My Dog By Chad

I once had a dog and this dog has a might of power and that dog could save everybody even humans. And I was his best friend. And I would stand by his side and that he had a might up power ws his best. He could shoot out fire, and that he could do a lot more. I said to him that he was the best ahat I loved him they correct doesn't thing and that they people was happy for them and that one day this girl and her dog was stuck and that any monitor that sh eand me was the best so that we had to save her and her dog life. I was happy that I got to save her and she was so happy that she saved that is the end of my story.
