure of Todd's cock inside me and fucking me overcame the pain. He enter and exit me over and he fucked me harder and faster every time he entered me. I moaned even louder when he hit that certain spot inside me. I felt the build up of another orgasm and he fucked me harder and harder and I loved it.

"Oh my fucking God, I am about to cum. Your pussy is so fucking tight and juicyâ ¦" Todd moaned out.

"I am about to cum too, Todd!" I moaned and we moaned in sync and I felt my releaseâ ¦

"Savannah! Savannah!" I heard Cameron's voice outside my door. I jerked awake and I looked around. Did I just have my first sex fantasy? I shook my head and try to get my bearings together to wake up. I reached down between my legs and my pussy is throbbing with need and I slipped my fingers inside my pussy and its very wet and there is a wet spot on my sheets. Wow, it was that good!

"Savannah, mom said that you have five minutes to get ready for church!" Cameron said and I ran to my closet and tried to find my church attire. During this time, my phone rang. I grabbed it and it's Todd.

"Hey Todd, I am kind of busy right nowâ ¦" I said as I pulled a dress out of my closet.

"With what?" Todd asked.

"Getting ready to go to church or my mom will kill me!"

"Want me to get off?" I put the phone on my chest and I heard Cameron's radio on and I put my phone on speaker.

"You are on the speaker," I said and he laughed.

"Are you stripping for me via phone?" Todd asked and I giggled.

"I don't know if it's considered stripping if I am over the phone," I said and he laughed also.

"Just tell me what you are wearing."

"A bra, thong and I am trying to wrestle a dress on so I can go to church!"

"Mmmm, I cannot wait to see you in your underwear, even naked. I am sorry baby, but I had a fantasy of you and me fucking last night and it made me hard as a rock." I am not the only one that had a fantasy as well. At least his was not interrupted by a little brother.

"Oh really? I sort of had one too, but it never finished. My brother woke me up," I said.

"I am more than willing to wait on you, Savannah, but it's going to be hard to wait. You have a sexy body and I want it," Todd said and I swallowed.

"Maybe you don't have to wait long. I just want to make sure I am ready before we do anything."

"I will show you things before we have sex. I want to know how loving feels like, and I know you will like it." I want Todd to be the one that shows me and I actually cannot wait for that to happen.

After church, I went to Jenny's house, since Fritz is spending the Sunday with his family. Jenny decided to paint my toe nails as we done our girl talk.

"I had a sex fantasy last night with Todd," I said and she stopped and looked at me.

"Wow, y'all started dating yesterday and you already having sex dreams about fucking him. My first sex fantasy with Fritz was a week before we started dating. That's probably why we fucked the day after we started dating," Jenny said and I laughed. I looked down at my toes and she is painting each toe a different color.

"Can I ask for another favor, Jenny?" I asked.

"Sure?" Jenny said switching nail polish.

"I won't turn eighteen till this January, so can you like, lie for me to my mom while Todd and I spend time together till then?" Jenny looked at me and then sighed. I know she hates lying but she's been wanting me to have a man for a very long time. She has to do this for me.

"I will, but I ain't going to like it! You deserve a man, Savannah, even though he is a lot older than you!" Jenny said and I jumped on top of her and hugged her.

"Thank you! Thank you! You are the bestest friend I ever had!" I said and she hugged me back.

"I just hope y'all work out!" Jenny said and I hope so too.

Monday afternoon came so quickly. I done my homework, talked to Todd practically all night long last night. I went to school and I was bored and anxious all day long. I cannot wait to see Todd! Todd gave me his address to his house last night and after school, I quickly hugged Jenny bye and we decided on a plan. If my mom calls, I am studying over at Jenny's house. I will spend the next few months studying at her house. We just not have decided where we are going to do on the weekends when I will see Todd. I drove through downtown Oak Ridge and when I pulled into the driveway of Todd's place, my heart raced. I wondered what is he going to do to me today? I know he is not going to fuck me yet, but I know he will slowly get me use to loving. I want him to make me a woman, I have been wanting to become a woman for a while! I may not be ready to have sex yet, but I more than willing to be a woman!

Chapter 5: Step One- Breast needs loving!

A/N: Hello! Update two of the day! I hope you enjoy this chapter cause things are getting heated up in here with Todd and Savannah! The next few chapters are what Todd calls "Steps" into loving. So, each chapter, he does something new to Savannah. Eventually, they will have sex! I know all of us cannot wait for them to have sex, I am getting excited for her and a few others are as well. My husband thinks this is funny. He watched me write this and he said "If I done this to you, it would kill me!" I laughed my ass off! Well, I'll quit with the chit-chat so you can read! :D :D

Chapter 5

I knocked on his door and I heard metal music playing inside. I heard something fall and then him cussing at it. Todd ran to the door and when he opened it, he is shirtless and in his pajama pants.

"Well, aren't we comfortable today!" I said and he leaned against the door and smiled at me.

"I wish you would wear something more comfortable as well, come on in!" Todd said and moved out of the way. I walked inside and when the door closed behind me, he pushed me against the door and kissed me. The kiss was passionate and I ran my fingers through his dark hair and moaned into his lips as his tongue dove inside my mouth. His hands started to trail up from my waist to the side of my ribs then the side of my breasts. I jerked back and swallowed nervously.

"Stay calm, I am only going to touch your breasts through your shirt," Todd said and I nodded. When he grabbed my breasts, I sighed and began to moan. It felt so good when he massaged them and he is not even touching me skin-to-skin. I closed my eyes and my head went backwards and hit the door. Todd kissed the base of my neck as he massaged my breast some more. He let go and I whined.

"Later on, I will do much more, but I am hungry, so I am making supper. Go ahead and sit down and watch some TV," Todd said and I nodded. When I sat down on the couch, I touched my breast and I smiled. I know what Todd means by he is going to do more, I will probably be topless, or at least in a bra. Most likely topless completely. How do I feel about being topless in front of a man? I know I will be very nervous, but I need to come out of my shell. I think of myself as I am inside of a walnut shell. Todd is the nutcracker and he is breaking me out of my shell, slowly but surely.

"What are you making for us tonight, Todd?" I yelled into the kitchen.

"Spaghetti with garlic bread, does that sound good to you?" Todd asked.

"Yes, it sure does!" I watched a funny show known as "King of the Hill" and I started to smell the spaghetti and my stomach began to growl. I decided to walk into the kitchen and watch him cook. I am getting lonely as well. I walked over to the counter beside him and jumped up on it and Todd looked at me and laughed.

"What?" I said confused and leaned my head to the side.

"I think you are just adorable sitting up there watching me," Todd said and I giggled. He asked for some spices, which I handed them to him and I helped him break the noodles in half.

"Where did you learn to cook?" I asked and he smiled.

"My mom cooked until the divorce. She taught me a few things and this is the very first thing I learned," Todd said and I smiled.

"You really liked your mom didn't you?"

"Yeah, I sure did. I knew she was upset when I decided to stay in Oak Ridge, but this is my home, not the big city. She understands now, and I talked to her today and I told her about you."

"Uh oh, what does she think about me?" I actually wanted to know how Todd's mom thought about me.

"She is shocked about your age, but when I told her that I really liked you, she called you a keeper. She hopes for the best for us and she will meet you someday."

"Well, I cannot wait to meet her, she sounds like a dignified lady. When will I meet your dad?"

"He doesn't know about you yet. I plan on telling him tonight."

"I still haven't figured out how to tell mom about us when I turn eighteen."

"We got like, what, four months, to think about that. Quit worrying!" Todd leaned over and kissed my nose and he finished cooking. He told me to go to the living room, which I did, and he brought the food in. He has a hefty amount of spaghetti on our plates and my eyes grew.

"Well, my so-called diet is down the toilet!" I said and Todd rolled his eyes.

"Why do you think you are overweight? I don't think you are," Todd said then I rolled my eyes.

"Please, I am a size 12!" I said and he smiled.

"Back in the eighties, size 12 was skinny. Models we're size 12."

"Now they are size 00 and size 12 is considered very fat."

"Not to me, size 18, I consider that fat, but not you. I like curvy women, they look healthy and very happy!" I smiled and we dug into our supper. It tasted very good and we talked about anything we can come up with. When he mentioned my past relationships, I laughed.

"What relationships? The guys I dated before never wanted to be with me. I think they pity me more than they liked me. They never sat down and talked to me. They just kissed me, never wanted to have sex or touch me. I thought for a while, I was not a good girlfriend. When I met you, I learned that they are immature ass holes that goes for looks, not personality." I said and he nodded.

"But I think you are beautiful and you are a very sunny disposition and a very good sense of humor!" Todd said and I blushed.

"Why thank you, I try really hard to be funny!" Todd laughed and when we got done eating, I volunteered to do the dishes, since he cooked. I grabbed our plates and our drinking cups and went to the kitchen. When I started the water, I heard him turn back to MTV and I heard the metal music start again. As I got occupied cleaning the dishes, I didn't realize that the music stopped and I felt two arms wrapped around my waist and I felt a kiss against my cheek.

"When are you going to be done?" Todd said into my neck. I felt his stubble brush against my neck and it tickled and heighten my senses to the max. I never knew facial stubble can turn me on! I pushed my body into his and he wrapped his arms tighter around me. Oh, he is so strong and so warm against my body!

"Hmmm, maybe another five minutes. I just got the pans left," I said and he pulled me closer and rubbed his nose into my hair and then kissed it.

"I wish you would hurry up, I am getting lonely in there."

"I will hurry as fast as my hands can go." He turned me around and pressed me against the countertop. He kissed me with loads of tongue and I felt my bones melt. If I didn't grab his body, I would have fell to the floor from my knees melting. He grabbed my breast again and I didn't hesitate this time. I pushed my upper body to him so I can feel his hands on me more.

"I want to see your breast so bad," Todd said and I turned around and I cannot believe it, I finished the last pair of pans in less than two minutes. I drained and rinsed the sink and Todd smiled. He grabbed my hand and took me to his bedroom. He sat me on the bed and he stood in front of me.

"Step one of loving, Breasts are the first to get loved," Todd said and I nodded. How many steps are there? Three? I can think of breasts, my pussy and then sex. He took my shirt tails off and I pulled my top off. I sat before him in only my bra, and I started to feel nervous. This is the first time I am sitting in front of a man, in only in my bra. In a few moments, I know he will see my breast. I swallowed as he looked at me and then he finally smiled. Todd sat down on the bed and he kissed me lovingly. His lips kissed my lips, then they went to my cheek, my ear, my neck, my collarbone, and the part of my breasts that are showing above my pastel pink bra.

"Are you ready?" Todd asked me. I nodded my head because I am ready for him to see my breast. I want to see his reaction. Todd wrapped his arms around me and unhooked my bra. Unknowingly, I held my arms in front of me to hold my bra up. I felt nervous all of the sudden and he knew I was.

"Relax Savannah, I want to see you so bad. If you are getting scared, I will stop," Todd said and that made me less nervous, so I slowly let my arm down and let my bra fall off my body. I looked up into his eyes and he is staring at my breast.

"They are beautiful, made just for me," Todd said as he reached and grabbed one of my breast. It felt so much better than when he grabbed me when I had clothes on. His index and middle finger made a valley for my nipple and rubbed it until it puckered out. I began to moan and pushed my body to his hands, begging for more of his touch. I never knew how much I loved what he is about to do. He kissed my lips one more time then his head went down. I felt his lips kiss the top of my breast and then, his tongue flicked my nipple. OH MY GOD, it felt so good! I ran my fingers through his hair and pushed his head to feel more of his mouth, and he did just that. His mouth covered my whole nipple and sucked it. I moaned and my pussy ached for him. I know this is just step one, but god lee, I cannot wait for step two and three.

"Oh Todd! This feelsâ¦ahâ¦so good!" I moaned and he looked up at me and smiled.

"Step one is defiantly a success, ain't it?" Todd said and I laughed.

"Fuck yeah!" I moaned and then he let go. He grabbed my hand and he looked into my eyes and I knew something is going to happen.

"Do you want to know what it feels like, Savannah?" Todd asked.

"What are you talking about?" I asked confused.

"A cock, do you want to feel what a cock feels like?" I nodded approval and I felt sort of nervous, but like my mama say to me and Cameron, Curiosity killed the cat, but Satisfaction brought it back! He gently pushed my hand pass his pajama pant line and pass his boxers. I felt tense hair at first and then, I felt something smooth, hard and hot. I knew it was huge. I swallowed and I wonder if he is going to take his pants off and let me see it, but he didn't.

"I don't want to rush you into seeing me naked. That will make things too fast for you," Todd said and I relaxed. I let go of his hard cock and he grabbed me and he kissed me again. He took me back to the living room and we cuddled on the couch and watched some more television. Being with Todd is changing me, emotionally. I was just a mere girl that never had a decent boyfriend. Now, slowly, I am becoming what I wanted to be for a long time, a woman. Whatever the next step is, I don't know, maybe there I more sexual things to do other than boobs, pussy and sex itself, but I cannot wait!

Chapter 6: Step Two- Pussy Love!

A/N: Heya! Sorry it took me so long. I had school and work this week, and I stressed cause I lost two clients :(Doesn't matter now, I GOT AN INTERVIEW MONDAY YAY! Well, enough about Real Life, sorry this chapter is long. I got carried away. This is step 2! You can probably guess what it is, it involves her lower body ;) Read and comment loves! Oh yeah, the italics in here are text messages, if you are confused who is who (should be obvious) tell me and I will put up here who is who in the text messages!*

Chapter 6

My mom actedâ ¦strange when I got home. Maybe I had a huge smile on my face when I stepped through the door. It may be the fact that it is ten past ten at night.

"Had a good study session with Jenny? It's pretty late," Mom asked giving me a look that told me that she knew I am up to something.

"Yeah, well, I did stay and eat some spaghetti and had a girly fun with Jenny," I said and she smiled.

"As long as you are getting your studying done, I am fine with it." Whew! My heart about jumped out of my chest. I ran down to my bathroom, took a quick shower and ran to my bedroom. I needed to talk to Todd, like right now!

"Hey Todd!" I said when he answered.

"Hey baby, I am missing you already!" Todd said and I laughed.

"No, you just missing my boobies!"

"Not just your breasts, I miss all of you. You have the cutest laugh and a genuine smile."

"I am blushing, quit making me blush!"

"NEVER!" I laughed and we talked for about fifteen minutes until I had to go to bed. When I woke up the next morning and went to school, Annabella is near my locker and I tried to ignore her, but its hard when she is literally following you.

"Still talking to Todd?" Annabella asked and I rolled her eyes.

"Yes, so what?" I said and opened my locker and threw my book bag into my locker.

"He is eye candy, why is he interested in you?"

"Hmm, maybe its my personality, Annabella. Do you know what a personality is, Annabella?" I grabbed my books and everybody that Annabella hates cheered me on with my come back. Jenny smiled and Fritz just stared at me, like he is amazed or something.

"How can you stand up to Annabella like that?" He asked and I grabbed his shoulder and shook my head.

"My dear, dear Fritz, you must understand the American bitch. If you let her walk over you like shit, she will win. If you just find that bubble that surrounds her and pop it, she will fall and leaves you alone until that bubble forms again," I said and Jenny laughed.

"It usually takes her about a week to get back. She will leave Savannah alone for a little bit," Jenny said and Fritz grabbed her and pulled him closer. Ever since I've been with Todd, seeing Jenny and Fritz hug and kiss each other doesn't bother me or make me love sick anymore. It makes me smile and makes me think their cute together even more.

"I love you, Fritz," Jenny said and Fritz kissed her nose.

"I love you, too, Jenny," Fritz said and they kissed. I left the lovebirds for their make out session and as I sat down in my English class, my phone vibrated, and it's a text from Todd.

Hey baby, dad wants to meet you, tonight
-TM and SL

That's cool :) where do you want to meet?
-Vannah and Todd

How about my place? I'll just drive us over there?
-TM and SL

Sure thing! See you later MWAH xoxo

I quickly put my cell phone in my pocket before my teacher seen it and took it away. Wow, I am going to meet Bob Middleton, the owner of Oak Ridge Lumberyard!

When I got to Todd's place, he is already outside, ready to go. I parked and locked my car in his driveway and we walked to his car. When we got in his car, Todd finally smiled at me.

"Ready?" He asked.

"Yeah, I am!" I said and he leaned over and gave me a kiss. He drove down the street and through downtown of our medium size town. He pulled into a mini mansion and my mouth went agape. It is huge! This mansion is like my house times three!

"Well, that's where my dad lives and where I use to live until I was eighteen," Todd said and I looked at him.

"This is HUGE!" I said and he laughed.

"Eh, its not that homey, too big for my liking. Come on, my dad is waiting on us." Todd held my hand and we walked up the stairs that seems to made of marble and he ran the doorbell. We stood there for a few moments and he looked down at me and licked his lips.

"What?" I said.

"I can see down your shirt!" Todd said and I giggled. I pulled my shirt up so I don't show a lot of cleavage and the doors opened. A woman in her lower forties opened the door and smiled at us.

"Todd, glad to see you!" the woman said and hugged him.

"Heather, this is Savannah, my girlfriend," Todd said after he let go of her. She looked over at me with her beautiful brunette hair and blue eyes. She looks like she had some plastic surgery done, but she still looks very pretty.

"Hello Savannah, I am Heather Middleton, Todd's step mom, welcome to our home. Bob should be here any minute! I made us dinner, do you like Chicken Parmesan?" Heather asked and I nodded to agree. "GREAT! I shall return to the kitchen!" she said and she left. Todd grabbed my hand and he walked me around his old home. He showed me the room where they have parties, the main living room with the huge flat screen TV and then he took me upstairs. He took me to a bedroom that looks like it belongs to a man.

"Well, this is my old bedroom," Todd said and I looked around. He seemed like a normal teenager, and I seen him in here, doing what ever teenage Todd done.

"What did you do in here?" I asked him.

"I lost my virginity in here, if you wondering that," Todd said and I nodded. "The girl was a junior and I was a senior. She was the class whore and I gave in when she was hitting on me."

"Where is she now?" I asked, hoping to hear that she is a mom or a whore still.

"No one knows. She vanished six months later. People said she got pregnant and quit, some people thought she got killed."

"Wow, that is very strange!"

"I don't care about her or any woman, I got you now." He pushed me to the bed and let me sit down on it. His hands touched my breasts from the side and I closed my eyes and absorbed the feeling of him touching me.

"What is the next step?" I asked him and Todd let his hands fall to my lap and barely touched my crotch.

"Your pussy," Todd said and I swallowed. I knew it. Will he finger me? Will he eat me out? What about both? "We are going to leave here as soon as we finished eating and socializing for a bit. I want you to know if I am going too fastâ¦"

"I've been ready for a long time, Todd. I just never found the right person. Yes, I will be nervous, but I am ready. I am ready to become a woman!" He groaned and pulled me closer to his body and he kissed me. His tongue played with mine and I feel like melting again.

"Hey you two, Bob is home!" Heather said outside the door and he let go of me and I smiled.

"Well, lets go meet my dad!" Todd said and he wrapped his arm around my waist and he took me to the big living room and a man in his fifties is changing the channel on the big screen TV and Todd cleared his throat.

"Dad, I want you to meet my girlfriend, Savannah Loftis," Todd said and the man stood up and I smiled. Todd and his father looks like identical twins, except that Mr. Middleton has gray hair instead of the chestnut color hair Todd has. The man walked up to me and he touched my shoulder.

"Hello Savannah, nice to meet you. I will admit, I kind of freaked out when Todd told me that you are seventeen. I don't mind the age difference one bit, Heather is nine years younger than me," Bob said and I looked towards the kitchen where Heather is putting the plates together and she is humming away.

"Nice to meet you, Mr. Middleton," I said and he smiled.

"Mr. Middleton is my father, Savannah, call me Bob!"

"I love your house, Bob." I tried to be polite and I knew Todd knew so too because he squeezed my hand.

"Thank you, I built it twenty five years ago when my ex-wife found out she was pregnant with Todd. I wanted a house that will help my family grow. Unfortunately, after Todd, she had several miscarriages, so Todd is our only child."

"I have a younger brother name Cameron, he is ten. My mom had a miscarriage between me and him, so I know all about the pain." I still remember the night my mom had the miscarriage. I was about five years old and my dad was reading me a story. I heard my mom scream and dad carried me to my bedroom and told me to go to sleep. I couldn't because my mom was still screaming. I followed my dad to the master bedroom and I seen the floor covered in blood. My dad took me to my grandmothers house and he took my mom to the emergency room. My mom told me that the baby went to live with Jesus, and I understood perfectly what she meant. I was not dumb, I knew the baby died.

"Dinner's ready y'all!" Heather yelled and all three of us went to the dining room, which could fit in my bedroom and my bathroom! I sat beside Todd and while Bob and Heather talked to us, Todd began to rub my thigh and slid his hand between my legs. I cleared my throat and looked at him. I could tell that Todd is very aroused.

"Are you planning to go to college, Savannah?" Bob asked me.

"Yeah, I am going to the community college here and then transfer to University of Tennessee when I get my associate degree in journalism," I said and Todd gently squeezed my thigh and his hand got closer to my pussy.

"I know you can do it, you can do anything," Todd said and winked at me. I blushed and started to eat on my dinner. We all finished our dinner and their maid, yes they got maids there, took our plates and we all started towards the living room. Todd told his dad and step mom that he has to do something for a few minutes and they excused us. Todd grabbed my hand and took me to the library and closed the door behind me. Todd became an animal with me and kissed me like he will die tomorrow. He pushed me to the table and help me sit on top of it.

"I cannot wait till we get back to my place, I want your pussy now!" Todd growled and it sounded so kinky!

"That bad?" I moaned as he pulled my top down so he can see my cleavage and kissed my breasts.

"Very bad, I could fuck you right now, but I know you don't want to yet." Todd pulled my top down further and exposed one of my breasts covered with my bra and he pulled the bra away from it. He started to suck my nipple and I ran my fingers through his hair and moaned. Todd began to un buckle my belt and my pants and he started to pull my pants down. Todd let go of my breast and looked into my eyes as he pulled my pants off and they fell to the ground.

"Lay back," he said and I obliged. Todd raised my shirt up and kissed from the bottom of my bra down to the lining of my panties. When he kissed the lining of my panties, I jerked from the pleasure. He smiled and he hooked his index finger on both ends of my panties and pulled them down. I covered my eyes as he pulled my panties down and I heard him chuckle.

"Why you covering your face, baby? I love your hairy pussy! Maybe you can trim it up a little, but I love your pussy baby. Its so pink and wet and I know its going to be so tight!" Todd said and I felt his finger go up and down my lips. I sucked my breath in and then, Todd began to play with my clit with his finger. I moaned and rolled my head around, messing up the papers on the table. His finger went down to my pussy hole and he inserted one finger. I moaned loudly and he looked up at me and he smiled.

"Does that feel good, Savannah?" Todd asked.

"Oh yes, yes it does! I want more!" I moaned out and he inserted one more finger and began to move them in and out. As he fingered the hell out of my pussy, I felt his tongue on my clit. OH MY GOD! It is better than what I thought! I love the feel of his wet tongue on my clit! Todd slowly licked my clit, going clockwise a few times then counterclockwise. He sucked it, licked it, everything you can think of.

"Oh Todd! Oh Todd!" I moaned out when I feel something build up inside me. He pushed his fingers deeper into my pussy and he touched a sensitive spot, which made that feeling more intense. He sucked my clit more and I started panting.

"What's going on, Todd?" I moaned and panicked a little.

"Don't stop it, baby, you are Cumming!" Todd said and I let the feeling build up so much that my lower tummy ached and then, I exploded. I felt this hot liquid leave my pussy and it got all over Todd's face. He pressed his fingers into me one more time and sucked a few moments longer. He got on top of me and he licked his lips to taste my cum. After he licked my cum off his face, he licked them off his fingers.

"Your cum tastes so sweet," Todd said and he kissed me and I tasted my own cum, which turned me on a little. I sat up and I wanted to pleasure him now.

"Take your pants off, Todd," I demanded. Todd looked confused, but he took his pants off and his boxers. His hard on bounced a little and I got on my hands and knees and grabbed it. I sat there for a second and tried to remember how Jenny gave Fritz a blow job. Yes, she gets pretty descriptive about her sexual activity with Fritz. I finally remember and I tickled the head of Todd's huge cock with my tongue.

"Oh baby, I won't take long to cum!" Todd said and ran his fingers through my hair. I pushed my head into his cock until his head touched the back of my throat, I guess you call that deep throating. I had to go back a little because I gagged a little. I began to suck his cock and my head bobbed as I done it and I could feel Todd's cum go up his cock and his breathing became labored.

"I told you it won't take me long. I haven't masturbated since I met you!" Todd moaned out and then he groaned as his cum entered my mouth. I swallowed the contents and wiped my mouth.

"You had to give a blow job before, that was just too good!" Todd said and I blushed.

"My friend Jenny told me how she gave her man a blow job, I just remembered how she done it!" I said and he chucked.

"Sorry that I cummed so fast. Like I said, I wanted to cum a lot when we either fucked or you sucked my cock," Todd said and I nodded. So, it won't take him about two minutes to cum, good! I want the sex to last a long time. I still feel sort of nervous about having sex. Of course, I am a virgin, but not for long!! We stayed at his dad's a little while longer and Todd said that he was showing me the library and he let me look through the books, which Bob didn't mind. When Todd took us back to his place, he gave me a good night kiss and he smiled. I loved his smile and you know what, I love Todd as well. I wonder if he loves me?

Chapter 7: Losing her Virginity

A/N: Heya! Sorry it took me slower than usual to write this. I wanted this chapter to be perfect! There is a song refrence in here, so I recommend y'all listen to a song known as "Without You" by Motley Crue. Its such a pretty song! Thank y'all for reading my story and remember to comment!*

Chapter 7

Friday came along rather slow. Todd and I spent almost everyday together, except for Wednesday and I had to pick up Cameron from football practice and my dad showed up to my house. My dad and I are closer than my mom and I. I wanted to tell him about Todd, but I was afraid he would freak out and tell my mom. I will eventually tell him about Todd, maybe he won't tell her. Tonight, I think it's the night I will lose my virginity. I am spending the night with Todd, and my mom is under the impression that I am going to be with Jenny tonight. My mom has been complaining about me not being home, but she is happy that I am "studying" with Jenny. I am studying alright, I am studying Todd's body! Sorry, I knew that was lame! I walked out of my school and I called my mom and told her that I am heading over to Jenny's right now and she sighed.

"I hate that you are spending time away from me!" Mom said.

"I'm sorry mom, I just want to spend time with my friend. I will be back Sunday and I will spend Sunday and Monday with you," I said. I have Monday off school and Todd has to work on the weekdays and he is off the whole weekend.

"That is good, well I will see you when you get home. Remember to call me when you're fixing to go to bed and when you wake up!"

"I will mom, I love you!"

"Love you too, sweetie!" I got off the phone and I drove over to Todd's place. When I parked in his driveway, my heart began to race. I cannot believe I am about to have sex tonight! I walked to the front door and I knocked. Todd told me that I don't have to knock, but I still want to. He opened the door and he is still in his work clothes.

"Hey baby," Todd said and I smiled.

"Hi," I said shyly and he let me in. He closed the door behind me and he wrapped his arm around me and he walked me to the living room. I sat down and he joined me and wrapped me into his arms and he turned on the TV. We didn't say anything or do anything, until an hour later. I got fed up on his niceness, I wanted him wild! I leaned over and started to kiss his neck and I head Todd moan.

"I want to wait till tonight," Todd said.

"We can still make out," I said and I kissed his lips. His arms wrapped around me and he pulled me onto his lap, and I began to kiss him hard. I wanted him so bad, I thought about him all day at school and it made me horny and I wet my panties a little. I let go to catch my breath and Todd's lips touched my neck and my head fell back and my black hair skimmed my back like a light waterfall.

"I don't think I can wait any longer, Todd!" I moaned as his hands kneaded my breasts.

"I just don't want sex to be the only purpose of you coming to spend the night with me," Todd said and I swallowed. I understand now, and I can wait. He wants me there because he actually wants me there, not for sex. I kissed him one more time and got off of his lap. Should I tell him about me loving him? I asked my mom one night about love and I know now that she is getting highly suspicious.

Flashback to two days agoâ¦

"Mom, how do you know that you are in love?" I asked my mom in her bedroom.

"Why do you ask? Do you think you are in love?" She asked me as she brushed her brown hair which is as long as my hair.

"Maybe, but he doesn't know yet."

"I knew I was in love with your father when I was seventeen and he was twenty-two. I didn't want to be in love with him due to his age, but I couldn't help it. My heart raced every time I seen him. Every time I seen him, I wanted to kiss him until I couldn't anymore. I even wanted to make love to him and I knew I couldn't. One day, he came up to me and asked me out and I did. We made love probably two weeks later, and I got pregnant with you. When we made love, he told me he loved me and I told him I loved him."

"What happened between you and dad? Did he cheat on you?" I heard my mom yell at my dad before they got the divorce about another woman, which is probably my step mom.

"Yes, he said he didn't feel the spark between us for a long time. I did every time I seen him. I still had those feelings with him at twenty-nine, the heart racing the wanting to kiss him. The wanting of him to make love to me. He just fell out of love with me," Mom said and I began to get scared. Todd can fall out of love with me, if he is even in love with me.

"Did he right out say it or waited till the right moment?" I asked her.

"Right before he took my virginity, he looked into my eyes and told me he loved me. If you really love this guy, Vannah, just tell him how you feel."

"I am scared."

"Scared of what honey?"

"That he doesn't love me or fall out of love with me."

"If he truly loves you, baby, he will never fall out of love with youâ¦"

"Todd, I have something to say," I said and I closed my eyes and swallowed. It's now or never.

"What is it, Savannah?" Todd said putting some of my hair behind my ear.

"Iâ¦love you." My head dropped so I can see the floor, preparing for something either good or bad. There is an awkward silence in the house. Is he shocked? Is he happy that I finally came out and say how I felt? He needs to say something, my heart is sinking.

"Do you really love me, baby?" Todd finally said and I looked up with tears in my eyes.

"Yes, Todd, I really do. I know we only been together for like a week, but I knew for a few days now that if you we're ever to go away, I would melt and die," I said and he reached over and wiped my tears from my cheeks with his thumb and pulled my face closer. When our noses touched, he smiled.

"I love you, too, Savannah," he said and he kissed me. My heart soared at those five words he just said. He loves me! Thank god he loves me too! I wrapped my arms around his neck and he pulled away to look into my eyes.

"You cannot believe how much I love you, Vannah. I love everything about you and I cannot think what my life will be like without you." I looked at him and I began to laugh. He actually looked hurt and I stopped laughed.

"I just realized that almost everything we are saying about love sounds like that Motley Crue song 'Without You'," I said and he smiled.

"How would you know about the Crue?" Todd asked and I laughed.

"My parents are die hard fans, so I hear them all the time." He pulled my body to him and I lay in his lap and it was nothing sexual by this, I laid on his lap watching television as he ran his fingers through my hair.

"I never seen hair this black before," He said and I turned to look up at him.

"My dad is half Indian, my grandmother is Cherokee Indian, born and raised in the Western North Carolina mountains. I've met her before, but she never leaves the reservation and she is long gone, she passed away when I was six years old."

"I'm sorry, sounded like you wanted to get close to her."

"I wanted to know more of my Indian heritage, I am quarter Cherokee after all!" I let Todd touch my face and I loved how softly he touched my face and how gentle his smile is when he smiled at me.

"You hungry? I'll order us a pizza to be delivered," Todd said and I nodded.. He grabbed the phone beside him on the table, not moving me at all and he ordered us a pepperoni pizza. The pizza came and we ate and we watched more TV. Around eight that night, I needed a shower BAD!

"Can I take a shower?" I asked Todd and he laughed.

"Why you asking me? You are more than welcome to take a shower. Towels are in the shelf beside the bathroom and you brought your own soap right?" I nodded and he kissed me. I grabbed my things and a towel and walked into the bathroom. I turned on the tub water and undressed and I looked at myself in the mirror after I undressed. I wanted to look at myself before I lost my virginity tonight. I wanted to see the old me before the new me came out. Once the water warmed up to my liking, I stepped into the shower. I got too busy underneath the water from rinsing my hair out when something walked into the bathroom. I felt arms being wrapped around my wet body and warm lips kiss my neck.

"Hey baby!" Todd said and I jumped out my skin and screamed.

"FUCK! You scared me!" I said and placed my hand on my chest and he is laughing his ass off.

"Sorry baby!" He said and he pulled me closer and held me. After I got my bearings back, I got on my tip toes and I brushed my lips against his and wrapped my arms around his neck. As we kissed, Todd began to touch my body and his hands fondled my breasts and I sighed into his mouth. I let go and I wanted to see his body. I backed up and I stared at his naked body. He is highly fit and he does not have washboard abs. I loved his body, I loved the chest hair that lightly dusted across his chest and trailed down to his naval and connected to his pubic hair. I looked at his cock and I swallowed. He is hard, I can you that much. He is huge, probably about 8-9 inches. Todd grabbed me and pulled me so close that my breasts are pressed against his hard chest and his erection went between my legs. I moaned when his cock jerked from the heat coming from my pussy and he smiled.

"Are you sure you want to have sex tonight?" Todd said in his aroused, husky voice. I nodded and turned around and turned the water off. We stepped out the shower and we dried each other off. After we wrapped each other in towels, Todd grabbed my hand and walked me to his bedroom. As we stepped into his room, I began to get nervous. I know this is normal, so I tried to not look nervous. He closed the door behind him and he walked up to me. Todd smiled as he took my towel off and I heard it fall to the floor.

"You can take my towel off, if you want to," Todd said and I untied the knot around his waist and I let it fall on the floor. I looked at his chest and I have the urge to touch him. I ran my nails down his muscular chest and touched his warmed skin and damp chest hairs. Then I ran my nails down his erect and hard nipples and he sucked in a breath. My hands began to go down to his navel and I followed the hair trail to his cock and I looked up at him. I stopped and Todd smiled and he kissed me. He let me sit on the bed and I scooted back and lay down so he can get on top of me.

"Go to the pillows, I want you to get comfortable," Todd said and I crawled to the pillows and he finally got on top of me. Todd began kissing me on my neck then he kissed my breasts, sucked my nipples for a little bit. After my breasts, he made a kiss trail down my stomach and my hip bone. He kissed my inner thigh, which made me raise my hips up and I felt his tongue on my clit. I moaned his name over and over as his tongue done its magic on me. I felt my orgasm build up and I began to move around and moan even more and he quit.

"Todd!" I whined and he got on top of me.

"I want you to cum on my cock, Savannah. Are you ready? It will hurt and you know I don't want to hurt you, I love you too much," Todd said and I nodded.

"I know, I am ready." Todd arms wrapped around my shoulders and I felt the head against my hole and I closed my eyes and let a slow breath out. When his cock entered me and penetrated my virgin lining, I felt pain and I cried out a little.

"So sorry, it will go away in a minute, I love you!" Todd said and I felt the trinkle of blood go down my leg. He stopped and let the pain subside and I nodded for him to go. I wrapped my legs around his waist as he fucked me gently and slow. It began to feel so good and my moaned and screamed his name.

"Todd, fuck me harder!" I said and he looked down at me and smiled.

"Are you sure?" Todd asked and I nodded. He started to fuck me really hard and he went faster. I moaned his name as his cock hit that special spot and I began to pant as I felt my orgasm build up again.

"Oh I love you, I love you! I am fixing to cum, Todd!" I moaned and he began to go harder and deeper inside me.

"Oh god, me too, Savannah! I love you, too!" Todd said and I felt myself cum all over his cock and I felt the hot, thick liquid enter me as Todd cum in me. He collapsed on top of me and we lay like that for a few minutes. We had to catch our breath! He finally got off of me and lay down beside me. He pulled me closer and wrapped my arms around me and we fell asleep. Tonight has changed me. I feel different, I feel good! I feel like a woman. Todd has made me into a woman!

Chapter 8: Love Conquers All

A/N: Hello my loves! This is shorter than usual, unlike the past few chapters. I just wanted to remind you to please go to my profile and go down to my links. I have a poll started for my new story! This story here is not finished yet, so don't worry! This has like five more chapters left. I want my fans and readers to choose what story I will write next. Each chapter I put up I will update y'all what is winning so far. Thanks for reading and I love you all!

Chapter 8

I woke up the next morning very happy. I looked down and Todd is sleeping away, snoring lightly. I smiled and I touched his cheek and then leaned over and kissed his cheek. I jerked the covers off of me and I sighed. I seen the bloody stain that I caused when we had sex last night. No, we did not have sex again, I think we wore ourselves out. I didn't want to wake Todd up, so I grabbed my clothes and walked to the bathroom. I actually took a shower, shampoo and wash my body off, without any interruptions. I walked back to the bedroom and Todd is still asleep, so I decided to make breakfast. I went to the kitchen and grabbed some bacon and pancake mix and made some breakfast. When the bacon finished, I heard footsteps and I looked over and Todd is standing there, rubbing his eyes.

"Good morning, sunshine, the earth says hello!" I said cheerfully and he smiled at me.

"You are nice and refreshed this morning," Todd said and I slid the last thing of bacon onto the platter and looked at him.

"I took a nice refreshing shower and made some breakfast. It should be done here in five minutes, I got to make some pancakes for us."

"That is so nice of you, you didn't have to do that baby."

"I wanted to!" Todd walked to me and wrapped his arms around me and kissed me lovingly.

"I love you so much, Savannah," he said and I wrapped my arms around and brushed my nose across his.

"I love you, too, Todd," I said and he pulled me to his body and hugged me. His hands went to my ass and pulled me to his erection and I looked up at him and winked at him.

"Can you wait till after breakfast?" I said and he looked over at the bacon and licked his lips.

"Yeah, that bacon is sure looking really good!" he said and I laughed. I mixed up the pancake batter and made some pancakes. I served them and we ate in the living room. Todd sat very close to me and when he finished, which he finished first, he wrapped his arm around my shoulder and began kissing my neck.

"I got a few more bites, Todd," I said and he kept kissing me. I began to moan and I put my plate down and turned my body towards him and he lay me back on the couch. I opened my legs and he fit into my body and I felt his hands on my shorts. He pulled my shorts down and my underwear went along with it. I swallowed and he pulled his pajama pants off and I took my own shirt off. He pushed his cock inside me and I moaned loudly. I wrapped my legs around him and he began to fuck me hard and fast.

"I love you, I love you!" I moaned and Todd kissed my neck.

"I love you, too, my love!" Todd said into my neck and I felt my orgasm build up and he began to tense up like he is fixing to cum. "Cum for me, Savannah!" Todd said and I cum for him and a few seconds later, he cum inside me. He lay on top of me for a few moments, kissing my neck and he got off of me.

"That is called a quickie my dear Savannah!" Todd said and I laughed.

"I like quickies, but I like what we done last night better!" I said and he wrapped his arms around me and nuzzled his nose into my neck.

"I got plans for us today, so finish what you are eating and we are heading out." I finished the half of a pancake and the slice of bacon and I put the plate in the sink. Todd took me to the car and he took me to the shopping centre here in Oak Ridge. We walked around and he bought me a few things like a tee-shirt, a bra and underwear combo because he wants to see me in it and a new pair of shoes.

"Stop spending money on me!" I said and he laughed.

"I want to spoil my baby," Todd said and kissed me. I didn't care that everybody is watching me, they don't know who I am. They may know Todd, but since Todd's dad knows about us, they won't say anything.

"I love you so much!" Todd said and I kissed him again.

"I love you, too, with all my heart and soul!" I said and he grabbed my hand and we walked over to the electronics. He wanted to find a certain artist, so I walked across the way to the jewelry section and something caught my eye. A engagement ring and wedding band set. It is so beautiful! I just kept looking at it and I knew that I am going a bit too far looking at it and somehow, I wanted. I shook my head and Todd wrapped his arms around my waist.

"Why are you looking at the wedding stuff? Already planning to marry me?" Todd said and I sighed.

"No, just looking, we just been together for a week," I said and he kissed my temple.

"My dad wanted to marry my step mom within a week, so its possible, but you are right. We need to let our relationship have a chance. I still love you though," Todd said and I hugged him. Deep inside me, I knew Todd wanted to marry me. Give me a few months, after I turn eighteen, I will want to marry him then.

Sunday came so quickly. Todd had things to do at his father's house, so I left a few hours early. Todd and I made love last night and it was not hard and fast, it was loving and soft and romantic. Afterwards, I laid on his chest and he ran his fingers up and down my arm. I remembered falling asleep and I heard him talk to himself.

"Savannah, I love you so much. I love you more than life itself. I want to marry you. I want you to get pregnant with my babies. I want to grow old with you. I will propose to you after you turn eighteen. Fuck, I wish you would turn eighteen soon!" I heard Todd said last night. I was half awake when I heard him and he doesn't know that I heard him. I knew it, I knew that he wants to marry me!

"Mom, I am home!" I said as I walked through the door. My mom came to the front door and she hugged me.

"Did you have a great time at Jenny's?" she asked me.

"Except for her and Fritz making out every five seconds when he came over, it was fun," I said and she laughed.

"Did you seeâ¦him?" I looked at her confused. "You know, the guy you wanted to tell him that you loved him?"

"Oh him! No, Jenny said that he had something to do with his family. Jenny said he loves me too, he cannot stop talking about me!" I smiled and my mom also smiled. It kills me to not tell my mom that I lost my virginity Friday. I wanted to sit and talk to her and tell her how I feel. I wanted to tell her that he loves me so much that he wants to marry me. I can't, she will forbid me from seeing Todd. Mom told me that we are going to evening services tonight and that I can relax in my room, she has a visitor. I went to my room and I called Todd.

"I already miss you baby, I cannot believe that I won't see you till Tuesday!" Todd said and I frowned.

"I might make a visit to the garage tomorrow, my mom works in the mornings," I said.

"That sounds good, I want to show you off to the boys!"

"Oh no, what will they do to me?"

"Nothing at all, they better not do anything!" I laughed and we talked for a little while longer. When he had to get off the phone when his dad came to the room, I heard his dad's voice, he told me he loved me and I told him I loved him, and we got off the phone. I sat around for a few hours, got ready and went to church with my mom and brother. For the rest of the night, I talked to Todd and Jenny over the phone and Jenny freaked out when I told her that I had sex.

"Oh my goodness, Savannah has blossomed to a woman! Did you like it? Was he rough?" Jenny asked me and I laughed.

"I love sex, of course! He was so gentle with me at first to get rid of the virgin pain and then I begged him to fuck me hard!" I said and she gasped.

"Wow, we got a wild woman here!"

"We had sex probably three times this weekend, and one of them was a quickie."

"I love quickies, Fritz and I have those every morning in his car before we get to school."

"JENNY!"

"What, I love sex too. Fritz made me a sex-aholic! I think Todd is so good for you. I think you will be just like me and Fritz a few months from now, engaged!"

"I sure hope so, Jenny, I sure hope so!"

Chapter 9: Telling The Parents

A/N: Hey guys! I am lucky to have this chapter out. My water pump in my car blew yesterday in a town about an hour away from my house! I am very stressed right now and it took an effort to write this. I hope its still good! There is 4 more chapters left, I am going to Chapter 13. So far, Teacher/Student is winning with 4 votes, then its the one night stand erotica with 1 vote and the poor western erotica has none. Remember to PLEASE vote! Voting ends when I release Chapter 13! The link is on my profile in the "links" box. Enjoy this chapter!

Chapter 9

Right after my mom left for work Monday morning, I immediately got into my car and drove to Todd's garage. I went to the office and Todd is in there talking on the phone. He seen me and he smiled.

"I'll send Jack out to get it, okay that is fine. It depends how bad the damage is on the car, okay thank you!" Todd said and he hung up the phone. I turned around and locked the door behind me and turn the shade down on the window. I ran over to him and kissed him, actually attacked him. His hands went to my pants and he took them off along with my panties. He took his pants and boxers off and he grabbed my hips and sat me on his lap facing him.

"I don't knowâ ¦" I tried to say but he put his finger to my lips.

"I'll show you how," Todd said and he lifted me up and I sat my wet pussy on his hard cock. I breathed heavily and his hands began to move my hips back and forth.

"That's it, oh my god, just move like that!" Todd said and I began to move faster and faster and I pushed my body down to feel more of him.

"Oh fuck!" I said as the head of his cock hit that spot. Jenny told me its called my G-spot and it's the spot in my pussy hole that makes me cum. I bounced and moved my body so his cock can rub and hit my G-spot and I began to moan and my orgasm began to build up.

"I want you to fucking squirt on my cock, Savannah!" Todd said and I kept hitting my G-spot and I felt myself squirt all over his cock and then he grabbed my body and lay me down on his desk. He began fucking me hard and it moved my whole body on his desk and I heard the papers fall to the floor.

"I'm cumming baby!" Todd said and he began to fuck me deeply and hard and then I felt the warm thick liquid fill me up. He got out of my pussy and I pulled my panties and pants back up.

"Wow, that's a nice hello!" Todd said and I kissed him.

"I needed you since I left your place yesterday," I said and he smiled.

"I did too, baby, I love you!" Todd said and I hugged him tight.

"I love you, too! I never want to leave you longer than a few minutes anymore!"

"Same here baby, but you got school and you need to spend time with your mom."

"I knowâ ¦I wish January would get here soon!"

"I know, I already got plans for your birthday."

"I cannot wait to bring you in and meet my mom and dad and tell him that you are the man I fell in love with." Todd smiled and he ran his fingers down my face and I heard a knock on the door and Todd asked whoever it was to come in.

"Dude, Jack just left to get the wrecked car and the Chevy sedan is done," the guy said and smiled at me. "Is this your girl?"

"Yeah, this is Savannah, my beautiful girlfriend. Vannah, this is my best friend, Tim. Tim and I went to auto mechanics school together and me and him co-owns this shop," Todd said and I smiled.

"It's great to start a business with a friend. With the field I want to get in, I cannot start a business with Jenny. I believe Jenny is going to school to be a math teacher anyways," Savannah said and Todd smiled.

"Tim, when Jack gets in, make sure he filled out the paperwork and y'all can leave for the day when the owner gets the Chevy, okay?" Todd said and Tim smiled and agreed. Todd grabbed his things and he told me to follow him to the nearest cafÃ© in town. When we sat down and waited on the waitress to show up, Todd grabbed my hand and ran his fingers down my hand.

"Savannah, I love you so much," Todd said and I pulled his hand to my lips and kissed it.

"I love you too," I said and our waitress came and we ordered something and we looked at the breakfast menu. I peaked over the menu to look at Todd and he is also doing the same thing. I giggled and looked at the menu again. I don't know if I can wait any longer. I want my mom and my dad to know. I don't fucking care if she doesn't like it. My dad will understand because he was overage when he started to date my mom. My mom should understand as well, she was in my shoes!

"Todd, I am going to tell my parents about us. I cannot wait any longer!" I said and he closed his menu and looked at me.

"Are you sure? Are you afraid that your mom will forbid you from seeing me?" Todd asked and I sighed.

"She cannot stop me from seeing you. If I have to, I will move out and live with either Jenny or you. Jenny's parents are never home."

"You can move in with me if you want to." I smiled and then I sighed again. I want Todd to be there when I tell them.

"Todd, I am going to tell them tonight and you are going to be there," I said and he nodded. The waitress came back with our drinks and we ordered some pancakes and sausage. We ate in silence the whole time and when Todd paid and we walked out, I dialed my parents numbers. I just told them that I needed to talk with them both as soon as possible. Dad said that he will take his break early and come over to my house and mom said she is on her way home from work anyways. When I got the phone with my mom, I looked over at Todd and inhaled deeply from being so nervous.

"Ready?" I asked and he kissed me.

"Ready, I love you and I will always love you. I just hope this works out really good," Todd said and I smiled.

"I do too, I hope my parents accept you." We got in our cars and we drove to my house. My parents cars are parked in the driveway and Todd parked in the street. I walked over to him and grabbed his hand. When we got to the front door, I closed my eyes and tried to gather my nerves.

"You can do this, baby. I love you!" Todd said and kissed my cheek. I nodded and I walked in. I heard my mom and dad talking in the living room and I walked into the room and stood in front of them, still holding Todd's hand. My parents just stared at us, shocked. My mom talked first.

"Is that the guy that took you home when you we're drunk?" My mom asked.

"Yes, his name is Todd Middletonâ¦" I said and my dad finally talked.

"You're Bob Middleton's son!" dad said and Todd nodded.

"Yes sir, I am; Savannah has something to say," Todd said and I swallowed.

"Todd and I are dating and I love him. He also loves me and I decided that y'all needed to know about us," I said and my parents stared at me and my dad stood up and looked at me.

"Honey, he is much older than you," dad said and I closed my eyes.

"I know dad, but age doesn't matter to us. Mom was sixteen when you met her, and you we're like twenty-two," I said and my dad looked down. I can tell I won him over when he hugged me and smiled at Todd.

"Todd, as she said, I was in your shoes when I was younger. I got with her mother when she was sixteen and I was twenty-two. Age doesn't matter and I will adjust with y'all's age difference. It will take me some time, but I will," my dad said and I hugged my dad and he hugged me tight.

"I love you so much, dad!" I said and my dad kissed my cheek.

"I love you too, darling, I am just glad you are very happy!" My mom cleared her throat. I looked at my mom and she looked sort of angry, maybe surprised.

"Savannah, it may take me some time to adjust too, but it's just weird to me. I will let you see, Todd, but I am so mad about you hiding this from me!" My mom said and I looked down at the floor.

"I am sorry mom, I was just afraid that you won't let me see him," I said and my mom's face soften.

"I remember when I told my parents about me dating your dad. They actually kicked me out and I just moved in with him. I want you to have the freedom my parents never gave me." My mom let me go and walked over to Todd and she put her hands on her hips. "If I hear that you broke my daughters heart, I will hunt you down and I will kill you," she said and Todd smiled.

"You don't have to worry, I will never break Savannah's heart. I love her more than life itself," Todd said and I ran over to him and wrapped my arms around him. I looked over at my parents and both of them are smiling.

"My baby girl is finally in love," my dad said and my mom squeezed my dad's shoulder.

"You are right, our baby girl is in love," my mom said and Todd and I smiled at them.

The next day, Todd actually drove me to school. Since my parents accepted our relationship, which I am still shocked about, mom told me that Todd can take me to school and pick me up. When we made it to the school, I leaned over and kissed him.

"See you after school," I said and he smiled and touched my cheek.

"I love you," Todd said and I smiled at him.

"I love you, too." I kissed him one more time and grabbed my school things. Jenny and Fritz are waiting on me and they waved at Todd, which he waved at them back. I walked to my locker and I felt a presence behind me and it did not feel good.

"You are a fucking whore, you know that?" Annabella said and I turned around and looked at her.

"Why am I a whore?" I asked her putting my hands on my hips.

"I wanted Todd and you took him away from me!"

"He never liked you! He has told me things about you that made me more disgusted about you then ever before." Annabella knew what I am talking about. Todd told me last night that Annabella goes to his dad's lumberyard and fucks all the workers there, excluding my dad, but she tried to get with him.

"Now, you can leave me the fuck alone or I will announce to the whole school that you are the biggest whore of Oak Ridge, Tennessee!" I said and she leaned closer and she looked worried.

"You better not!" she said and I gave her a mean look and a cruel smile.

"If you talk, look or even think about Todd, I will tell the whole school about what you really do at the lumberyard, got that?" I said and she just looked at me and I growled, "GOT THAT!"

"Yes," she mumbled and she walked away and I shook my head. My dad told me that a little blackmail goes a long way!

Chapter 10: First Fight :(

A/N: Hey everybody! There is only three more chapters! I was planning to have something HUGE happen, but I decided not to cause it would've been ugly! I decided to quit the polls because only 5 people voted. So my next story is going to be any of those three! I am already brainstorming it right now! Enjoy reading Oh yeah, you find out something about a family member in here that might shock you!

Chapter 10

The next few weeks has been good. Annabella has not bothered me, she actually has been quite friendly. She knows I will stick to my word if she messes with my man! My dad and Todd are getting along great, like best friends great. Whenever dad thinks Todd needs to get away from me for a few hours, he takes him to a bar and have a few drinks. Mom keeps inviting Todd, Bob and Jennifer to dinner practically every weekend. Y'all should have seen my parents when I told them that I am not a virgin anymore. My dad freaked out the most. My mom cared just a little, but she knew that we would have sex. My dad bought me five boxes of pregnancy tests, which I am not and he bought about ten boxes of condoms. Todd just laughed and took the gift.

"Please use them, I don't want Savannah to get pregnant when she is in high school. She can get pregnant the day after graduation though!" My dad said and I laughed. I also decided to move in with my dad because he lives A LOT closer to Todd and to the high school. Todd doesn't have to drive across town to get me then drive a ways to take me to school. Mom didn't like the idea of me moving with my dad, but I did promise her that I will visit her every weekend. My step mom, her name is Denise, is very sweet. She is thirty-three years old and she is blonde bomb shell with big boobs. I hate to admit, I see more love between my dad and Denise than when he was with my mom. One a rainy day after school, Todd had to stay over due to a car accident. Jenny took me home and it's just me and Denise. She is in the kitchen putting a meat loaf in the oven and I am watching television. She sat down beside me and she smiled at me.

"So, how was school?" Denise asked me.

"Eh, same ol', same ol' high school stuff," I said and she nodded.

"You don't like me that much, don't you?" I looked at her and her gorgeous skinny body and beautiful looks. I know that I am beautiful too, but I can see her at my high school as someone as Annabella, but not a whore.

"It's not that, Denise, I like you butâ ¦" I tried to finish and she nodded.

"I split your parents apart, I know. When I met your father, he was hurt and confused." My dad hurt? Did my mom do something to him?

"What do you mean dad was hurt?" I asked her and she sighed.

"Did your mom ever tell you that she cheated on him before he met me? She actually got pregnant and had a miscarriage. Your dad thought it was his baby the whole time. A few months after the miscarriage, Mary admitted that she has been sleeping with her boss for a few months now and the condom broke one day and that's how she got pregnant. Vince was very, very hurt. He went to the bar I bartend part time and I gave him a drink. After that, he came by the bar every night and we hit it off. We seen each other for a few years and you know, your parents got the divorce and we got married." I couldn't believe my ears. My mom cheated on my dad? No wonder why she has been depressed all these years! That miscarriage was almost twelve years ago! She knew she ruined the marriage and dad's love, not him!

"Mom told me this whole time that dad fell out of love with her or never loved her in the first place," I said and Denise grabbed my hand and she smiled.

"Your father loved Mary more than life itself. That's the only thing he talked about with me at first. He talked about you, he talked about your mom and how she deceived him. He even thought about taking his own life when he realized the baby she miscarried was not his. I talked him out of it by telling him that he has his daughter to take care of and love," Denise said and I smiled. Denise is not the enemy here, she actually saved my dad's life. I was way too young to remember when my dad became depressed, but I do remember him being sad all the time. I just thought he was sad because of the baby dying.

"Denise, I like you and I thank you for saving my dad," I said and she hugged me.

"I didn't save him, you did!" Denise said and I smiled. Todd came over to my house a few hours later and immediately grabbed me and kissed me. Denise watched us with loving eyes and a huge smile.

"Y'all remind me of Vince and I when we first started dating. He always threw me around like that and kissed me when we meet," Denise said and I put my head on Todd's shoulder and ran his fingers through my hair. Denise ran to the kitchen and pulled the meat loaf out of the oven and made everybody's plates. Todd ate with us and told us about the five car pileup on the highway.

"We have not had a bad of an accident since I started, so I had my work cut out," Todd said and I nodded.

"Are you wore out?" I asked and winked at him and he smiled.

"Not really." Todd's hand went underneath the table and squeezed my inner thigh. Todd and I has cut down on our sex, a lot really. Since my parents found out about us, we went from fucking every time we seen each other to having sex only on the weekends. We do have a lot of sex, but for some reason, it worried me. I will bring it up tonight, Dad is letting Todd spend the night. When dad came home, all four of us watched movies from Netflix and Todd is just holding my hand, JUST holding my hand. My dad and Denise cannot stop kissing each other and I sighed. My dad jerked and looked at us and frowned.

"Want us to quit?" my dad said.

"No, don't quit for us, I am going to my room anyways, I am tired," I said and I walked to my room and I know nobody is following me. I closed the door behind me and went to my bed. Why am I feeling like this? Why do I feel like Todd doesn't want me anymore? We only had sex four times before we slowed down. I am a teenager with raging hormones, I want to explore and learn. Todd walked into my room and he gave me a puzzled look.

"What is wrong, Savannah?" Todd asked sliding his hands into his pockets.

"Nothing is wrong, I just wanted to give them their privacy," I mumbled and looked down.

"Baby, I know something is wrong, I can see it in your eyes." Damn, he can read me like a book!

"If you are curious, you stop having sex with me a lot. We we're a bunch of animals and now, we have sex two days a week and that is on the weekends. I feel like you are getting tired of me," I said and he looked hurt.

"I will never get tired of you, Savannah. I just don't want our relationship and love to be based on sex. I am sorry if I slowed down on you way too quick," Todd said and I looked up at him.

"Are you sure? You are not telling me this because you want me to feel better?"

"Speaking of changes, your attitude changed too. You are acting like miss bad ass at school. I know, Jenny tells me."

"Miss bad ass? I just smart off to the whore of the school here and there. I keep her in line because she has the hots for you!" Why is our voices raising up? Why are we yelling at each other?

"Women will look at me, Savannah and I seen men look at you all the time. Do I get mad? No! As long they are just looking and not touching, what is the harm done?"

"I don't want my only man I ever loved other than my brother and my dad to go to another woman!"

"I am not going anywhere, Savannah! I love you, you are the only woman I ever loved in my entire life! Women and men stare at each other every day, its called hormones! They are not cheating if they are looking!"

"Didn't you hear me, Todd Middleton? I am scared to lose you if another woman looks at you, especially Annabella Gregory!"

"Annabella is nothing but a fucking whore, why would I want her?"

"Cause she is a whole lot prettier and lot more experienced in fucking than me! Due to the slowing down of sex, I cannot learn to please you!"

"Do you know how much I get fucking tired of hearing you down yourself like that? You are a beautiful woman, Savannah and you please me every time we make love!"

"Then why don't we have sex more often? Let me learn!"

"Fine, you want to have sex, then lets do it!" Todd took his shirt off then his pants. He is still in his boxers when he walked over and almost ripped my shirt and pants off. When I stood in front of him in only my bra and thong, he tried to untie my bra. I held it against me when I felt it loosen and he laughed.

"You are one strange girl, you know that? You we're just complaining about not having sex often and you are shying away from me!" Todd said and he loosened my arms and let my bra fall. He took my thong off then his boxers and pushed me onto the bed and let his head of his cock tease me. I began to cry because I wondered if this is rape or not. I never felt so scared in my life, and then, Todd knew I was scared. He jerked up and looked me into my tear glistened eyes and he frowned.

"Savannah, I would never hurt you!" Todd said and I pushed him up and looked at him.

"Why would you do that to me? You about raped me!" I cried out.

"I would never rape you, baby! I love you so much! Please forgive me! I was just mad about our fight!" I dangled my legs on the side of the bed and looked at the floor. I just had my first fight with Todd and it was not fun. It was over something as stupid as sex.

"I'm so sorry, Todd; I should have not mentioned anything about sex," I said and he cupped my chin into his hand and pulled me to face him. He gently kissed me and I wrapped my arms around him and he pulled me down underneath him. I needed him so much, I wanted to feel his love. Fuck the preliminaries! I wrapped my naked legs around him and he spit into my pussy to make it wet, which I am already soaked for him. He pushed himself into me and he began to fuck me nice and slow. I leaned forward and bit into his shoulder to hide my moans and he began to fuck me faster and harder.

"Please Todd, love me!" I moaned out and he kissed my nape of my neck and smiled.

"I love you, I love you!" Todd said and I felt my legs twitch from my oncoming orgasm and I felt him tense up and thrust even harder in me. We cum at the same time and he got off of me. He wrapped me into his arms and we went to sleep happy and forgiven each other.

Chapter 11: Eighteenth Birthday

A/N: Please don't hate me! This chapter is a shocker at the end. I don't want people to come to my house with flaming pitchforks! Enjoy and remember, two more chapters after this one!

Chapter 11

Four months later
Today is my eighteenth birthday. Todd and my parents are going nuts about my party. My birthday is the day before school starts back from Christmas break. Let me catch you up. Annabella is now pregnant, for real! That football player dude she dated, bailed on her as well and so did her cheerleading friends. The rumor has it that the men she fucked at the lumberyard, which I did not tell the school that, is the dad. The ex-boyfriend found out she cheated on him, so he dumped her. Annabella is trying to be my best friend, but she kind of lost that chance with me. I will be her acquaintance, possibly just a friend, but not BEST friend. Jenny and Fritz are not getting busy planning for their wedding in June. Todd and I, well we are back to normal from when y'all last seen us. We are having sex a lot, but not every time we see each other. On Christmas, Todd bought me three sweaters, a beautiful diamond necklace and a bottle of perfume. I bought him cologne, a picture of us when we had Christmas pictures done and a shirt. Todd keeps telling me that my birthday present is better than all three Christmas presents combined. My dad and Denise knows, so I am actually nervous. Jenny and Fritz are the first ones, other than Todd, Dad and Denise, to my party. Jenny jumped on me and kissed my cheek.

"Damn, you are the first one to be eighteen!" Jenny said and I hugged her.

"You will be eighteen in three weeks, be patient!" I said and Fritz hugged me.

"Happy birthday, Savannah. I am already eighteen, so I cannot complain about waiting!" Fritz said in his German accent.

"You know, for a birthday present, you have to teach me some German!" I said and he smiled.

"I sure will!" Todd came over and wrapped his arms around my shoulders and kissed the side of my neck. He pulled me to my bedroom and when the door shut, he began to kiss me hard.

"Todd, we can do this tonight when we have the house alone," I said and his eye glistened like diamonds.

"Or my place!" Todd said and I smiled.

"That too, but we have guests, I need to see them. Mom, Cameron and her new boyfriend is coming over. When is your dad and Heather coming?" I asked him. Yes, my mom finally got herself a man. His name is Henry and he is really nice. He is an accountant, and that's all I really know about him. Well, he does treat my mom really good.

"They said they will be here around two forty, that's in fifteen minutes," Todd said and he wrapped his arms around my waist and pulled me closer to him. I still cannot believe I been with Todd for over four months now and I am head over hills for him, and so is he with me. He kissed my neck and his hands went straight to my pussy and cupped me in his hands. He can feel the wetness and heat from my arousal and he groaned.

"Fuck, I need you so bad!" Todd said and I smiled.

"Wanna quickie?" I said and he pushed me on the bed and took my pants off and my underwear. He slid his pants down far enough so he can be comfortable to fuck me. He pushed himself inside me and the head of his cock stroke my g-spot, which made me writhe and moan underneath him.

"Fuck, fuck!" I moaned and we came at the same time. I heard my dad saying hello to Bob and Heather, so we rushed our clothes on and ran to the living room. I kissed Bob's cheek and hugged Heather.

"Happy birthday, Savannah!" Heather said handing me a present and I put it by the other presents on the table. Mom and Henry showed up hand and hand and Cameron is behind them on his PSP game. I laughed and rubbed the top of his head.

"Nice to see you, punk!" I said and he smiled.

"Happy birthday big sis!" Cameron said and walked to the living room. I hugged mom and she smiled at Henry.

"Henry, this is my wonderful daughter, Savannah and her boyfriend, Todd," my mom said and Henry shook both our hands.

"It's nice to finally meet y'all two, Mary cannot stop talking about the two of you," Henry said and I smiled. He has brown hair with a little gray streaks, green eyes and he has a nice build. Denise yelled for everybody to come to the dining room and we began to eat some food. After everybody ate, mom and Denise, which they sort of got along since Denise told me about what REALLY happened with my parents, carried my birthday cake together.

"Happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you, happy birthday to Savannah. Happy birthday to you!" Everyone sang.

"AND MANY MORE!!!" Jenny added which everyone laughed. I got to cut the cake and everyone sat down and ate cake. My party turned out great. After everybody ate, my dad and Todd carried my presents to the living room where I sat in the recliner. I got some clothes, more perfume, jewelry, intimate bra and panties (thanks mom!), but I began to freak out. Where is Todd's present?

"Did you open everything, Savannah?" Todd asked me.

"I think I have, but where is yours? Did you say you got me something?" I said and he grabbed something from his back pocket and then, he got on one knee in front of me. My heart began to race and butterflies began to race in my belly.

"Savannah, I love you so much, you are the only woman I want in my lifeâ ¦" Todd said as he brought around a navy colored velvet box and opened it. Inside the box is the ring I looked at in the store when he took me four months ago.

"Savannah May Loftis, will you be my wife?" Todd said and everyone held their breath around me. I began to cry and I nodded my head to tell him yes, but he couldn't tell.

"Oh yes, yes I will marry you!" I cried out and everyone cheered. Todd put the ring on my left ring finger and I jumped on top of him and kissed him. We fell to the floor and as everybody cheered on for us, we made out.

"I love you so much, Todd," I said and he smiled and ran his fingers through my black hair.

"I love you too, and there is more to this present," Todd said and I stood up and gave him a puzzled look.

"How can there be more? Me being engaged to you is the best present I ever had!" I said and he opened my hand and placed a gold key in my hand.

"Your dad hooked us up with our first home. We move in tonight, well us physically but our stuff will be there tomorrow," Todd said and I cried even more. I am now getting married to the love of my life and I am going to move in with him tonight!

"Oh my God, this is awesome!" I said wiping tears from my eyes. Jenny hugged me and I felt her smile in my hair.

"You deserve this, Savannah and you know it. Think about it, four months ago, you thought no man will want you. Now, you are getting married to the love of your life," Jenny said and I wiped tears from my eyes.

"I am blessed alright!" I said and the party began to roll again. We danced and had fun till at least ten that night and that's when everything began to start. I waited till everybody left and the only people in my house are myself, Todd, mom, dad, Henry, Cameron and Denise.

"So, are you sure y'all want to move out tonight? It's pretty late and it's starting to snow harder," my dad asked.

"Yes dad, I want to move out tonight. Tomorrow is a pretty busy day," I said and I gave all my good bye kisses to everyone but Henry, that would be awkward. I waved at everyone from the car and we began going down the road and we started to go to the countryside. Todd always known that I wanted to live out in the country, so this is perfect. I could not see the pastures that is covered with snow. Todd turned on the radio and I got the greatest newsâ ¦

"Anderson County Schools are cancelled for tomorrow due to snowy conditions," the announcer said and I laughed.

"Another birthday present for me!" I said and Todd laughed. I scooted closer to him and he wrapped his arms around me and we stared into the snowy road and I began to get scared. I always hated riding or driving in the snow, but if we got to do it, just be careful. Todd and I looked at each other and he smiled.

"Love you," He said and I smiled.

"Love you too," I said and I turned my head and I seen a deer.

"WATCH OUT!" I screamed and I heard the tires squeal and my world got twisted and turned as the car done cartwheels down the road.

Chapter 12: Surprises, Surprises

A/N: Okay, um, people got mad at me for that accident! I am sorry, I had to add something to this story! Don't worry, Todd and Savannah are alright. There is one more chapter left and I am going to write that probably either here in a little bit or tonight after my nursing clinicals. I am already got a new story in mind and I am not giving it away until I release it of course. There is a surprise awaiting you in this story and I hope you enjoy it!

Chapter 12

Todd's POV

I looked up and I am in a ditch a few yards away from the accident. The car is on its wheels, but I knew we flipped at least four times. I looked everywhere for Savannah, and didn't see her anywhere. I stood up and I am so glad that my legs are broken, but my wrist is hurting like a mother fucker! I didn't care for the pain, I want to see if Savannah is okay. I walked over to the car and I seen her in the passenger sea, buckled up and unconscious. I seen blood dripping from her forehead and I began to panic. I ran to the car and jerked the door open. My adrenaline is rushing and I got Savannah out of her seat belt and out of the car within seconds.

"Savannah baby, are you alright?" I cried out and I felt for her pulse and I felt one. Thank god she is still alive! I placed my hand on her chest and felt it go up and down, she is still breathing! I remembered from what my mom said when she worked in Neuro-ICU as the head nurse here in Oak Ridge. I found a flashlight and open her eye lids and checked her pupils to see if they react, and they did. She has no brain damage! I heard a car stop and a couple freaking out.

"Oh my god, are you alright?" a woman asked.

"Yes, but my fiancÃ©e is unconscious and I think my wrist is broke, call the ambulance!" I said and the woman called. The man, which he worked for the rescue squad done a little assessment and he said the same thing, no brain damage and she is breathing and has a good strong heart rate. When I heard the sirens coming down the highway, Savannah coughed and moaned.

"Todd?" She moaned out and I laughed and cried at the same time. I leaned down and I kissed her. "My head hurts," she cried out and I touched her cheeks and smiled.

"We are going to the hospital right now baby, we will be okay!" I said and a stretcher came and picked her up and I walked to the ambulance. We went to Oak Ridge General and they put us in the same room. We both went for x-rays and the nurses gave us some good pain medicine. The first people to see us is Vince and Denise. They started to freak out on us because Savannah is getting her MRI done since she was unconscious for a half hour. I was knocked out too, but only for ten minutes. It was kind of like getting the breath knocked out of me.

"Oh Todd, are you okay? Is Savannah okay?" Denise said and I sat up and looked at her worried parents.

"They are doing a MRI on her since she was unconscious for a little bit and they are going to keep an eye out on her overnight to make sure she will be okay. I only had the breath knocked out of me and a broken wristâ¦" I raised my bandaged wrist for them to look at it. "â¦and a cut on my head. I should have been injured more since I was thrown out, but thankfully I wasn't. I just wish Savannah didn't get hurt, I am sorry for driving in this snow," I said and I felt so bad. I hurt their daughter, they must hate me!

"Todd, it was an accident, it happens. As long as you two are alive, that's all that matters!" Vince said and I smiled. Savannah came in and she smiled at her father.

"Dad!" Savannah said and he hugged her and kissed her forehead.

"I am so glad you are okay!" Vince said and she smiled at me.

"Todd, your wrist!" she cried out and I smiled.

"I'll be okay, I wish I was banged up and you just walked out of there with no scratches!" I said and she smiled at me. She told me to come over because she has an IV hooked up to her and I didn't. I walked over and sat on the bed with her and held her in my arms. I cannot see how she thinks she is overweight, she didn't lose any weight, actually, I think she gained some weight. She still feels so tiny in my arms. The doctor came in and I jumped off the bed and he smiled.

"Mr. Middleton, you don't have to get off, sit with her, I got some news for you," He said and I sat down on the bed. "I am Dr. Zane by the way and I have some good news for you. Todd, you only have a hairline fracture, so you don't need surgery to correct your wrist. We will get a cast on that tomorrow and in about six weeks, you will get it off and you will be fine. For Miss Loftis, you have a mild concussion and we thought you had some organ damage, but the MRI ruled that out, so you are actually free to go tonight. Also, we done a few blood tests on you, Savannah and I have some surprising news," He said and remained quiet. What the fuck is this? What is his hiding from us?

"What is it, Doc?" I asked and he smiled.

"Savannah, you are pregnant!" He said and I grew the biggest smile and I looked at Savannah. She immediately touched her stomach and she began to cry. Through those teary eyes, I seen worry.

"Is he okay? Did I hurt him?" Savannah cried out and I began to worry. What if the accident hurt him?

"Don't worry Savannah, you baby is fine. You are at ten weeks, did you know you we're pregnant?" He asked her and she shook her head.

"My periods we're always irregular, so no, I never knew!" Savannah said and a nurse wheeled in an ultrasound machine and Dr. Zane told her to lay back. I got to her side and he put that stuff on her and turned on the ultrasound. He moved the handle around and then, we heard the baby. When I heard my child's heartbeat, I began to cry.

"Todd, are you okay?" Denise said, also with tears in her eyes.

"I am just thrilled that I am going to be a father!" I said and Savannah laced her fingers through mine and we looked at our baby. He or she looks like a little peanut right now, but he or she is very active.

"Your baby is very active and very much okay. I would call your OB tomorrow and make an appointment to do your regular prenatal visit," Dr. Zane said and she nodded. When he left, Vince looked at us and then they left. Savannah looked up at me and she began to cry.

"This is the strangest and best birthday I ever had. Take out the car accident, and it's the best. I got engaged, moved out and found out that I am pregnant. You are going to be a wonderful father," Savannah said and I rubbed my hand over her stomach and I smiled.

"You are going to be a wonderful mother, Savannah. I love you so much," I said and leaned down and kissed her. She placed her hand on top of mine and she smiled into my lips. She tasted so sweet and heavenly, I cannot get enough of her. We made a child together out of our love and this baby will be very much loved.

Savannah's POV

We got to leave the emergency room a few minutes later. The doctor gave Todd a prescription but he didn't give me one. I don't want to take anything that can harm my baby. I am very surprised that I am pregnant. Ever since I started my periods at twelve years old, they have been highly irregular. I never expected to be pregnant, but I would've figured out soon anyways. My dad is taking us to our new place in his 4 wheel drive and I felt much safer than the car we drove.

"I am going to buy us a 4 wheel drive car now!" Todd said and I laughed. I cannot keep my hands off of my belly where my baby sleeps.

"Wow, I still cannot believe I am pregnant!" I said and Denise turned around and smiled.

"Who knows, I may be next!" she winked at me and dad laughed.

"That would kind of funny, you know? I will have a grandbaby and a brand new baby that are a few months apart," dad said and I joined the laughter. I remembered something too, Annabella is pregnant too. I will call her in the morning for some tips for some things. We finally made it to our new home and it's a beautiful brick style home with a few neighbors surrounding it. I am not in the city anymore, so I love it. The baby has a lot of play room to grow as well. Todd thanked them for the ride and my dad said that they will bring our stuff and my car in the morning. At least we have my car but its not a 4 wheel drive. Todd and I ran inside and when the door closed behind me and he turned on the lights, it's still empty.

"We still have to get the furniture for the other rooms, I only got my bed in here," Todd said and I raised an eyebrow at him.

"You had an idea for us tonight?" I asked and he smiled.

"Not now, I want your concussion to heal. Sex will probably give you a headache, babe," he said and I nodded. I am also very tired, so we went to our bedroom and we went to bed.

The next day, it was hell. Mom, Henry and Cameron came over and mom and Denise sat with me as all the men (including Henry and Cameron) carried all the stuff to the house. Denise told my mom about my pregnancy faster than I can. I think Denise is excited about becoming a step-grandmother.

"Oh Mary, all the things we can do for this baby!" Denise said and my mom smiled.

"We will spoil this kid rotten!" mom said and I put my head in my hands.

"Please, no spoiling my baby!" I whined and both women laughed.

"That's what grandparents are suppose to do!" mom said and I leaned against my moms shoulder and grabbed Denise's hand.

"I am so glad to have you both. I am happy that y'all are finally getting along," I said and both women smiled.

"I finally realized I am really to blame for my divorce, not Denise. She was the scapegoat for me to blame on," mom said and Denise nodded. Someone knocked on my door and the pregnant Annabella showed up. She is four months pregnant and she is starting to show really good. She gets to find out the gender next week and she is really excited about that. I yelled for Annabella and she walked over with a smile. She sat down beside me and grunted.

"Pregnant lady coming, move on over!" Annabella said and I laughed.

"You are very beautiful pregnant, Annabella!" I said and she glowed. I think the pregnancy changed her outlook on life. She has not only become very nice to me, she has became very nice to everybody in the school. She may lost her popularity, but she gained a whole new attitude!

"Thank you, Savannah and I know already you are pregnant and I am glad our babies are going to be four months apart," Annabella said and I smiled.

"How can you tell?" I said and mom touched my hand.

"You got the pregnancy glow to you," mom said and Annabella nodded.

"You sure do, when you get pregnant, everybody says that you got the pregnancy glow!" Annabella said and Todd grabbed my hand and pulled me up. I looked at the time and knew where I get to go.

"Let's go to our appointment!" Todd said and I smiled. I get to know our baby's due date! I waved everyone goodbye and Todd drove me in dad's truck, which it stopped snowing about two hours after coming home from the hospital, and drove us to town. My OB is Dr. Vanessa Reed and she delivered Cameron on her first year as an OB. She done the blood work on me, the urine samples and the ultrasound. Everything looked good and Todd and I are waiting on when our baby is due.

"Your baby is due on September 15th," Dr. Reed said and Todd smiled.

"That is a couple weeks after my birthday!" Todd said and my doctor smiled.

"That is really cool, Mr. Middleton, and congratulations to you both on your new baby," Dr. Reed said and we left the office. We done a few more errands in town and we went home. By the time we got home, the furniture finally got moved in and mom, Denise and Annabella decorated it for me. Todd and I stood in the living room and just stared at our new home.

"Did you ever expected this to happen, Savannah?" Todd asked and I looked at him.

"What do you mean?" I asked him.

"Us getting married, you having our baby and moving into our own home?" he said and I smiled.

"For some reason, I did in a way but not this soon."

"Meaning, you wanted this?"

"Yes, of course! I want to carry your baby and I want to be your wife!" I leaned to him and kissed him. This is the first day of the rest of our lives!

Chapter 13: Five Years Later

A/N: Last chapter everybody! This was finished HOURS ago, but I had clinicals tonight. Thanks everybody for reading this and I hope you stick around and read my new story. I decided to NOT do the teacher/student one yet since there is a couple out. I am going to do a western. I was inspired to do the western by Sandra Brown's books Sunset Embrace and Another Dawn. Those are the books to check out. I know it sounds boring, but I am going to NOT make it boring by making it a an erotica with loads of sex and love, you know me! I will make it very sexual as well because people back then we're just as sexual and horny as us today! I don't have a name yet, but if you have an idea for me, feel free to leave a comment for me! Thank you for all reading this story! This is a better success than Sex and Romance! Sorry that this is kind of short. Oh yeah, do me a favor, look up the song "Play With Me" by Extreme, and I listened to that when I wrote this chapter!

Chapter 13

Five Years Later

"Mommy, I cannot find my car!" My four year old son, Carter, yelled from his room. I am in the dining room feeding my fourteen month old daughter, Gloria, which is about done, so I grabbed her out of her high chair and we walked to her big brothers room. Carter, which is a miniature version of Todd, is giving me a sad look and I sat Gloria down and went to his toy box. I know Carter is going to be just like his father because he loves cars. I grabbed his red car and put it on the floor and my son grew a smile.

"Mommy, you are the best!" Carter said and I smiled. My kids make me smile every day and Todd makes me smile even more. Todd and I got married a week after graduation, actually the same day as Jenny and Fritz. Jenny is a happy mother to a very cute little girl name Analeigh, she is two years old. Annabella had a son also name Michael. Annabella found out the father of her child, which is a truck driver for the lumberyard. They got together and they got married just over a year ago. I got my bachelors degree in journalism online and I work from home for the Knoxville paper. I love working online, I am home with my children and my husband. Todd has expanded his garage to another garage in Oak Ridge and they are taking over the competitors. Denise is now pregnant, which made her mad because she wanted to be pregnant at the same time as me, but she is happy and so is my dad. Mom and Henry broke it off a few months after the car accident, but she is now engaged to a man name Frank. As I picked up Gloria, someone called me and Gloria began to fight me. I grabbed the phone and its Annabella.

"Do you want me to bring Michael over? I bet you need a break from one child," Annabella said and I gladly agreed. I called Jenny and told her to bring Analeigh over and a few minutes later, I seen Michael's cute little blonde hair pop out of the car and ran to the door. He always looked forward to seeing Carter. Right behind Annabella's car is Jenny and Analeigh. Fritz is the manager of a accounting company, and he does work for Henry unfortunately. Analeigh looks like both her mom and dad, she has Fritz's blonde hair and Jenny's green eyes. When Annabella opened the door, Michael ran pass me and Gloria and ran to Carter's room.

"He really wanted to see him today," Annabella said and I smiled. Jenny stood in front of me with Analeigh in her arms and she hid in her mommy's neck.

"Now now Analeigh, don't hide from your auntie Savannah!" I said and she grinned. "Lookie here, it's Gloria!" Gloria looked over at Analeigh and she pointed at her.

"An, an!" Gloria managed to say and Analeigh smiled and reached over to Gloria. Gloria is a mix of me and Todd. She has my jet black hair and Todd's green eyes. I sat Gloria down and Analeigh grabbed Gloria's hand and took her to the living room with all of Gloria's dolls are. Myself, Annabella and Jenny sat in the living room and we are exhausted. Annabella, now Annabella Smith, has gained some weight but she looks really good. I lost some weight, but I come to accept myself to being overweight. Jenny, on the other hand, is still as skinny as a rail.

"You know, I never would have seen us like this five years ago," Annabella said and I leaned my head against my hand.

"Like how?" I asked her.

"You know, getting along and all of us mothers. We are all married and happy as ever. If I would have never figured out Mikey's daddy, I would have never met Brian!" Annabella said and I smiled.

"If it wasn't for your party, I would have never met Todd," I said and Annabella smiled at me.

"Todd and you are still wildly in love as when you first starting dating," Jenny said and I laughed.

"Somedays, he has to keep up with me and sometimes I have to keep up with him. We never figured out how to have sex with two kids under five!" I said and Jenny laughed.

"Fritz and I cannot figured out how to have sex with Analeigh being so active. She has to get her energy from her German side cause I never had so much energy, from what mom told me," Jenny said.

"Carter is a pretty active little boy and I hate to enroll him to pre-k, I will miss him. He is just like his father, calm and very sweet. He loves Gloria to death. Todd and I we're worried to death that he would be jealous of Gloria, but he wasn't. He wanted to help us change her and dress her, but of course we let him help by letting him pick out her outfits. Gloria is like me, she has a temper!" we all laughed and the kids played for a few hours until they had to leave. About an hour later, Todd came home and Carter ran over to him and grabbed his legs.

"Daddy, I missed you!" Carter said and Todd lifted him up and kissed Carter soundly on the cheek. Gloria went to him and she smile cutely at him.

"Daddy!" she said and Todd managed to get her in his arms. Gloria and Carter are very attached to Todd, especially Gloria. She is daddy's little girl.

"I think it's nap time!" I said and Carter whined, but a few seconds later, he let out a huge yawn. Gloria loves naps, so she jumped out of her daddy's arms and ran to her bedroom. I tucked Carter in as Todd tucked Gloria in. When the kids are sound asleep, Todd met me in our bedroom and he is undressing out of his work clothes.

"Those kids are wearing me out!" I said and dropped onto the bed.

"No you are not, Mrs. Middleton!" Todd said and I still smile at the thought of being Savannah Middleton for five years now.

"Are you horny, Mr. Middleton?" I said and I unbutton my blouse, revealing my shear blue bra and opening my legs so he can see my matching panties underneath my skirt.

"Fuck, yes!" Todd said and I can see his huge bulge in his pants. I purred and I watched him strip to nothing and I done the same thing. He kissed me and pressed his naked body next to mine and I pushed him onto the bed. I kissed all the way down to his dense hair surrounding his cock and I licked the base to his head. He moaned and I began to suck on his cock. I love hearing him moan my name and it makes me very wet for him. He begged for me to stop and he asked me to get on the bed and I did. He opened my legs and he began to eat me out slow enough to drive me crazy. I saw my legs against him and he grabbed my breasts and kneaded them as he sucked on my clit.

"Oh my god! Oh my god!" I moaned out and when I squirted all over his face, he stood up and he licked his lips.

"Mmmm, you taste better than ice cream!" Todd said and he leaned down and kissed me, making me taste myself, which turns me on also. Todd grabbed my legs and wrapped them around his waist and he pushed his cock into my pussy. He fucked me hard and fast and he hit my g-spot every time and I moaned and I reached between my legs and rubbed my clit. Todd told me to do this one time a couple of years ago, and I loved it. My orgasms are very strong without doing this, but when I do this, my orgasms take my breath away.

"Make yourself cum, Savannah. Squirt on my cock!" Todd moaned out and I felt the orgasm build up inside me and Todd fucked me harder and deeper and we cum together. I felt his juices fill me up and I felt myself squirt all over his cock. I tried to catch my breath from the very intense orgasm and he got onto his side. He wrapped his arms around me and he kissed the side of my neck.

"I love you so much, Savannah. You gave me everything I wanted in life," Todd said and I turned around and kissed his nose.

"I love you too, and you did as well. You gave me a family and a husband, and I am very blessed," I said and he smiled.

"You gave me a daughter, a son and a wife that loves me dearly." We cuddled so much and I heard a squeak from the door and I looked up and Carter and Gloria is standing there, smiling. They ran over and jumped on the bed and I wrapped my arms around them both and snuggled with them. I love everything about my life now. I have a husband. I am a mother. Also, my husband made me one thing I would thought I would never become, he made me to a woman!
