whore by in this moment i am the girl your thinking about the one thing you can't live without yeah i am the girl you been waiting for ill have you down on your knees i ll have you begging for more you probably thought i wouldn't get this far you though id end up in the back of the car you probably thought that id never escape i be rotting in a cage id be enslaved in this place you don't know how to fall to survive waking up alone with all that is left id to die and you don't know about this life I've lived all these worlds walking all these tears I've cried so how can this be your praying to me theres a look in your eyes and i know just what that means but i can be i can be your everything

i can be your whore

i am the dark you created

i am the center of your heart but let me tell you something baby you love me for everything to hate me for i am the one that you need and feel now that your hooked its all becoming clear and all your choices that you place tonight a superstition so stop and ride so maybe the next time when you cast your stones for the shadow and the dark unknown you will crawl from your hiding place and take a look in the mirror and see the truth on your face

so how can this be your praying to me

theres a look in your eyes i know just what that means i can be i can be your everything

you love me for everything you hate me for

you love me you want me you need me

you love me fore everything you hate me for

let me tell you something baby
