but i always look for clues.

i don't have any answers but i always look for clues it appears like i know what i'm doing but i don't know what to do i could be a man and settle down have a nine to five job and a plott paid for in the ground i should be happy with what i've got yet the drive to be myself won't allow me to stop some say i'm a genious others a fool on the insides is a volcano yet the outside looks cool even if i knew the answers i wouldn't know what to do i feel like a tree stripped of it's braches yet somehow i still grew reaching up seems to me where the answers lay always just out of reach shining stars surround the moon what lays beyond could be the truth the secrets to an ageless body and continued youth everyday i grow towards that sacred light a near naked tree that refuses to lay down and die i don't have any answers but i always look for clues By briAnRcosTer.
