Fighting the sun rise

I arise at night

to walk to earth

to feed on the youngest of souls they can not resits my charm the charm of a Vampire

I take you now and bleed you dry then find myself another prey couse im not satisfy buy one it my take 4 to satisfy me but don't think me a monster i don't kill everyone

O no tiss the time to fight

i can fight anyone that comes in my way but fighting the sun rise is a different battle i never win that fight

how i hate it

question how can you injoy living forever when you cant live at sun rise yes the night are nice peaceful

you can hear everything every one breath

every one's ha ha well i hear everything lets leave it at that but sun rise

can offer a Vampire so much not just to feed

but to live

more than ever and to kill those damn Vampire hunters

But tiss time

I lay in my bed or coffin which ever fells right windows blacked out

as i feel the sun rise

i fall asleep

till another night

of feeding having fun

AND FIGHTING ANOTHER SUN RISE.
