Day 2

Book 1: The Sound Village: Betrayl : Chapter 1

It has been 10 years since Hokage Naruto Uzumaki started a Great War, to unite the South Villages. It was a success but, with all that power Naruto made the Village Hidden in the Leaves the World Headquarters. The North did not like being controlled by the South. For many years there was fear of another Great War, the south would attack the North changing our way of life. The Shachos didn't like the thought of losing control, they started forcing citizens to learn to fight as young as age 6. A new organization called Uragiri formed and the Shachos saw this organization as soldiers for hire, they could use discreetly. The Uragiri's goal is to stop the use of citizens for war. They are trained in swift killings of powerful enemy's, there are 10 members altogether; all with different strengths and abilities. Book 1 takes place in the Sound Village. The original Shacho died not, 5 months ago and his oldest son [Oto] took place as the Shacho. The first Shacho passed crazy high taxes and arrested those who refused to fight. Oto didn't like that so, he abolished all those laws and made them what he seemed fair. The citizens no longer live in fear but, Oto doesn't let the people receive outside information, the government makes news that keeps the masses in a feeling of protection and happiness. They are unaware of the Great War ever happening and no idea about outside ideas. Only a select few get to leave the village and those that do never enter back into the masses again. Book 1 is going to explain the Goals of the Uragiri and is going to be based around the idea of how being isolated can be damaging. The first book is told from the prospective of Kenko. If you don't know who the characters are I suggest reading the back stories before reading the book.

Chapter 2: Day 1

Day: 1

[Meeting Room]

I was running down the hall as fast as I could. Ningyo-kun called the very first Uragiri meeting and I can't wait. Getting to see all these strong people, knowing I'll be healing them anytime they need it, I'm excited. My room is on the far side of the Liar near the hospital. The hospital is in the far side so that the injured don't interfere with anything or take up needed space. I like it because then I have a quiet room to read in when there's no need for me. We're not allowed to get details of missions we don't go on and I'm pretty useless. All I can do is heal people, not very helpful in a battle. I entered this big room with 9 other people in it.

"Hello Kenko-kun." Said Ningyo.

"Um-Um-hello sir." I said not expecting the leader to speak to me directly.

"Hehe you're like a little twig hehehe I wonder how easy it'd be to break, every muscle you don't have." Said this ghostly voice from my shadow.

"Well it would take 1700lbs of pressure to break the femur and 8lbs to break the collar bone-.."

"Oh you're such a nerd I can't believe you didn't get killed by the training puppet! You don't belong here!" Shouted my shadow?

"Kage that is enough leave his shadow at once, we do need Kenko he has a virtuoso in medicine and we need a doctor to heal the wounded." Said Ningyo making me feel much better.

"Hey here's an idea how about we actually accomplish something, instead of just bickering back and forth!" Exclaimed Kisu.

"I would rather have this bickering now than; someone be killed because of it later." Said Ningyo.

"We do have a possible mission, Shacho Oto has sent for us." Announced Ningyo.

"Hm what does he want?" Asked Kumo.

"A small team will be sent out tonight. The team leader will be Kasai for his strength to be used to protect others; he will be in charge of the group, Kisu, Kumo, and Kenko." Said Ningyo.

"Why is Kenko going with us he can't do anything!" Exclaimed Kisu.

"He notices things others don't also the Sound Village is far away you will need someone to heal you if anything goes wrong." Explained Ningyo.

"Fine but I'm not dieting because of you!" Shouted Kisu.

"I-I-I won't let you down" I said calmly.

[Kenko Bedroom.]

(Knock knock.)

"Um come in." I said thinking who would want to visit me? I am nothing.

"KENKO! How are you?" Asked Umi.

"I am doing good, just I-I am surprised I am going on a mission so soon." I responded.

"Why Kenko-kun you are strong, why don't you see that?" Umi asked in an annoying voice.

"If I was strong I wouldn't have been picked on all throughout the ninja academy. I would have fought back. The reason I read all the time is to escape the reality around me. When I study medicine, I feel like I matter. Healing is all I can do." I said trying not to cry.

"Well if you can heal the body could you also damage the body from the inside?" Umi asked.

"Ma-maybe I never thought into researching it..." I replied.

"Well there you go! You're like a super genius you'll figure out something!" Umi said very excitedly.

"Hehehehehe look at you two love birds" Said a strange voice. As the voice laughed me and Umi's shadows started moving on their own. My shadow grabbed hers and tore the head off.

"That's what I think of this hehehehe." Laughed the harsh voice.

"Stop this Kage!" Shouted Umi.

Book 1: The Sound Village: Betrayl

"Aw the baby is going to tell the shadow what to do huh. Well let's see who's in the position to make commands here. You can touch me but I can choke you." As he said that a hand came up from Umi's shadow and started choking her. I tried to step on the arm but my foot went right through it.

"Hehe jeez Kenko-kun for a super genius you sure are stupid as a bag of rats." Said Kage.

"At least I don't find enjoyment in the torment of my team." I said shaking.

"Wow look who finally found some fire in himself. Sorry to burst your new bubble but, I'm here to give you your mission specs so swim away fish girl.

"SQWAKWWWWK!" Made her pet Kamo.

"SQWAK off yourself." Said Kage.

"Enough Kamo lets go. Bye Kenko be careful!" Said Umi. Umi left with Kamo.

"Now your mission is to go to Shacho Oto and kill him to liberate the people his family has kept in the dark." Said Kage smiling.

"Bu-But won't that freak out the people having no one in charge?" I asked.

"No you see the Village Hidden In The Dirt is going to merge with them." Said Kage.

"Oh Ok." I said.

"But you can't let the citizens know you guys killed Oto." Kage said with an odd seriousness.

"Yes I understand." I said quietly.

"Good now get some sleep you have lots of traveling to do tonight." Said Kage.

"We travel at night to use cover of darkness?" I asked.

"No no it's much cleverer than that. I control shadows so at night I could make anything that sees us, see nothing but as if nothing where there, they couldn't even touch us they'd go right through us because of my abilities" Kage said smiling his creepy smile.

"That is very clever indeed. What a handy ability." I said very interested in how this creature named Kage works and is alive.

"We leave early in the night and will arrive at the village by morning. They have a place for us to sleep and when we wake, we start business." Kage said.

"Ok." I said.

[Traveling.]

It was really dark, I have no clue what Kage made us look like but, even the animals didn't know we were there. It seemed like we travel for many hours; the night seemed ice cold. I was afraid of someone getting frostbite but, Kasai started a layer of fire warming everyone up. Heat never felt so calming. Turns out he just did it because the Sound Village is known to set up traps and he wanted light to see the traps clearly. We were in the forest for a few more hours and we arrived at the gates.

[The welcoming]

"Who goes there," Stated the guard.

"Squad from the Uragiri with a direct order from Shacho Oto," Kasai said.

"Provide the scroll," demanded the guard. Kasai handed over the scroll and the guards let us in. The town looked destroyed. There were houses with no roofs, kids eating from trash cans, sick people laying in the streets, and not even as much as a blade of grass anywhere. It was an awful sight I wish I could forget. We kept walking and up ahead was one massive building that looks brand new. Shacho Oto was waiting at the entrance and welcomed us. He showed us to our rooms and we went to bed. A soft bed in a warm room never felt so good but, I couldn't help but feel guilty that I'm in this lavish house while 1000's just out my window are sleeping in the street. I would fall asleep and then wake; I started looking around and noticed the walls were filled with chakra. I noticed it was cold outside but warm in here. The walls must absorb heat from outside, leaving the cold for the citizens. That made me feel very guilty, I thought I was never going to fall asleep but, I did and this time slept the rest of the night.

Chapter 3: Day 2

[Day 2]

[Helping]

I woke up early but felt rested. I left the building and saw all the poor people again. A little girl went by me and I asked her if she was hurt or sick and she said no but her mom was. I told her how I am good at healing people and she took me to her mom. Her mom was easy to heal very weak cold took very little amount of chakra to cure her. I saw the fire light in the kid's eyes when her mom woke up. The mother offered me food but I declined instead I asked if I could use the bed as a healing bed. She happily said yes, she went and got the elderly and I healed them all one by one. It was great practice and very simple stuff, also I knew I was helping people and I know Sakura-sama would be proud of me. I saved an infant who was hours from death, seeing the baby healthy again, made the whole thing worth it. I told the people my name and that I work for the Uragiri and returned to the government building.

[Negotiation]

"We will protect your village for a short amount of time, in trade of your famous vases." Kasai said sternly.

"Why do you need them?" Oto replied.

"Your vases hold a property of transportation that we require." Kage said.

"Why would you need this though?" Asked Oto.

"Because we do, do you want protection from the Jaakuna that is right outside your village or not." Shouted Kasai. It was the most emotion I think he has ever shown.

"Fine but you must hunt it and have it destroyed before the day is out." Oto said.

"We will leave at once, if you do not keep true to your word, we will kill you." Kasai said.

"Threatening a Shacho is a punishable action, punishable by death." Shacho said.

"Yes but, you forget your talking to Kasai Inferuno. The one who destroyed the Village Hidden In The Lava at age 12 with one hand." Kasai said.

"Go do your job please we will talk later." Oto said.

"Team lets head out at once." Kasai said.

"Yes sir." Everyone said.

[Snake hunt]

We all headed out and went into the forest. We looked around and around.

"Hiden jutsu shussan," said Kumo. A bunch of spiders went out in different directions jumping in the trees.

"Kumo-sun how will we know where the snake is from the spiders?" Asked Kisu.

"I share thoughts with the spiders." Responded Kumo.

"Makes since." Said Kisu. We waited for hours and nothing happened.

"While we're waiting Kasai-sun what does the snake look like and do?" I asked.

"It is a snake about 100 feet tall, with two antennas that it uses to see when it digs, it digs at a speed of 50mph, it has tough skin, it is black on top and brown on bottom, 2 fangs on each side of its head, 4 thorns on its back about 4 inches thick and 20 inches long, it spits a fluid that paralyzes you then it eats you, and their most dangerous property it they are smart." Explained Kasai.

"Oh... why are we trying to kill it?" I asked.

"It's eating the town's crops and livestock." Answered Kasai.

"We must destroy it and save those people!" I shouted.

"Why do you care?" Asked Kasai.

"Um um um um since I don't think children who have done no wrong should be suffering like they do." I said. The ground started rumbling and the snake came out.

"It-it-it's huge!" I shouted.

"That's just a baby Kenko-kun!" Shouted Kasai. We were jumping all around, while; the Snake was spitting at us. Kumo would trap it in webs but, it'd just break out. It went underground and we could feel the earth under us rumble but, not see where it was at all. It came up and started biting around. I decided I can't let this keep terrorizing the village. I touched the tail.

"hiden Jutsu Sentatchi, medical hiden jutsu honezasho!" I shouted. You could hear as every bone in its body began to break from the tail to its head, it squirmed around unable to move much. Finally its skull shattered and it feel to the ground not moving. The group looked at me and then the snake then at me again.

"What was that jutsu Kenko-sun?" Kisu asked.

"Sakura-sama taught me it before she died, in case I was ever in need to defend myself. The bad thing is that it takes almost all my chakra to surround all the bones and crush them." I said.

"But that's some defense." Said Kisu.

"Um thank you, I think" I said.

"Let's return to the village." Said Kasai. He cut off the head of the snake.

"Why did you do that?" I asked almost about to barf.

"Proof that are mission was a success." Said Kasai. We then headed back to the village. Meanwhile.....

[Introducing Doragonteimazu]

"Everybody keep up we need to make it to the Sound Village to kill the Jaakuna." Said Baiorinisuto. [She is the leader of an organization called Doragonteimazu [Dragon Tamers]. She is very skinny with short blonde hair. She wears her hair up when she fights. When she isn't fighting she wears it down, her hair is kind of long and straight. She wears jet black leather skinny pants and jet black leather shirt with the "Dragon Symbol" on it. Her Weapon of choice is a violin. She emits chakra through her notes which alter her environment. She has a dragon that is controlled by the violin. The dragon is summoned from a tattoo on her neck, the dragon is named Shiro. Shiro is 15 feet tall dragon, wingspan of 20 feet, the wings are feathery, it has spikes behind its wings that are about a foot each, his tail extends 12 feet out of his body, 2 skinny horns on his head that are 1.5 feet long with a giant horn in middle of his head that is 4 feet long, fur around his shoulders, 3 foot tall neck, pure white eyes with silver pupils, and entire body is silver and white. Shiro is powerful and quick. Baiorinisuto also has the ability to control the shadows around her making them solid or flat or however her music makes them.

The second in command is Furuto. She is very skinny and has short pink hair. She and Baiorinisuto have been best friends since they were two years old. Her instrument is the Flute. She wears tight black clothes with the "Dragon Symbol" on it. She summons her dragon from a tattoo on her wrist. The dragons name is Tsumetai Okami. He is short, only 9 feet tall. With the wings included in his height, he is 20 feet tall, he has blue whiskers and blue fur over shoulders and legs, the tail is 3 feet long, The dragon is fully baby blue but, the tips of the wings, the claws, and the horns are bright teal, he has two horns on his head that is long and skinny. He can multiply.

The next person is a boy named Dorama. He carries around drums. He is not slow he is very fast and strong. He has a dragon tattoo on his hand. He wears all black. Short brown hair. His dragon is named Hone. Hone is a 14 foot tall skeleton dragon. Large spikes from his head down to his tail, starting off large on head and getting smaller going down its body. A blue smoke surrounds its eyes and mouth. Its eyes are a blue fog looking thing. Anything that touches the dragon loses their soul. Dorama is immune to the killing effect.

The next person is Besu. He wears all black and has black hair. He carries a base. His body amplifies the sound waves unleashing shock waves in the direction he's playing. His dragons name is Y Dsei. He is 8 feet tall with a long neck. His neck is covered in spikes. Long tail with a spike ball at the end. Long wings. The wings are blue with a silver outline and red tips. The body is black. The dragon can extend neck to be long or short.

Finally we have Kurarinetto. She wears all black and has the tattoo on her foot. Her hair is short. She plays the clarinet. She can make a shield out of her notes. She has no tattoo her dragon is summoned from a sticker on the clarinet. The dragons name is Akuma. He's bright red and 12 feet tall. Very long tail. Scaly and with a long face. He can do a huge fire blast that burns up a wall of fire that is 20 miles high, burns everything.]

"Can we take a lunch break; we have been going non-stop since sunrise." Said Kurarinetto almost out of breath.

"We do need to rest I need to recharge my chakra after the fight with the spiders." Said Dorama putting down his drums."

"Ok small lunch break." Said Baiorinisuto. They all sat down and ate a lunch and watched the Earth around them.

"I'm going to send out Shiro to scan the Forrest and try to locate the Jaakuna." Said Baiorinisuto. She summoned Shiro and told him to search the area. He started flying away. They then got up quickly.

"Everyone more spiders get ready." Said Baiorinisuto. They all got up as thousands of spiders appeared from the trees. She started playing her violin [Go on YouTube and search Lindsey Stirling Shadows as a reference to hear what sound she is making.] and All the shadows started moving. Giant shadow fist started crushing the spiders. Each time the fist hit the ground about 10 spiders were crushed. There were about 10 fists smashing about but, more and more spiders came. Besu started playing his base making waves of energy that would rip apart the spiders but, he can only kill about 5 spiders every 2 minutes. The spiders keep coming and coming. They summon their dragons and escape. Above the trees they see millions of spiders in every direction.

"Glad we left while we could." Said Besu.

"We will go see Oto." Said Baiorinisuto.

[Evil meets good.)

"The Jaakuna has been killed." Said Kasai.

"Very good as promised we will give you the jars." Said Oto not looking up. As the slaves were gathering the pots the Dragon Tamers walked in.

"The Doragonteimazu is reporting to kill the Jaakuna." Said Baiorinisuto.

"You were late so we hired The Uragiri instead." Said Oto.

"Who are you people!" Shouted Furuto. Kasai analyzed the dragon Tamers and then spoke.

"You would be wise to keep your mouth shut in my presence." Said Kasai calmly.

"Why?" Asked Furuto getting enraged.

"For I am Kasai Inferung, the one who burned his parents to a crisp while they slept and destroyed the Hidden Lava Village with one hand." Said Kasai threateningly.

"What that means you are all murders, we must destroy you!" Exclaimed Baiorinisuto. Then at once the Uragiri were gone.

"What happen?" Asked Furuto.

"They used the pots to transport away there's no way to know where they went." Said Oto calmly.

"Baiorinisuto can I speak to you alone?" Asked Oto politely. The other members left to assist the village.

"I have an offer for you." Said Oto.

"Yes?" Asked Baiorinisuto.

"If you kill The Uragiri I will make you the Shacho of the sound village." Said Oto looking at Baiorinisuto in the eyes.

"You got a deal," said Baiorinisuto.
