Scene 1. The First Day

FADE IN:

INT. HOUSE, BEDROOM- EARLY MORNING

A boy is rushing around a house in the bedroom. He is about the age of 12. A voice comes in and the boy is still rushing. The voice is JOHN.

NARRATOR

Yep. Thatâ s me rushing for the first day in Junior High. Itâ s a new school and a new year. Iâ m hoping this year will be different than the last years of my life. Because I mean we are in junior high now! We are practically teenagers. Teenagers donâ t mock each other for being different. Right? My mom called me from downstairs.

JOHNâ S MOTHER calls from downstairs.

MOM

Little Johnny.

NARRATOR

That was my nickname for my mom. My name is John. I hate that nickname.

MOM

Hurry up before youâ re late! You donâ t want to be late for your first day. Do you?

NARRATOR

Yes but I couldnâ t tell her that.

JOHN

No mom. Iâ m on my way as we speak.

MOM

Good! Now hurry up and donâ t be late! Iâ m going to start the car up.

NARRATOR

Whoop-de-do for you! Now Iâ m going to brush my teeth really slow so you know how I feel.

CUT TO:

INT. A SCHOOL- DAY

NARRATOR

First day and the first step to a new life as a mature teen.
