

A House is not a Home

By : yazz4youu

We sometimes forget that our house is a very important part of us. We treat our homes how we treat each other. If a house isn't well treated you won't treat the people in it well either..

A House is not a Home

A house is not a home

If there is yelling and fighting

A house is supposed to be made of love.

A house is not a home

If you barely talk to each other

A house is supposed to be made of fun.

A house is not a home

If you don't give hugs and kisses

A house is supposed to be made of... a family.

Without family

And love

And friendship

And hardship

But within hardship...

You still find the love within.

Let this house not just be a house,

But a HOME.

A House is not a Home
