Just a Rant....

This is something I posted as a reply to Mike Stevens post. But on reflection of what I wrote I thought it something worthy of general debate.

Just a Rant....

I don't watch much TV or read the gutter press. The masses are controlled by the media. We are told how to live and feel by soap opera's and our children are constantly sold a dream that can not be achieved. Reality TV is just a modern freak show! And Talent shows are the only way to get a break. The gutter press tell us what is acceptable while digging away to undermine society for profit! Who voted them in!

Television exists to anaesthetize the people. Media is designed to keep them in check!

I DO NOT SUBSCRIBE!

Man, did I not see that rant coming!
