Chapter 4: August Winners!

This month I am going to provide a list of songs that were banned during the Gulf war. (I think Banned music could lead to some interesting stories.) All you have to do, is pick a song, (let me know which, as only one entry per song, first come, first serve) go and listen to it, then write a short story based on that song.

Your entry can contain lyrics from the song, or can tell the story behind the song. When you select your song, leave me a comment with the number and title from the list below. Please use the songs and artists listed below, not cover songs by other artists.

- Must be a short Story (NO CHAPTERS!)
- Only entries submitted in the comments of this post will be accepted.
- Stories can be ANY genre.
- ONE SONG per entry, ONE entry per person. You cannot choose the same song as someone else, First come, First Serve.
- Only songs from the list here can be used.
- Deadline - 1st September
