Original Quotes

Writing is like Cocaine in two lines

Cocaine is to an addict as writing is to a writer, after a few lines we both start to feel better.

A quote about my Grandmother and her clear Conscience â My Grandmother always said she would die of a clear conscience, I guess she has Alzheimerâ sâ

Addiction

â Addiction is an affliction, not a moral conflictionâ

Gossip

â When God speaks through us we often call it tongues, when the Devil speaks through us I call it gossipâ â Gossip has never helped anyone, but rather brought hurt and sadness to everyoneâ

â Men donâ t gossip because they are afraid they might tell the truthâ

Truth

â The truth is never mean, for it lacks the ambiguity of human emotionâ â One manâ s truth is often another manâ s opinionâ

Wisdom

â Wisdom is not the same as intelligence, for one can be intelligent and still be a foolâ

Hearing and Listening

â Hearing and listening are two different things, one can hear without understanding, but one cannot listen without wanting to hear moreâ

Skepticism

â When we stop being skeptical and stop questioning, then everything we think we know begins to be questionableâ

The Wise

â The wise man remains silent when confronted with anger, only a fool would raises his fist at God"

Disability

- â Disability is the lack of ability to work, not the lack of wiliness to workâ
- â Disability is nothing more than forced helplessness, not unwillingness"
