Once upon part 1

ONCE UPON [PART 1 introduction]

With the rise of the darkness they shall rise from the darkness. Legends say that these creatures are called the slaves of the sun and they are cursed by the sun. Silver is their weakness, and it will make them to feel the fear and sun rays will burn them. But in absence of sun, silver, and it will grow stronger.

They walk among us, live among us, since centuries and decades they have lived secretly in the darkness. They kill their prey, their prey are killed in the most dreadful way. They seduce their prey then slowly unrevealed their pleasure as time pass by they bring out their real face.

The face of the evil, the face of the demon, slowly they drip the blood out from their prey body and kill them, they drain out every single blood drop and enjoy doing it. Ripping out the heart from the victim's body is their favorite. They are the predators the killer, the sinner.. "They are called Vampire"

Even the coin has the two sides so do Vampires. The other part of them Vampires is most beautiful thing that ever exists on the face of earth. They are immortal they are powerful, faster and smarter than human. Vampires are also known for their good and elegant looks they attract their prey in no time.

By knowing that such a deadly creature lives among us, it was not the time for humans to rest. We humans were insecure but we still had hope. A secret group of people who knows the fact about vampires they trained themselves in a special way and make their body and mind strong enough to slit the throat of Vampires and kill them for good.

These people are called as Hunters they carry the blessing of the God and a case where they place all their equipments for killing the creature of the dark". A fully trained Hunter can be more "dangerous than a vampire" but still the Hunters were human with special ability to save their own kinds that is human.
