Don't Cry Because It's Over.

Verse 1:

There are times when you wish

he were here, holding your hair away from the rain. There are times when you want him to kiss you and pretend to start again.

Verse 2:

There are times when you look out the window, and life seems to keep looking back. There are times when you want to be with him, but you know it wonâ t ever be real.

Chorus:

So donâ t cry because itâ s over,

but smile because it happened.

No, donâ t cry because itâ s over,

but smile because it happened.

Verse 3:

Thereâ ll be days when you wake and you miss him, and days when you think you should say your goodbyes. Thereâ ll be days when you want to forgive him, and days when you want him to cry.

Bridge:

The world is out there waiting, so go and make it work for you. Lifeâ s too short to be wasting your time on a man who wonâ t treat you like the princess that you are.

Chorus:

So donâ t cry because itâ s over,

but smile because it happened.

No, donâ t cry because itâ s over,

but smile because it happened.

Verse 4:

Thereâ ll be days when the sun wonâ t shine

on you, and days when the rain comes tumbling down. Donâ t you worry about the storms, cos somewhere thereâ s a rainbow just waiting to break through.

Instrumental:

Chorus x 2:

So donâ t cry because itâ s over,

but smile because it happened.

No, donâ t cry because itâ s over,

but smile because it happened.
