I Want a Woman to Love

I Want a Woman to Love

But I donâ t want just any woman.

I want a woman who will be her own woman; she does not act like other women.

Yes, I want that kind of woman.

Just a woman, but not just any kind of woman!

She would need to be someone like me â

She would be Strong â Vibrant â Emotionally Alive and Caring.

She would be free to love and lovingly free.

Clinging only to feel and share my warmth, but not binding. I cannot grow in shadows, how could she?

Holding â Molding our Bodies together through shared Heat!

With pleasure â Pleasingly touchingâ ¦ and touching to please.

I Want a Woman to Love

Beside youâ ¦â ¦â ¦.and you beside me â Our love will grow strong.

Know me â For I too am a Woman.

Not just any woman. I am myself â I do not act like â other women.â

I am my own womanâ ¦.but not just any woman!

Just who I amâ ¦.. â Me!â
