As being a parent is a Healthy & prestigious sign in the present era so most of the parents feel proud of their parenthood at this early stage of responsibility & want to pour their Love & affection as much as they can. After sometimes the child accepts it as a Demanding session & due to this the child is not only becomes a demandable but also a Stubborn one. And this habit sometimes becomes a tension in the future stages.

To avoid from such situation the parents must try to make their child busy in some activities like dance, music, drama, art & craft and many during the summer holidays of their school. In Delhi many schools organized the "summer camps" for the school kids. These camps not only benefits the child to make them busy in some creative activity but also explore their Hidden talents in the early stages of their life.

And as every Year have a different experience of the child that HE or SHE gains ,so in the future stages when the child is going to choose HIS career then this task of the early stages help HIM more confident as He already knows the pros & cons of the different fields.

Though being a parent its a difficult task to manage as the Parent's Heart are so soft towards their kids & they get afraid for the hardships of the kids at an early stage of their Life but believe it that this early hardships make their Life more comfortable in the coming stages.
