A feeling of thankfull praise...

By : Spyguy

I wrote "Thank's..." Then, I added on to it; I've been told that I should keep these two separate...So, here you'll find part two. Something to think about... Still I'm barely scratching the surface...

Thank's too...

Praises...

Who makes the winds that rustle the trees?

Who puts the flowers that bring us the bees?

What was the purpose of the Kangaroo Rats?

Whatpossible goodare those Vampire Bats?

When would one come up with Electric Eels?

When& how much to make thunderclap peals?

Where could one invent orfind a Niagra Falls?

Where makes he females, such beautiful dolls?

Why are the Caverns & caves in the ground?

Why the Tsunami's that blow things around?

Who made the waters, the shallowand deep?

Whose handiwork gave us goats & the sheep?

What power harnesses Lightningbolts bright?

WhatSolar System so strains at it's heights?

When did the Blue Whale grow to it's length?

When did the Elephant gainall it'sstrength?

Where doCaterpillar's learnmaking cocoon?

Wheredoes he color the Red-butt Babboon?

Why do the clouds form way up in the sky?

Why all the "Machismo" ofamexican guy?

Many's the question, but answer's I know...

All are forth-coming, here's the down-low...

Who, but an All-loving & All-knowing God...

Could bring forth such beauty from just a dirt clod?

Please hit like before you move on... Thank-you.

A feeling of thankfull praise...
