Santa and Mrs. Claus in Bed

“ Oh, baby!” Santa said. “ I’ M GOING TO BLOWWWW!!!”

The mushroom cloud erupted high into the air, as Santa, Mrs. Claus, and the whole damn State of Hawaii were vaporized in a flash of atomic passion.

“ Whoa!” Santa woke suddenly, and bolted upright. “ What the ‘ did my dick explode?” He lifted the sheet, and breathed a sigh of relief. “ Goddamn ‘ that was a fucking dream?” He looked down at his side, and saw his wife snoring peacefully into her pillow. “ Where the hell does a dream like that come from?” He shook his head. “ I don’ t even want to know.”

Drenched in sweat, his heart still pounding, Santa stole off for the bathroom. He peeked back at his wife, just to make sure she was still there, and pinched himself, to make sure he was really there.

A piss, a face washing, and a cool drink of water later, Santa settled back into bed, and waited for sleep to come. He noted the clock on the table next to the bed showed 1:03 AM, and closed his eyes.

He fought for what seemed like an eternity to get back to sleep, but thanks to the ceaseless noise of his own wheels turning, he never made it under.

The clock displayed 1:04 AM when next he opened his eyes.

“ Oh, you’ re going to play it that way, are you?” He sat back up, got out of bed, and started feeling around in the dark for the clothes he’ d cast off before rocking and rolling with the Mrs. at bedtime.

Except for the wedgie he got for mistaking his wife’ s thong for his own boxer shorts, he was able to get himself dressed in the dark with nary a hitch. “ I don’ t know how Jess wears those things,” he said, “ but at least I won’ t have to floss my ass-crack again anytime soon.”
