Seduction by Desire : Chapter 1

A/N: Hey guys! Well, my first sequel of three. I knew "Don't Cry Tonight" had to have a sequel. I am doing things a little different. Instead of saying who the POV is, I am putting "" instead of their name. I am only switching between the two main characters, Rose and Kane. It will be obvious as well who is talking. Hope you will enjoy, this will be a pretty hot story!

Chapter 1

First Day of My Life

I turned on my stereo so Faith No More's song "Epic" is playing and I am running through my loft. "Oh God, where is my blouse?" I said and my friend, Denise Easton, came out and she is holding the pink blouse I've spent the last ten minutes looking for.

"Rose, I think you are freaking out just a little," Denise said and I grabbed it and put it on.

"Well, for one, I am proving to Daddy that I can take care of myself. I am also proving to my brother that I am not helpless. I am proving to myself I am worth something," I said and she rolled her eyes.

"Just because you dropped out of UCSD last year doesn't mean you're a failure. You're the kind of person that knew college is not for you."

"Yet, my father bought me a loft and has been paying my bills AND buying my groceries AND giving me spending money the past year. Oh yeah, Rose Scott is VERY independent. I wanted this job, and I got it, now help me pick out my shoes," I said and Denise followed me to my room and my Pomeranian, Russell, licked my toes as he ran out of my room. I looked at my room then at the view of the San Diego skyline and I sighed. It kind of sucks to be the daughter of Brent Scott, the most powerful man not only in San Diego, but the whole West Coast. Since Bradley and I was born, he owns a business here in San Diego, Seattle, Portland and Miami. My father is a dedicated family man and he never went to long drawn meetings in those cities, he Skyped the meetings that didn't take place in San Diego. Being a very powerful man means my family is the richest on the West Coast. I always got what I wanted, and at first it was cool. Now, it's annoying because I live on my own, but my daddy is paying for everything! I heard the door open and I asked Denise to check who it is. "Hello Claire, Rose is almost ready," Denise said and I immediately went to my mom and hugged her tight.

My parents told me about what happened twenty-one years ago. When mom was nineteen, my father and lunatic brother kidnapped her. My dad loved her and my uncle wanted her for sex, and raped her a few times. Blake was killed by my mother when she just found out she was pregnant with me and my brother. "Hey baby, nervous about today?" Mom asked and I nodded.

"I am working for Kane Sheppard, the second most powerful man on the West Coast," I said and she nodded. "Your father thinks you'll do just fine, and requested for you to go over to his office when you get your break. I have to hurry because Dette is going to Skype me. I still miss her and Fritz and Christoph." My Aunt Dette and her family had to move to my Uncle Fritz's homeland of Germany a year ago. Dette says she feels like she is right at home in Berlin. I gave my mom a hug and when she left, I finished getting dressed and then took a good look at myself in the mirror. Being born and raised in Sunny California, my skin is tanned. I got my mom's sunny blonde hair and dad's light green eyes. I have my mom's attitude and personality, I am outgoing around the people I know, but I am very quiet and shy around strangers. My pink blouse shows a little bit of cleavage and hugs my curves. My navy skinny slacks is complemented by dark navy knee high boots. Denise came in and she smiled. "Your fit for the first day at Sheppard Telecommunications!" Denise said and she rubbed my shoulders. Denise finished college, community college. She is a RN and works at a doctors office. "Let's just hope I don't screw up!" I said and sighed and I am now ready for the real world.

"Rose, Mr. Sheppard is not in yet, he started his morning run late. Usually, his assistant starts the day by printing the finance sheets for the week. Then, you print all of his appointments for the day and his material he needs for his morning meetings. After that, he will tell you what he needs to do, understand?" A woman name Barbara said and I just nodded. She is the one that trained me a few days ago, so I sat down at my desk and done everything she asked me to do. As the final papers we're printed, I heard everybody get very busy.

Seduction by Desire

"Morning Mr. Sheppard," One woman said.

"Morning Kane, how's the run this morning?" Barbara said and I peeked through my cubicle and I gasped. Denise told me that Kane Sheppard is hot, but not THIS hot. His dark blonde hair, almost a light brunette in color, is tossed and messy looking, but very stylish. He has this grey eyes that can melt your soul. He has light stubble on his very strong jaw and he has the American Boy smile with his perfect white teeth.

"Good Barbara, is my new assistant here? I would like to speak with her," Kane asked and I slid down and tried to look busy.

"Rose, honey, Kane would like to see you in his office," Barbara said and I swallowed and walked slowly down the corridor and opened the glass door to his HUGE office. I walked to his dark cherry wood desk and he is sitting in a black leather seat, facing the San Diego skyline. "Well, Rose, I finally get to meet you," Kane said and he spun in his chair to face me.

"N-nice to meet you, Mr. Sheppard," I said and he chuckled and smiled, which I feel like melting right now.

"Call me Kane, and from what your business instructor said, you are very intelligent. Tell me why you dropped out." I slid my hands to the front of my body and began to mess with my fingers, my nervous habit.

"College is not me, I didn't feel right there, if you know what I mean," I said in my shy, quiet voice. Kane just nodded and stood up and began to walk around.

"I am a Yale drop out myself. Father was not so thrilled, how did Brent react?"

"He, um, accepted my decision. My mom, Claire, never went to college. They got married early, when she was pregnant with me and my twin brother. She told me that college is not meant for some people."

"I met your father on several occasions, Brent is a very nice man, but strong powered. He has the West Coast in the palm of his hand. I called him up to see if I should even hire you, and he said that you got the brains and talents and that I should, and you are here." So, he called daddy up to see if I am hireable? I feel sort of frustrated right now, my father basically gave me a job.

"Well, he thinks highly of me. My brother Bradley is suppose to continue Scott Enterprises whenever daddy retires, but looks like he is into the weight lifting more than business." Why am I talking about my personal life with Kane? He nodded and poured him some of bourbon.

"Want some?" He asked and shook my head and he chuckled. "I forgot, you're twenty years old, still a few months before you can drink."

"Yes, let me go back to my desk and give your morning reports for you." I turned around and headed out the door. That is so strange, it seems like he wanted to know me and I opened up to him like a flower.

*****

Well, Rose is better than I thought. Highly professional, just like her father Brent. She seems sort of shy and quiet though. As I watch her walk out the door, I cannot help but to glance down to her rear and then her legs. Those knee highs, oh I love knee high boots. They can highlight a woman's legs just right. I watched her fumble with the papers and she walked over back to my office without talking to anybody. Very obedient! She opened the door and she held out the papers and I grabbed them, purposely touching her fingers and I felt it. I felt electricity running between us, and I know she felt it too. She cleared her throat and jerked her hand back. "Is there anything you need me to do?" Rose asked and I smirked. She has a very quiet and gentle voice. It's that kind of voice that can sound highly seductive when triggered. I took a quick glance at her breasts, and they are perfect. They are not humongous huge, but they are not little tennis balls. They are right smack in the middle. She is the right kind of curvy too, she is curvy in the right spots. I glanced over at my desk and then back up at her. "I will email you what I need after the meeting, that's what I usually do. You can go back to your desk and take your break at eleven thirty," I said and she nodded and turned on her heel and left my office.

I went back to my desk and put my hands on the back of my head. I know I will never be as successful as Brent Scott. I am happy as second place to a man like him. He is one of the best business men in America, a dedicated father and husband, he is everything. Hell, he can even play fucking electric guitar and play Rammstein! "Kane, they are here to start the meeting," Rose said, and I smiled. She even sounds sweet on the intercom.

"Send them in, remember, I will email what you need to do. It will take an hour," I said and she said her okay and the men walked in and I greeted them with a smile. As they walked in, babbling about their lives, I kept thinking about Rose. Wonder if she would go out for some coffee with me tonight?

Seduction by Desire

*****

I walked into Daddy's office and Gladys, his assistant greeted me and announced into daddy's private intercom that I am here. I smiled at her and walked down the corridor to his office. When I opened the door, daddy smiled at me and I ran in for a hug. I am very close to my father, and my mom as well. Daddy has always been there for me, sometimes a little too much. "Hey, how's your first few hours working for Kane been?" Daddy asked and I looked at the few silver strands in his hair. He looks pretty young for being fifty years old. Barely any wrinkles and only a sprinkle of grey hair in his raven black hair.

"Good, been pretty busy. I actually talked to him, he seems nice," I said and he nodded and touched my upper back and pushed me to his desk. "But, he really dug deep into my family life."

"Probably because we have a few deals with each other, darling. We have worked together since he started eight years ago. He started young, unlike me. I started at twenty-three, he started at twenty-one. I see him going as far as me in the next decade or so," Daddy said as he took apart a tableware dish with one of mom's famous dishes, stuffed cabbage.

"He is pretty good looking too," I said licking some of the sauce off my finger. Daddy laughed and ate a bite of the cabbage.

"Well, he is quite handsome, if I say myself." I laughed and we ate our lunch together. I looked at my watch and I have to go or I will be late.

"I love you daddy, I have to go back to work!" I said as I gave him a quick kiss and he gave me his usual fatherly kiss on the cheek.

"Come over tonight, we miss you over there, especially Bradley," Daddy said and I nodded. Well, off to work!

It is five till five and I just finished the last thing for Kane, which is typing out his weekly quota's into another formant. I printed it off and walked back to his office. Before I entered, I took a quick glance at Kane. He is leaning against the window with the San Diego skyline smiling at him, on his cell phone. I have never seen such a strong jaw on a man, and it's so hot. He has to work out a lot because he has muscles in his arms, legs, chest and probably his stomach. I sighed and knocked on his door. He turned around and waved me to come in and I opened the door. I can smell his cologne as I entered, he must have gave himself a couple of sprays not that long ago. "Ah, Rose, have you finished the quotas for me?" Kane said and I nodded. I handed him the papers and he looked through them and I took his silence as I am finished for the day. I turned on my heel and he stopped me. "Rose, care to go out for a coffee with me, to celebrate your successful first day here?" Kane said and I am astonished. A good looking, well drop dead gorgeous man, like Kane, asked me to drink coffee with me! Oh fuck, I am going to my parents tonight!

"I promised my dad that I will go eat with the family. Some other time?" I said and he nodded, looking kind of hurt.

"Yeah, tomorrow, if I am not working late?" He said and I nodded. I cannot believe I accepted a sort-of date with Kane Sheppard. It's not a date, just coffee. Rose Elizabeth Scott, it's just coffee between two colleagues. Just one colleague is a gorgeous and powerful man!

Chapter 2: It's a date, or is it?

A/N: Hey guys! I would had this up sooner, but I had to make a trip to the emergency room. I have a full blown sinus infection, so I have some antibiotics and good pain medication LOL. I won't be able to update till around Wednesday or Thursday due to my job, but thanks for reading! FYI, their relationship WILL progress fast!

Chapter 2

It's a date, or is it?

Nothing beats being greeted at the door with your muscular brother. Bradley opened the door and lifted me off my feet and spin me around the foyer. I laughed the whole time and he sat me down. "So, how is my big shot sister?" Bradley said with his glistening smile. Bradley has our father's looks and personality. He has the raven black hair, light green eyes and the very outgoing and charming personality.

"Please, I am not a big shot! I am an assistant to Kane Sheppard," I said and Brad nodded.

"Ah, Kane Sheppard, handsome man, hard worker from what I heard." Mom and Daddy came in and both gave me a hug.

"The Chicken Parmesan is almost done honey, go relax by the pool," Mom said and I went to the backyard and sat in a lawn chair. I miss my old house, the mansion on the beach. Daddy said we needed to go modern, so he bought this place three years ago, right before I graduated high school. I miss the beach and the sand, but this pool is pretty nice too. Made from green marble, it makes the water look awesome! I put my shades on and lay in the sun, and Brad came out and jumped in the pool and splashed me! "BRAD!" I yelled and he laughed.

"Come on in, the water is great!" Brad said and I shook my head and laughed.

"I would if I have brought my swimsuit, I came straight from work!" When I remember the last thing I done at work, I remember Kane's invitation to coffee, and his rejection face when I told them I couldn't come. I shook my head and Brad turned on the iPod station and of course, Rammstein's "Herzeleid" came on. I swear, Daddy made us listen to that band as long as I can remember. They are good, but I need a break from them once in a while!

"So, Daddy still trying to get you to work for him?" I asked Brad and he turned around to look at me.

"Yeah, but I don't think business is in my blood. I love my gym Dad bought for me. I make killer money, but he still wants me to get into the business with him. He said that the company will keep going without me, but he wants it in the family," Brad said and I nodded.

"Give it a try, it's actually interesting to work for a huge company." Brad looked up into the sky then nodded. Wow, I got though his hard skull, maybe Brad will work for Daddy. He does need to get out of the gym business, he is getting too buff for me. I love buff men, Kane is pretty fit. Just thinking about his muscular physique gets me all hot andâ ;

"Rose, Brad, dinner is done!" Mom yelled and we both ran in and sat at the kitchen table. Daddy poured us all some red wine and we sat and chatted. Daddy talked about his work and something about converting it to all solar power.

"Sounds cool Dad, may I come work, you know, for a little bit?" Brad said and Daddy dropped his fork on the plate.

"Why, of course son, you can come tomorrow if you like!" Daddy said and then smiled really big. I know that made his day.

"So, how was your first day working with Kane?" Mom asked and then taking a bite of her chicken.

"He kept me busy, I have to write some stuff for him and keep him in line with his appointments, and take a thousand calls," I said and mom nodded.

"Sounds like your liking it, is this what you want to do?"

"Yes, mom, it's a job!" I said and shrugged my shoulders.

"How did Kane treat ya?" Daddy asked and I took a swallow of my wine. I shouldn't tell him he asked me out to coffee.

"He is very nice. He has not been mean to me yet," I said and giggled.

"Well, he will answer to me if he doesâ!"

"Daddy, I don't need you to fight my battles. Kane told me he called you to see if I am even worth hiring. You basically gave me my job!"

"I didn't give you the job, I just gave you a good reference. I know you will fight your own battles, I just worry about you that's all." I have to give Daddy credit. He does worry about his family a lot, especially Mom. With the whole Uncle Blake thing, he worries a lot. I told him one that he has been dead for over twenty years, and our cousin Oliver, which I found out that he helped Blake rape mom, has been in prison for the last seventeen years, and he is serving six sentences for first degree murder, an attempted murder charge, eight counts of rape, and two counts of kidnapping. What a lovely family I have! "I appreciate you caring, Daddy, and I love you. I am twenty years old, leave me spread my wings and be independent. You know I will ask for assistance if I need it," I said and he nodded.

"You are an amazing woman, Rose. You turned out great, just like your mom," Daddy said and grabbed mom's hand. We all finished dinner and I left to go home so I can go to bed to go to work in the morning. When I unlocked the door, Russell and Denise's Toy Poodle, Baby, greeted me at the door. Denise usually goes out for a few drinks after work, so I didn't expect her home. I heard a beep from my answering machine and I went to it. "You have two messages," The machine said and I sighed. "Hey Rose, this is Denise, Um, I am at James' Bar and I won't be home tonight. Met a wonderful guy! Good Night, love you sissy!" Denise said and I giggled. The machine beeped and I heard a familiar, but very sexy voice.

"Hey Rose, this is Kane Sheppard, your boss. Don't call me a stalker, I have your number on my computer. I was wondering, whenever you get home from your family, can you give me a call? I would love to celebrate your first day working for me over some coffee. Either tonight or tomorrow perhaps after work? Just give me a call," Kane said and he sounded like a teenager leaving a message on a girl's machine. He left his personal number on my machine and I dialed it on my house phone. "Kane Sheppard," Kane said and I blushed. God, what is this man doing to me?

"Hi Kane, it's Rose," I said and I can feel his smile.

"Hey Rose, I was about to call you again. So, how is the family?" I sat on the couch and told him about my dad, my mom and how my brother is finally going to give business a try.

"So, how about that coffee? Want to go out for some tonight or tomorrow?" He asked and I sighed. I really want to relax and go to bed, tomorrow should be good!

"Well, I want to relax tonight, since I got the loft alone with mine and my roomie's dogs. How about tomorrow after work, or on break?" I asked and I can visually see him celebrate.

"After work sounds great, I know the place that has the best coffee and little snacks to go along with it. I will tell you about it at work tomorrow. I really like you, Rose. You are the hardest worker I had in a long time. Can I be honest about something too?" My heart is racing right now. What is he going to tell me?

"S-sure!" I stumbled and I can hear him move something on the ground.

"I think you are beautiful, Rose," Kane said and I smiled. No man has ever called me beautiful, other than Daddy and Brad, when he wanted me to do something.

"T-thank you, you are quite handsome yourself!" I said, returning the compliment and he chuckled.

"See you at work, cannot wait for that coffee!" We said our goodbyes and got off the phone. I sagged into the couch and Russell and Baby jumped into my lap and I turned on the TV. This is not a date, just a causal sit down at a coffee shop. Well, he did call me beautiful, maybe it's a date. Oh shut up, Rose, you are babbling! I am already a nervous wreck over coffee!

YES! She accepted my offer! I walked over to my bar and poured me a small glass of bourbon straight from the Tennessee Hills, or Jack Daniels. I turned on my iPod station and Frank Sinatra Jr. played through the house as I celebrated this victory. Rose, I can't get out of my fucking mind! Her curves, her sunny blonde hair, her green eyes that reminds me of the color of mint. I love her tiny, shy voice, her smileâ I never been this crazy over a woman I just met. "Mr. Sheppard, I am leaving for the night. I left a watercress salad in the fridge, have a nice night," My housekeeper, Helga, said in her strong Swedish accent.

"Good night, Helga, see you tomorrow. I will be sort of late, I have a date with a woman," I said and she smiled. Do you even call it a date? I am calling it that, it's with a beautiful woman. I cannot wait to see her outside of work. Is she shy around everybody, or just with men? I chug down my bourbon, letting it burn my throat. I not an alcoholic, I just appreciate good bourbon and an occasional wine. So, which caf  should I take her? I think I will take her to the one that faces the Pacific Ocean called Mystic Moonlight Caf , it's small and sort of romantic, meant for dates. If she even considers it a date!

Seduction by Desire

I skipped out on my morning run, just to see Rose this morning. I made it to the office parking lot in my Masarati and I seen a Red Audi A4 and Rose is in there, fixing her hair. I can see from here that her sunny hair is in a tight bun and she has minimal makeup on. I wonder if she is wearing those same knee high boots that I love? She opened the car and she is wearing a designer tank top that is light blue in color and a dark grey pencil shirt, and YES, black knee high heels! I got off of my car and threw my sunglasses in the seat and Rose turned around and waved. "Good morning, Kane," Rose said and she grew a smile and my heart began to race and my cock twitched. Great, now I am getting a fucking boner around her!

"Morning, how has your morning been?" I asked her and she sighed and rolled her eyes.

"My roomie came in around one in the morning, drunk as a stunk and with a strange man I never met. I woke up around seven to a mess caused by our dogs, and I burned my toast being frustrated with Denise and my dogs!" She said and I laughed.

"What a morning, that coffee should help you relax. I know just the place, it's called Mystic Moon caf . It's small and kind of romantic, if you want romantic that is."

"Romantic sounds nice, is this a date or something?" I knew she would ask. I will be honest with her, I am a honest man!

"Yes, it is, do you want this as a date or just a causal sit down?" I said and hoping to God that she wants this as a date. Her smile grew and it's very warming. This is a good sign!

"A date sounds good to me. Let me get inside and get to work." I nodded and I let her walk in front of me to the elevator. The win goes to, KANE SHEPPARD, and the crowd goes wild! There is one problem though, and his name is Brent Scott. Wonder if she will tell him about our date? Probably not, but if she doesn't, its up to her. I won't get offended if she doesn't tell him!

Chapter 3: Our Attraction is Obvious

*A/N: Hey, finally got this out. I am feeling better, loads better now. This chapter is hot, but no sex! You shall see what I mean ;) I will give you a warning, their relationship will be pretty fast! Enjoy!***

Chapter 3

Our Attraction is Obvious

I cannot work like this! The way he smiles at me every time I walk into his office, he purposely touches my hand, his sexy deep voice. I looked up and Kane is busy with a morning meeting with some men from a company he has stock in. A few minutes later, Kane walked out, shaking the men's hands and then they all looked at me. "Who is this doll?" One man said and Kane actually looks jealous.

"This is my assistant, Rose Scott," Kane said and the men eyes got agape.

"As in Brent Scott's daughter?" Another one of the group said.

"Yeah, I am Kane's assistant, now Kane, do you have anything for me to do?" I said and flashed my eyes at him and he nodded. He wished them all good day and they left. I followed him to his office and he sat down and leaned back into his seat. I stood there, fidgeting with my feet and waited on him to say something, anything. He sighed and finally leaned forward, seems a lot cooler now.

"Sorry about that, I cannot stand that other men will want you," Kane said and my eyes went agape.

"Kane I have no interest in them. You own stock in them, nothing else. Now, do you need me to do anything?" I said and he nodded. He stood up and he walked over to me, and got inches from my face. My breathing got erratic and his perfect round lips, kissable lips, got near mine. Are we, here? "Kane, we can't kiss here, we can get caught," I mumbled and he walked over and closed the blinds in front of his office, so the other workers cannot see us. My heart began to race and he got closer, I can smell his cologne now. I can feel his hot breath when we got back in the same embrace we were moments before. "Rose, I need to kiss you, please let me kiss you," Kane whispered and I swallowed then nodded. One arm wrapped around me and pulled me even closer, my breasts are pressed against his rock hard chest. His other hand traced the outline of my chin and jaw, and I looked up and he closed his grey eyes and placed his soft lips on mine. I sighed and his mouth began to move. I followed his movements and it began to feel good, really good. I moaned and that gave Kane lee way to slip his tongue in my mouth. He tastes so good, like vanilla and Kane. I wrapped my arms around his neck and my tongue rubbed against his and he moaned. This is the hottest kiss I ever got, well, I only kissed one guy and that is one of Brad's friends when I was sixteen. A very major big mistake! Kane let go and he touched my puffy lips and then he smiled. I smiled back up at him and we just stared at each other. "You taste even better than I thought, Rose," Kane said and I bit my bottom lip.

"You tasted good too," I said, and he smiled.

Seduction by Desire

"I cannot wait for our date tonight. I want to show you a good time, baby." Baby? Why do I feel so good inside when he called me that? Maybe I want to be called that by him.

"I-I can't wait either," I said nervously. He chuckled and leaned in and kissed me again, but not as hot as the first one. He let go and he gave me the things I needed to do.

Her lips reminded me of a rose petal, just like her name. I wanted to kiss her so much, ever since this morning. I have not had my fill of her yet. I want her body and soul and as mine. I know she is a virgin because the way she acted. A virgin would act just as shy as her, and take a long time to respond to a kiss. I died and went to heaven when she wrapped her arms around me, her skin is so warm. I can still feel her breasts against my chest. I hate myself for wanting her this early, I just met her yesterday and I already want her underneath me, crying out my name. God, I never wanted a woman like Rose. I don't want it to be just for sex, I want our souls to be connected.

Around noon, Rose took her break and I watched her walk across to the Starbucks. There is something about knee-high boots that arouses me. It's knee-high boots and thigh-high stockings. Wonder how she would look wearing those? Fuck Kane, get sex out of your mind. She probably not even think that way about you! "Mr. Sheppard, Brent Scott is on the line one," Barbara, a worker of mine, said. I thanked her and answered the phone.

"Hey there, Brent, how is going over there?" I said cheerfully.

"Normal as ever, how is my baby girl doing? Is she working hard?" Brent said and I bit my lip, I want to call Rose my baby girl too.

"She is a hard worker, she keeps me on my feet. She is on her break right now, she went over to the Starbucks."

"Listen, I don't want to intrude, but my daughter finds you attractive. Please don't do anything stupid with her, I will find out."

"Don't worry Brent, nothing is going to happen to herâ"

"Oh, nothing is going to happen to my daughter, Kane. If I hear that you harmed a single strand of hair on her head or touch her in any way, you will answer to me. That is my baby girl right there, my daughter. I swearâ"

"Brent, I really do like Rose, she is a hard worker and a very sweet woman. I wouldn't dare to harm her in any way." Shit, he is serious! He is one over-protective father.

Seduction by Desire

"Okay, sorry, when it comes to my family, Kane, I get worried. This is the first time Rose ever went away and began to really grow up, and I am scared," Brent said and he sighed. He is also a normal father, worried about his baby girl growing up. Wish my father was like that, he gave me a few million dollars, and sent me packing to college. When I dropped, no word from him since. Used that money to start my business, and here I am now.

"I understand, you are a very dedicated family man. I can see Rose coming back over here, do you want to talk to her?" I asked him.

"No, it's fine, I'll call her later on tonight. Nice speaking to you, Kane." I thanked him for his call and the elevator doors opened and Rose is holding two cups from Starbucks. She walked straight to my office and she is smiling, really smiling. "I thought I would start our coffee date sort of early with a coffee," Rose said and handed me a cup. I took a sip and I smiled really big. How did she know I love blonde roast coffee? no pun intended. "I like the blonde roast, so I got you the same thing," she said and I nodded.

"I like it too, so, do you want me to drive us over or do you want to follow me to the cafe?" I asked her and she cleared her throat.

"I'll just follow you, I am not comfortable to ride in that bad boy machine of yours." I laughed when she referred to my Masarati.

"It's not that bad, do you want to take a ride in it one day? I am a pretty good driver, if I say so myself!"

"Sure, that sounds good, well I better get back to work." I walked up to her and placed my lips on hers. She did not resist at all this time. She wrapped her arms around me and opened her mouth so I can slide my tongue into that sweet tasting mouth of hers. I want to touch her all over, her breasts, her ass, but it's too early. I don't want to scare her off. I reached up and cupped her cheek as I let go and we are both breathing hard. Rose looked at me with her beautiful blue eyes and she smiled.

"I like kissing you, Kane," Rose said in that adorable shy voice of hers.

"I enjoy kissing you. Get back to work, baby. I have a good night planned for us." She grinned and she walked out of the office, and I cannot keep my eyes off of her!

*****

At five exactly, all the office workers left to the day and I said my goodbye to Barbara. "See you tomorrow, Rose! I will take us out to lunch!" She said and I agreed. I grabbed my purse and Kane walked out of his office. I cannot stop feeling his lips on mine, I can still taste him. I cannot get enough of him, I cannot fight this attraction to him! "Ready baby?" Kane said and I swallowed. My stomach fills with butterflies when he calls me that, and it makes me feel special.

Seduction by Desire

"Yeah, let's get going," I said and he grabbed my hand and laced his fingers through mine. We got to the elevator that takes us to the parking desk and I felt something. I feel this overwhelming electric feeling of desire. I looked up at Kane and his eyes has filled with desire and I dropped my purse as he grabbed me and put his lips on mine. He turned me around and pressed me against the corner of the elevator. He pulled my hands over my head and held them. His tongue dominated mine and I moaned. I can feel myself pool between my legs and he pressed himself against me, and I can feel how hard he is. I thought this might scare me, but it didn't, it excite me.

He bit my bottom lip and I moaned as we kissed harder than before. The door dinged and opened and we let go. We are out of breath and we just stared at each other. Kane lead me out and took us to our cars. "Just follow me, okay baby?" He said and I nodded. I am still speechless from that kiss. He grinned and he got in his sports car and I got in my Audi. I followed him down I-8 and I began to see the palm trees, saying we are getting close to the ocean. We got off a ramp and down a street then FINALLY turned to a expensive looking caf . All the cars there are top notch, from Lexus to Mercedes. I got out of the car and Kane is already by my side. He grabbed my hand and lead me inside the little caf .

The waitress took us to the window table and I looked at the menu. This stuff is pretty expensive. I found the duck confit with saut ed mushrooms, so that is what I am getting. Kane ordered some Swiss Coffee and our food and I just stared at him. This man, this man does things to me. My heart races when I look into those sexy and sensual grey eyes. My stomach has butterflies when he smiles at me, those lips! The waitress came over with a bottle of fine champagne, Cristal to be exact. Daddy has always been a firm believer to drink red wine at dinner, so I am pretty familiar with fine drinks. He didn't start giving Brad and I wine till we we're twelve, and I find a liking to wine and Champagne. "Is Cristal good?" Kane asked and I smiled and nodded as he poured our glasses. We both drank our coffee down and then we started on the drink.

"I love your name, where did it come from?" Kane asked and I blushed. Should I tell him that my name came from a sensual moment in my parents life? Mom was pretty honest when she told me where my name came from. Hmmm, I think I should.

"When my parents found out that mom was pregnant with me and my brother, my father  um, touched my mom in a sensual matter with a rose. So, my mom thought that naming her daughter Rose would be cute," I said and he grinned.

"So, you we're named after a passionate moment? That is actually kind of sexy, makes you more intriguing." Our food came and I took a bite of my duck and I moaned. This is so good! Kane ordered a steak, very manly of him. Rose, think of something to talk about! Make this man talk!

"Um, are you from San Diego?" I asked him then taking a bite.

"No, I am from Hartford, Connecticut. I came down here for the warm weather and San Diego is beginning to be a major empire for entrepreneurs. I love it here, never plan on moving, but I do own a house in Hartford," Kane said and I nodded.

Seduction by Desire

"I was born and raised here. Both my parents were born and raised in Seattle." And I am NOT going to tell him why they moved down here, to escape my crazy uncle!

"Why did they move here?" He asked and I sighed.

"Daddy wanted to expand his business in Seattle, so they came here," I said, and I didn't really lie, Daddy did really expand his business to San Diego. We finished our meals and the Cristal. Kane paid for the meal and we walked out, hand and hand, back to our cars. Wonder if we will have another date, I hope so!

*****

I took Rose back to her car and she is just standing there, looking at me. The girl that was named after her mother being touched by a rose. I should do that to her someday. That is very sensual and highly sexy. I want her to come to my place, have a few drinks and a fine dinner made by Helga, spend the evening together. "So, I had a wonderful time, Kane," Rose said and I smiled and pulled her closer to me and placed a soft kiss on her lips. I don't want a heated kiss from her, the elevator blew me away, I am still blown away. I love how she reacted to me, how she pushed herself to me, feeling me rock hard for her. When I let go, I touched her bottom lip with my thumb and smiled.

"How about my place Friday after work? My housekeeper, Helga, can really cook. We can dine, have a few drinks, and spend some time together," I said and she swallowed loudly, probably nervous. I hope she is really considering it!

"Sure, that sounds fine with me," She said then she smiled. I thank the Gods for her approval and I leaned and kissed her and then let go. I smiled and told her to drive home safely. I never felt this way about a woman, I usually always invite women to my loft, but have no feelings for them. I am so thrilled that Rose is coming over, I just hope she has a good time with me.

Chapter 4: The Perfect Night

*A/N: Well, the ending will excite y'all, it did for me! This is a very sensual chapter, to me. I hope you enjoy! Oh yeah, IceBreaker and I are going to start the 2nd Erotica Awards, probably start around Monday, so watch for the link on Booksie for it so you can get the info on how to nominate somebody OR yourself, and vote! ### Chapter 4

The Perfect Night

Thursday night, I finally decided to tell Denise about going to Kane's place tomorrow evening. She just stared at me, like I am crazy or something. "What is it?" I asked her and munching on a granola bar.

"For real? You are going to THE Kane Sheppard's house? What are y'all going to do?" Denise asked and Baby jumped on her lap and she scratched her head. Russell decided to join me also and fell asleep on my lap.

"His housekeeper is going to make us something, have a few drinks and spend the evening together," I said and she smiled like the Grinch.

"Finally you decided to take on a man's invite! Hope you have fun, and if you decide to stay, give me a call!" I laughed and we turned on the television and watched some shows until we both got tired and went to sleep. Right before I got to bed, I opened my dresser. I pulled out these white lace stockings my mom bought me when I turned eighteen. She told me that no eighteen year old should be without a pair. They go to my thigh and they are very lacy and very sheer. "Should I wear these, Russell?" I said as I showed my dog my stockings. Russell yawned then closed his eyes. "I think I will wear them tomorrow," I said to myself and put it in the chair with my clothes I am planning to wear. I am also wearing the dark grey knee high boots, Kane seems to be very fond of my knee-highs. I wore my regular heels today to work and he looked quite disappointed. He even told me he loves me in knee-highs and wished I wore them, so I am wearing them tomorrow. I put my sheer pink bra and matching boy shorts panties and got in my bed, going to sleep and becoming excited about tomorrow evening.

"Rose, I need the financial report for Wade Inc. before they show up, please," Kane said as we walked into the elevator together. He looked down at my boots and he smiled like a happy school boy. "Good, you're wearing those boots."

"Just for you, Kane," I said and he leaned towards me and kissed me. His tongue played with mine and I moaned, wanting to wrap my arms around him, but we are so close to our floor. The door dinged and we walked out to the office together and I went to my cubicle as Kane went to his office. I printed off his daily paperwork, including the financial report he wanted. I went to his office and he has this smile. It is melting my bones and it's like he has plans for me. "Close the blinds, baby," Kane said and I done just that. When I did, I walked over to him and he grabbed my hand and helped me to sit on his desk. He opened my legs and leaned in and kissed, me REALLY kissed me. His tongue slid into my mouth and his hands wrapped themselves around me and held me tight. I moaned in his mouth and I put my hands on his hard rock chest, I need to feel him. I know he is wearing clothes, I just want to feel him. I rubbed his chest then my hands went up and wrapped themselves around his neck. He moaned and he let go. "Can I touch you?" Kane said in a very husky voice.

"Touch meâwhere?" I asked and swallowed. My heart is racing right now.

"Hereâ!" He hovered his hands above my breasts, but not touching them. I want his hands on him, I dreamed about him touching me, mumbling love phrases into my neck, last night. I nodded and one of his hands cupped my breast and I threw my head back. This feels so good, so good! I moaned and his other hand cupped my other breast, this is beginning to be too much! "Mr. Sheppard, Wade Inc. is here," Barbara said and he slowly took his hands off of me and my mind finally came back to Earth. "Good, send them in," Kane said and I fixed my hair real quick and he gave me a quick kiss and smiled. "Let's try and make it till five without touching or kissing each other," Kane said and I swallowed. That will be so hard for me to do!

"Don't know if I can," I mumbled and he chuckled.

"Same here baby, but this is a very important meeting. See you at five, take a break around noon. I should be done with this meeting around one," He said and I nodded and the men from the company came in and I said my hellos and left. I feel so sorry for Kane, he has to deal with the boredom of a meeting!

"So, I say we should double the stock in the boatyards in Taiwanâ!" One of the corporate men said and I sighed. I tapped my pen against the table and I looked outside and Rose and Barbara left to the elevator to go on break. I looked at my watch, it's noon. Shit, I been in here for two and a half hours, doing nothing but talk about stocks. Well, it's my work. My mind has been wandering off, thinking about Rose. She sat at the computer the whole time, typing and conversing with the other co-workers. She will look over at me and smile. "Kane, are you with us or not?" Wade Jones, the CEO of Wade Inc., asked me.

"Repeat that, I was off in la-la land," I said and the men laughed.

"We get it, it's Friday, the weekend! Well, what do you think in doubling our stock in Taiwan, so we can bring our businesses over there?"

"Does that mean I have to leave to Taiwan?" That is the last thing I want to do now, since Rose came in my life. Before, I am up and packed to go out of town for business. Now, I don't want to go anywhere without Rose.

"No, you can send a representative, not yourself. If things go wrong, they will need you. So, is it a deal?" Wade asked and I sighed.

"Yes," I said bluntly and we stood up and shook hands. We sat around and talked about nonsense, and in a matter of minutes, we began to talk about women and sex.

Seduction by Desire

"So, Kane, any woman in your life?" Wade asked, tapping his wedding band against my dark cherry desk.

"Sort of, we are going on another date tonight, I am thinking about taking it to the next level," I said and smiled. I am thinking about asking Rose to date me, to be my girl. Wonder if she would?

"I thought I would never hear those words coming from your mouth, Kane Sheppard!" As Wade talked about something else, Rose and Barbara came in and she is holding a Styrofoam cup with a drink and she is laughing about something. Wade looked over and then at me. Oh shit, he figured us out!

"Ah, I see what is going on! He has a thing for an employee!" Wade said and he elbowed me. "Nice pick though, what is her name?"

"Rose Scott," I said and the room got quiet. "Yes, I am taking her out on another date, and I do want her in my life. If you tell Brent!"

"Kane, we have been partners for five years now, I would never tell Brent about this. Brent will be pissed if he does find out, he is a VERY dedicated family man and very powerful," Wade said and I sighed.

"I know, he owns San Diego and half of the West Coast!"

Five finally fucking came around and everybody left in a hurry. No wonder, it's Friday, they are going to have fun this weekend. I watched Rose hug Barbara and wished her a good weekend. When the elevator closed with the last group, Rose came to my office. "Ready baby?" I said as I put the last remaining paperwork in my briefcase. She looks sort of nervous. We are not going to do anything that involves making love, yet. I want to make her feel comfortable with me with my hands on her, make her want to make love to me. I don't want her rushed. "Yeah, lets go," Rose said and she finally smiled. I grabbed her hand and we got on the elevator and I pulled her into my arms. She leaned against my body and her body fits well with mine. I like how she is not bone skinny, but not like HUGELY overweight. She has curves in the right places, especially her hips, breasts and ass. The door opened and I walked her to her car and told her to follow me. I drove down I-8, keeping my eyes on her Red Audi. She is concentrating on the road and me. I turned off to the Downtown exit and down the streets of San Diego. We reached my high rise loft and we parked in the underground deck. I got out of my car and watched her get out of hers and grabbed her clutch. I can hear her walk to me with her knee-high heels. She is looking all around at my three other cars. "So, you got four more cars?" She asked and I nodded. I only have one sports car, my Masarati. I have a Range Rover, an Saab sedan and a Mercedes that I travel in. I grabbed her hand and we went to the elevator and I typed in the code to get to my own private floor. I looked over at Rose and she is standing still and very quiet. "Is there something wrong, Rose?" I asked her and she let out a pent up sigh.

"Just nervous, I never been to a mans house before," She said and I understand now. I pulled her closer and held her in my arms as I looked into her eyes.

Seduction by Desire

"There is nothing to be nervous about, Rose. We are going to have dinner, a drink and watch a few movies," I said and she nodded. The elevator door opened to my thirty-second floor penthouse and she is looking around like she is in an amusement park.

"This place is so nice!" She said and I smiled.

"Good, and I can smell Helga cooking, make yourself at home, get comfortable baby." I told her where my entertainment room is and then I proceeded to go get comfortable. I walked into my master bedroom and tossed my tie off and took off my work clothes. I went to my walk-in closet and found my loosest blue jeans and my Guns N Roses shirt. This should make Rose feel comfortable. I walked back to the entertainment room and Rose is flipping through channels on the satellite and she took off her boots, but I seen white lace on her feetâno way! She is wearing stockings! "Sorry, those boots are killing my feet!" Rose said and I smiled. I sat down beside her and wrapped my arm around her shoulder.

"I told you to get comfortable, come on, put your feet on my lap," I said and patted my legs. She kind of was reluctant at first, but then she gave in and put her feet on my lap. I grabbed her feet and rubbed them for her. I love the feeling of her soft lace against my fingers. She moaned and I can feel her relax in my hands. "Feeling better?" I asked her and she smiled.

"Much better, so, when is dinner done? I am starving!" She said and I leaned into my couch and pulled her closer.

"In a few minutes, just relax baby, I won't bite." She leaned against me and I ran my fingers up and down her arm and we watched some TV show on USA Network and I can hear Helga yell from the kitchen. "Dinner is done, Mr. Sheppard, Miss Scott!" We both got up and we walked hand and hand to the kitchen. Helga made us some Swedish meatballs with egg noodles and she said that she has to leave. "Thank you for the wonderful dinner you made us," Rose said and Helga smiled, huh, Helga rarely smiles.

"Thank you dear, you are very kind. See you Monday, Mr. Sheppard." When Helga left, I went to my bar and got two glasses. I found one of my expensive Brandy's and poured us some. I came back and gave her the glass. She drank it down and shook. We finished our dinner and I took her back to the entertainment room. I decided to bring the question up, how will she react?

*****

I sat down beside Kane and he immediately wrapped his arms around me. I scooted closer as he went through his Netflix and finally found the movie "Red Dawn".

"I like the classics," Kane said and I smiled, I do too. During the Russian Invasion, I can feel his fingers go up and down my arm. I can feel my nerves reacting to his touch, I want him to touch me again, all over! "Baby, can I ask you something?" Kane asked and I took another sip of my Brandy, which burns like hell.

Seduction by Desire

"Yeah, what is it?" I said with a hoarse voice, not from the Brandy.

"I want you in my life, will you, as my girlfriend?" I just stared at him. Kane Sheppard, THE Kane Sheppard, wants me as his girlfriend! I feel like celebrating, but I don't.

"Yes," I said and then smiled. Kane leaned in closer and his hands are at my knee as he kissed me. I jerked back and he has this sensual look in his eyes, and this smile that makes me wanna melt.

"Shhh, I just want to see how high these stockings go," Kane said and I bit my bottom lip as he pushed my skirt up and he stopped where the stockings ended, at mid-thigh. He groaned and closed his eyes. It worked, wearing thigh-highs really worked!

"Fuck, I love these stockings, I want to see you wearing only these," Kane said and he barely touched my inner thigh. He can probably feel the heat coming from my sex, I want him! I am so soaked right now, I never felt this wet in my life.

"Do you want me, baby?" Kane asked me and he lightly tapped his fingers against my highly sensitive skin of my inner thigh.

"Y-yes," I moaned and his lips left mine and went to my neck. I moved my head to the side and moaned as he nibbled on my neck.

"You a virgin?" He asked, and I bit my lip. Shit, he is gonna know now!

"Yes, is that a problem?" I mumbled and he smiled and his fingers went higher into my skirt, I can feel the tips of his fingers against my underwear.

"No baby, and I want you so bad." He grabbed my hand and he pressed it against his harden erection. I swallowed then looked into his eyes. They are full of need and lust.

"Then what are you waiting for?" I said and he smiled and he let go of me and stood up. He grabbed my hand and pulled me to my feet. This is going to be a very memorable night!

Chapter 5: Never Forget This Night

*A/N: Sorry that this chapter is shorter than usual. I have a lot going on today. But, this is a VERY intense chapter, if you know what I mean -winks- Enjoy!***

Chapter 5

Never Forget This Night

My heart is racing right now. I am just standing here, watching Kane pull the blankets back on his bed. It's a huge, modern bed with maroon colored sheets and smells very Kane. "Are you sure, we can stop?" Kane said and I placed my fingers on his lips.

"Please, make love to me," I said and he groaned as he placed his lips on mine. My hands went straight into his hair and his hair is so soft. I moaned as his teeth lightly grazed my bottom lip. His hands went for my shirt and he pulled it off, revealing my pink sheer bra. He smiled as he wrapped his arms around me and pulled me closer. "You are so beautiful, Rose," He mumbled into my neck. I reached for his shirt and pulled it over his head and my hands went down his beautifully sculpted body. He has little hair, but boy is he muscular! I thought Brad was muscular, but I thought wrong. Every single muscle is prominent on Kane. He has a tattoo underneath his naval, Kanji symbols, and it's like an arrow, pointing down to his man region. He has another tattoo underneath his bicep, near his arm pit. I just seen it, I will look at it later! I leaned into him and placed my lips back on his as I pressed my breasts against his chest. This is not enough and I think Kane is thinking the same thing. He reached behind me and undid my bra and it dropped to the floor. I pressed my bare breasts against his chest, loving the feeling of the scant hairs rubbing against my sensitive nipples. I moaned and threw my head back and his lips went straight for the base of my neck. His kisses, oh his kisses! He pulled me back and he stared at my breasts. I know they are not huge, but he is making me feel highly self-conscious! "You're perfect," Kane breathed and his hands went and cupped my breasts. I groaned and threw my head back, absorbing all this feeling of him touching me. I grabbed his hips, wanting to hold onto something, making me stay on this Earth. His lips left my neck and trailed down ever so slowly then they attached to my nipple. "Oh God, Kane!" I moaned and wrapped my arms around his head. He nipped, plucked and licked my nipples until I cannot think anymore. I only can feel him on me. His hands went down to my ass and squeezed me and then he unzipped my skirt. It fell to the ground and he let go. I can hear him breath heavily, this is what he wanted, to only see me in my thigh-highs. "This is better than what I hoped for!" Kane said and pushed me gently on his bed. I watched him take his trousers off and his cock made a tent in his jockey shorts. Holy shit, he is going to put THAT in me? He is huge!

He got on top of me and slipped his fingers underneath my lacy panties and pulled them off ever so slowly, enough to drive me crazy. He pulled them completely off and tossed them over his shoulder, joining my bra. He ran his fingers lightly over my blonde pubic hair and I closed my eyes. His fingers went down to my soaked slit and ran his fingers up and down. I bucked my hips, wanting him to touch me more. More God Dammit! He touched the entrance of my pussy gently with his fingertip and I pushed my hips to him. "You really want me, don't you baby?" Kane said in a husky voice.

"Please touch me!" I moaned and he slid one finger inside me. I groaned and he began to move slowly in and out of me. He lay down between my legs and I can feel his nose at my sex. I don't know what he is planning to do, but I know it's good. I feel something wet against my clit, and it flicked once, twice oh my God! His lips began to suck on my clit and his tongue bathed my sex as his finger pumped in and out of me. This is becoming almost overbearing. His mouth is doing heavenly things to me. I don't know if I can hold on much longer! A few moments later, I began to feel tingling down there. "Oh God, I am close!" I moaned and he went faster with his finger and mouth. I exploded, my legs straighten, I grabbed the sheets as I raised my hips and moaned loudly. Kane lapped the remaining of my juices and he crawled on top of me. He put his mouth on me and I can taste myself, salty and tangy. "I taste good. He sat up and pulled his jockey shorts off and his cock, hard and ready for me, sprung free. He tossed his underwear, joining the remaining of our clothes and he slid on top of me. "Ready baby? It will hurt for a moment or two." Kane said and I leaned up and kissed him as I wrapped my legs around his waist.

"Yes, love me Kane!" I said and he groaned and I can feel his tip at my entrance and he pushed in. He pushed in slowly and I can feel him rip through my barrier. I groaned in pain for a second and he kissed me as I relax from the pain.

"You okay baby?" He asked, very concerned. I smiled and pushed my hips up and he pushed inside me more. He is stretching me and I love the feeling of him inside me. I moaned and wrapped my arms around him and pulled him down and kissed him. He moved faster inside me and I moved with him. I bucked my hips when he pushes inside me and I threw my head back. This feels so amazing. He is making love to me, ME! Kane threw his head back and groaned as we went faster and faster, I know he is close to coming. "I am so close baby, you are way too tight!" Kane groaned and he pushed in once, twice, and I am gone. My whole body shook as my orgasm ran through my body, "Kane!" I breathed and he thrust once more and he grunted loudly. "Rose!" He breathed as he filled me with his come. He grabbed me and lay us on our side. We just looked into each others eyes, his grey's to my blue's. I smiled and leaned over and kissed him. "That was amazing," I whispered and he smiled as he gathered me in his arms.

"That was the best thing that happened to me, Rose. I never felt so good taking your virginity, knowing that you are mine," Kane said and he touched my forehead, pushing my hair out of my face. I smiled and lay against his chest, elated.

"Yes, I am yours and you are mine," I whispered and he ran his fingers up and down my back.

"I will always be yours, Rose." That is the last thing I heard before I went to an exhausted sleep.

*****

I lay her down on the pillows as she slept and I covered her up. Her blonde hair is spread and it looks very angelic. She groaned as she hugged the pillow. God, that has to be the best sex I ever had, no lie. I have taken one other woman's virginity, really girl, and that was my first time when I was sixteen. Taking Rose's is a milestone for me, a major milestone. It's the first step of me settling down with a woman, and Rose may be the one. I grabbed my pajama pants on the chair, not bothering putting my underwear on, and walked to the library. I turned on one tiny lap and grabbed the book I was working on, some romance novel Helga left behind. It's not overly raunchy, but it's got intense sex scenes.

I heard somebody open the door and a quiet, yet sexy voice, whisper in the dark. "Kane, you in here?" Rose asked and I closed my book and smiled at her.

Seduction by Desire

"Yeah, come in here," I said and she walked into the room and I smiled when I seen her wrapped in my work shirt and in her cute pink boy shorts panties. Her hair is in a mess, but it's just sexy. She sat down beside me and I wrapped my arms around her shoulders and planted a soft kiss on her temple. I need to know how she felt about tonight. Did she really like it? Was I too rough? I did push inside her hard at the end. "Are you okay? How are you feeling?" I asked her and I can feel her smile.

"A tad bit sore, but I think that is normal. It felt amazing, this night has been amazing," Rose said and I pulled back to see her smiling eyes.

"Really, what has been so amazing about it?"

"First, I began dating you, and then lost my virginity to you." I smiled when she said she loved the thought of dating me. I pulled her into my arms and just held her. She feels so good in my arms. So warm and soft. I yawned loudly and I looked down at her and she looks like she is about to go to sleep again. "Come on, let's go to bed, baby," I said and she nodded. We walked to my bedroom and I watched her take my shirt off and she went to bed in only her underwear. She is going to make this hard for me, but she needs to rest. God, she is just sexy and amazing!

I heard Helga come in around seven in the morning. Even though she is off till Monday, she comes in early Saturday mornings to cook food to last me till Monday. I cannot cook a lick! I looked down at Rose and she is still asleep. I want to surprise her with something. I grabbed my tee-shirt and tip-toed my way into the kitchen and Helga smiled at me and tried to say something, but I stopped her. I put my finger to my lips and went over to her. "Make some granola and I will grab the orange juice and yogurt," I whispered to her and she gave me a strange look. "I am giving Rose breakfast in bed." Helga first gave me a surprised look and then, a smile.

"Rose is a very sweet woman, I think you will go far with her," Helga said and I smiled back at her. Even my own housekeeper thinks she is a keeper. I know she is! She made the granola as I freshly squeezed some oranges since we we're out of juice. She put the granola on two plates and on a tray and I carried it to my bedroom. I heard movement in the bedroom and I opened the door. Rose is looking around and then at me. My heart began to soar when she smiled at me. "Kane, that is so romantic!" Rose said and I sat the tray down and gave her the plate of granola and yogurt.

"I think my girlfriend deserves breakfast in bed this morning," I said and leaned over and kissed her cheek. She grabbed a piece of granola and a scoop of yogurt and smiled as she ate it.

"I feel so special todayâ!" I heard her phone ring and she grabbed it. "Fuck, it's daddy!"

"Hey daddy!" I said and looked over at Kane, and he just started on his breakfast.

"Where are you? I tried calling your house phone, but nobody picked up," Daddy said and I began to think of everything I can think of as an excuse. He would die of a heart attack if he known I spent the night with Kane, which is my boyfriend now and I lost my virginity last night.

Seduction by Desire

"Um, Denise and I went clubbing last night to celebrate my first week. It was about two this morning when I got home, and I went straight to bed. Sorry if I freaked you out," I said and Kane is chuckling quietly.

"It's fine baby girl, glad you had fun last night!" "Oh yeah I had fun last night!" "Call me later on okay? I love you, Rose."

"I love you, too, daddy, bye." I got off the phone and blew out pent up air.

"Father avoided!" Kane mumbled then laughed.

"As I was saying, I feel so special!" Kane put his glass of orange juice on the tray and pulled me closer to him till I was practically on his lap.

"Because you are special, Rose Scott." He pushed his head down and gave me, finally, my morning kiss. His lips moved against mine and he tastes so good, like vanilla and Kane. Kane is a very unique taste that I never can get tired of. I cannot get enough of this man, and I will never have my fill of him!

Chapter 6: The Wonderful Saturday We Had

A/N: Sorry it took me so long to update. I've been SOOO busy with the Erotica Awards (Which I entered into everything but the supernatural category cause I DO NOT write that kind of stories). Also, my sinus are the death of me. I will be working nights for the next 3 days, so it will be the end of this week before I update again! Enjoy and you will find something out with Kane in this chapter!

Chapter 6

The Wonderful Saturday We Had

Kane decided to take me somewhere special. He said it was a surprise. I hate surprises! Also, he had to take us in his sports car, kind of fun and scary at the same time. If we wreck, we will be crumbled up like tin foil!

"C'mon Kane, tell me!" I whined and he laughed.

"You'll see when you get there, are you alright over there? You look scared shitless!" He said and I am gripping the seat.

"I never rode in a sports car, okay? I am just a bit nervous."

"Baby, it will be fine. This Masarati has state-of-the-art air bag system and its made with the strongest material, so we will be fine!" He reached over and grabbed my hand and squeezed it. I relaxed a little and he pulled into the boardwalk with the miniature amusement park. My mouth went agape and then I turned and smiled at him.

"This is my surprise?" I said and he nodded.

"I think it's a good way to spend the day with my girlfriend," He said and I smiled.

"Well, boyfriend, lead the way!" Kane grabbed my hand and we walked together down the boardwalk and I can smell the hot dogs on the grill, hamburgers grilling, and the cotton candy. Daddy use to take us here all the time in the summer. I can still remembering him carrying me over his shoulders and I tell him where to go. He would laugh and follow me. Mom would hold Brad's hand because he "is a big boy and doesn't need to be on mommy's shoulders."

"So, what first?" Kane asked and I touched my chin with my index finger and looked around. I seen the bumper cars and pointed at them. Kane laughed and we ran over and we got behind a group of kids from some school. They looked up at us and gave us questioning looks.

"You are too old to ride bumper cars!" one little girl said to me and I giggled. Kane got on his knees and got eye level with her.

Seduction by Desire

"We may be grown ups, but we still are kids inside. I am going to get her off the road," Kane said then looked behind me and winked.

"Oh, you're so on!" I said and the little girl smiled and went on her way with her friends. We got in and I ran over to a blue car and buckled myself in. Kane got in the car beside me and winked. "Better watch out, baby!" Kane said and I rolled my eyes then giggled.

"No, you better watch out!" Kane laughed and the cars began to move. I immediately turned and bumped into Kane and he jerked. I laughed and turned and began driving around, bumping to everybody and any body. The only thing I can hear is the kids laughing, and Kane laughing. I looked over and a little boy, probably seven years old, is chasing Kane. "Oh no, he's going to get me!" Kane said, pretending to be scared, and the little boy's gaped teeth is showing as he's smiling. The little boy bumped him and Kane fell against his steering wheel, groaning. "Oh, he got me! He got me!" Kane groaned and I laughed along with the boy. Kane rubbed the little boy's blonde hair and went around and he finally bumped me. "Gotcha baby!" Kane said and the cars stopped. We hopped out and the little boy went and hugged Kane. I thought Kane would freak out, but he hugged back. "You are fun! Come play with us!" The little boy said and two little girls came up, must be identical twins. "I am Tim, and this is my little sisters, Bridgett and Iva. They are twins!" Tim said and I looked behind him and a woman, must be their mother, is laughing.

"I would Tim, but I am here with my girlfriend. Maybe later on today we will come back here," Kane said and Tim groaned.

"Girlfriend, gross!" The woman yelled for them and the three kids ran to their mother and I smiled up at him. He is really good with kids! It just makes me feel very warm inside knowing that he is good with children. "Where to next?" Kane asked and I pointed out the Roundabout. We ran over and hopped on and I laughed the whole time and Kane is holding my hand. We got off and began to play the mini games. I threw darts to balloons and won some cheaply made toy. I shrugged and gave the toy to some random little girl and she thanked me.

"Ah, here is something!" Kane said and it's a miniature shooting range. My heart races every time I see any gun. I think about Mom and Daddy over twenty-one years ago with Uncle Blake. Daddy forbids guns, probably since that day. Kane paid the man and he began to shot. Kane is shooting all the targets and the bell rang when he won. "Congratulations sir, pick a prize!" The man said and Kane pointed out a HUGE teddy bear and then gave it to me.

"Now, don't give this away!" Kane said and I giggled and held it closer to me.

"I wouldn't dare. I will cuddle with him when I am not with you," I said and flashed my eyes at him. He chuckled and grabbed my hand and he took me to the food stand and ordered us a corn dogs and some fries. When we finished our food, I think Kane is ready to go home, but there is one more ride to get on. "Before we leave, we need to get on the Ferris Wheel," I said and he crossed his arms and shook his head then smiled salaciously.

Seduction by Desire

"Of course we need to ride it, come on!" He said and we ran over to the Ferris Wheel. We got in line and then finally got on. I put the teddy bear beside me and I sat very close to Kane. I am getting very fond of being near him. He wrapped his arm around my shoulder and we began to move. We made a complete circle once and we stopped at the very top. "Whoops," Kane said and my heart began to race. Did it break? I looked down and I seen a mechanic working on it. Kane pulled my face toward his and put his lips on mine. I moaned as he rubbed my lip with his tongue and slipped it inside. I wrapped my arms around his neck and I began to hear cat calls from in front and behind us. I ignored them and Kane apparently did too. The ride jerked and we pulled away. The ride moved and let the passengers off one by one. "I am taking you to La Flora, it's a very nice restaurant, tonight," Kane said and I smiled really big. I know it's a nice restaurant, mom and daddy goes there on their anniversary, which their twenty-first anniversary is in a week. We got back in the car and went on back to the loft to get ready. Kane must have planned this because there is a emerald green cocktail dress on the bed and I looked at the tag and it's the right size and matching shoes and jewelry.

Kane closed the door and walked over to me and kissed me, hard. I moaned as his hands went and cupped my breasts. I threw my head back and dropped my things on the floor and he pushed me onto the bed. "I need you too much, Rose, I need your pussy!" Kane whispered into my neck and I groaned. Fuck, he just made my pussy drip and I can feel myself against my thigh. Kane jerked his shirt off and I ran my hands up his defined abs. God, he's so muscular and fit and fucking hot! I took my shirt off then my bra as Kane pulled my jeans off. Kane jerked the rest of his clothes and his dick is very hot, hard and ready for me. He pushed me to the pillows and I wrapped my legs around his waist as he slid into me. I groaned and my eyes rolled into the back of my head. Kane began to move inside me fast and very hard, and he is grunting. God, this feels good. Making love feels good, and fucking hard feels good as well. I pulled him down, my breasts pressed against him and I already can feel myself about to come. He pushed inside me a few more times hard and I shook all over. "KANE!" I screamed as my orgasm erupted. I panted and my pussy squeezed around him and that is the end for him. Kane groaned and jerked. "Rose!" He moaned and he fell on top of me. God, that was fucking fantastic! Kane kissed my neck and rolled off of me and gathered me into his arms. This is bliss, having a man like Kane hold you in his arms after fantastic sex.

I watched Rose get ready and she messed with her hair for a second. She is just gorgeous. She is perfect! Why am I feeling like this? Every time I think about her not here with me, I feel his overwhelming sadness. Does this meanâoh God yes, it does mean I love her. Oh fuck, I do love her. "Kane, you okay?" Rose asked and I looked up at her and smiled. Who can NOT fall in love with her? That cute tiny voice, sexy smile, she is beautiful, genuine personalityâshe has everything.

"Yeah baby, I am okay. You ready now?" I asked her and she nodded. She hooked her arm through mine and we left for our date.

We entered the restaurant and I can hear the light classical music and the light laughter from the customers. "Welcome, table for two?" the matri de asked us.

"Yes, please and I want the Chardonnay to be delivered to our table," Kane said and the man nodded. As he took us to the table, I heard a very familiar laugh. "Brent, you're so silly!" Mrs. Scott laughed. My heart sank to the ground and I looked over at Rose. Her face is pale as a sheet.

Seduction by Desire

"What are we going to do?" Rose whispered. I looked up and shit, they seen us. "Rose?" Brent said and Rose bit her lip.

"Hi Daddy," Rose said and she walked over and hugged him. "Celebrating your anniversary?"

"Yes, and what are you doing here with Kane? You look fantastic! Matri de, they will sit with us." I just looked over at the poor man and I nodded to agree. Rose sat beside her father and I sat beside her. "Answer me, Rose!"

"It's a date Daddy, he called me this morning for a date," Rose said, lying to cover her from spending the night with me, and this weekend. I asked her to stay for the weekend, and she said yes. and I grabbed my wine and drank it down.

"You look fantastic, Rose and you look very handsome, Kane," Mrs. Scott said and I smile.

"Thank you, Mrs. Scott," I mumbled and she smiled. Rose got her smile from her mother because her smile makes you feel safe and loads better, even with her powerful husband two seats away from you.

"Please Kane, Call me Claire!" Claire was interrupted by Brent clearing his throat.

"What made you decide to ask my daughter on a date?" Brent said sipping on some red wine.

"Like I told you, I really care about Rose. I wanted to have a date over dinner with her for the past few days. I have never felt so excited when she accepted. I felt like dancing," Kane said and Brent laughed. Rose squeezed my hand and smiled at me.

"Daddy, please, I know how you feel about me dating. It's time for you to let me go out in the dating world, and I really like Kane. I might not have to!" Rose said and looked away. The table got quiet and I looked over at Brent and he is tapping the glass with his wedding band.

"Have you asked her to be your girlfriend?" Brent said, sounding surprised.

"Yes, and she said yes!"

"If I find out you hurt her in any way!"

"Brent, I care for Rose and I will take good care of her, trust me!" The waiter came and the four of us ordered and he left.

Seduction by Desire

"I will trust you, Kane. But, if I hear you hurt a single strand of hair on her head, or break her heart, I will find you and fucking kill you!"

"BRENT!" Claire said exasperated.

"Claire, this is our daughterâ" he reached over and grabbed her hands. I can tell they are madly in love still, even after twenty-one years of marriage. "I just don't want her hurt," Brent said and I understand where he is coming from.

"I will never lay a finger on her, Brent and I don't plan to break her heart. Trust me in that!" Rose leaned into me and I planted a kiss into her head and Claire smiled and finallyâ Brent smiled, sort of.

"She does look happy, but I'll be keeping my eye on you!" Brent said and I nodded. Whew, that went better than expected. I thought he might hurt me somehow, but he didn't. I can tell he is not enthused about his daughter dating me, or dating at all. She is twenty years old, it's high time for her to be with somebody, ME! Our food came and Claire talked with her daughter and Brent and I ate quietly. After we finished eating, we all walked out together. Brent has his wife wrapped around his arm and she is leaning against him. God, I love Rose that much. I looked down at Rose and I pulled her to my side and wrapped my arm around her waist and kissed her temple. "We should double date again, that was fun," Claire said and I nodded.

"It's up to Brent, is it okay?" I said and he nodded.

"Sure, next Saturday?" We all agreed and Rose went over to her father and hugged him. I can tell this woman really loves her father, probably closer to him than her own mother. She hugged her mother tightly and Claire planted a kiss on her head and we went our separate ways. I drove us home and kept thinking, how am I going to tell her I love her? I need to tell her tonight, or I will explode!

Chapter 7: Come Clean

A/N: Hey guys, sorry for taking so long to update. I am dealing with work and these awards. Remember to go to my link on my profile and vote for yours truly LOL. I am also gonna start a new story about a prostitute (did I spell that right lol) with problems of her own and its a romance story, I have character pics up, so check it out!!! Enjoy this chapter, this is almost over

Chapter 7

Come Clean

Sunday came around and Kane and myself stayed at his place. Helga left us with a lot of food to last us till tomorrow. I grabbed the already baked bacon and re heated as I got the chocolate chip pancakes ready to heat up. I can hear Kane getting ready for the day and I looked down and laughed. I am wearing his "Yale" tee-shirt and my underwear. My hair is a mess, didn't bother brushing it this morning, and I feel utterly comfortable. I have been doing a lot of thinking about myself and Kane. I know if I leave his side to go home tonight, I will be a mess. I don't wanna leave just yet. Does that mean? Oh my God! I love him! I ran my fingers through my hair and sat down for a second. I am in love with Kane Sheppard. He has acted kind of lovey dovey lately, maybe he loves me. Kane walked into the kitchen and I put his breakfast along with some orange juice and made my plate. "Ah, breakfast and my beautiful girlfriend making it," Kane said and I blushed.

"Thought we should start off good," I said and sat down beside him and ate with him. Why am I acting like this, I am acting all distracted, well, because I am. Kane stood up and grabbed my hands and stared at me. He looks nervous as hell. "Rose, I need to say something before I fucking explode!" Oh God, what is he going to tell me?

I swallowed my nerves down and looked into Rose's beautiful eyes. "Rose, I love you," I said and she just stared at me. A few moments later, I see a tear leave her eye. Is this a good thing. "I-I love you too, Kane," Rose whimpered and the tears began to flow from her eyes. I wanted to cry too, but I held them back. I leaned over and pulled her closer to me on my knees and I can feel my shirt get damp. She rubbed her face into my shirt and I didn't care. She is my love and I want her to use me as a shoulder to cry on. At least this is a good reason to cry. "Kane, I really do love you," Rose said and I grabbed her face and pulled her away from my shoulder. I wiped the tears away with my thumb and kissed her softly on the lips.

"I love you too, Rose," I said and she smiled. I kissed her harder than before and I can feel myself get harder by the second. She bit my bottom lip and I groaned and lifted her off her feet and carried her to the bedroom. I lay her down on the bed and took my tee-shirt off of her and then those sexy panties of hers. She is squirming, ready for me. I lightly touched her clit and she panted and pushed her hips up towards me. I slid my finger down and pushed one inside her tight pussy and she groaned. I love seeing her like this, panting and wanting me. I shoved another finger inside her and pressed my hand just below her belly button, wanting her to feel everything, make her come hard. I moved my fingers in and out and I can feel her tightening around my fingers and I lean over and graze my teeth across her nipple. "Kane, I am so close!" Rose groaned and one, two more shoves, she exploded. Her juices leaked onto my fingers and I pushed in a few more times and I can feel her orgasm subside. I pulled out and leaned forward and put my fingers into her sexy mouth. "Taste yourself baby," I moaned and she licked my fingers and she smiled.

Seduction by Desire

"Mmmm, I taste good. Take your clothes off," Rose said in that sexy seductive voice I love. I stood up and tore my shirt off and slid my sweats and underwear off, freeing my cock. Rose sat up and ran her index finger down my head and gathered my pre-cum and licked it off her finger. That has to be the sexiest site I ever seen. I leaned over her and pushed my cock inside that sweet pussy. I closed my eyes and absorbed the feeling of Rose's tight pussy. I began to fuck her, really fuck her. I grabbed her leg and put it over my shoulder and leaned down so we are nose to nose. Rose sighed and her eyes rolled to the back of her head. I pump in and out of her at a steady pace and I can feel her already quickening to finish. I pushed in harder and harder, making her cum faster. I can feel my balls tightening, ready for release as well. "Oh baby, I am so close," I moaned and she raised her hips up, meeting my movements. Rose grabbed the sheets and screamed my name and when she done that, that is the end of me. I emptied myself inside her and groaned until I felt all the cum leave me. I collapsed on top of her and wrapped her in my arms. I don't think I can ever let her leave my side. I looked down at her and kissed the tip of her nose and then smiled. "Move in with me?" I asked and she just smiled at me and kissed my cheek.

"Yes," She said and I smiled really big and we ended up taking a nap together.

I don't feel awful to all of the sudden to move in with Kane. I love him and he loves me. I know whenever I go home, I will be very lonesome, even with Denise there. Kane hired mover guys the moment we got up and an hour later, Denise calls me. "What are these men doing here taking your stuff? They said they we're hired by Kane and Rose," Denise said and I know she will be stunned to hear this.

"Wellâ I kind of moved in with him," I said and she gasped.

"Well, Brent is not going to be thrilled about this!"

"My parents lived with each other days after they met, so what is the fucking deal if I moved in with the man I love a week after we started dating?" I almost told Denise about daddy kidnapping mom, whew, that was a close one!

"Brent seems like he doesn't trust Kaneâ!"

"Because he is dating his daughter, Denise. Every father doesn't want their baby girl dating anybody, understand? Now, I will figure out a way to tell Daddy and mom, so I have to get off here." We said our good byes and Kane let the mover guys in and they even put my clothes up for me, in Kane's walk-in closet. Kane wrapped his arms around me and I smiled. This is where I want to be. In Kane's arms, in my new penthouse I share with him.

Nobody suspects a thing in the office the next day. Usually, Kane and myself comes in at the same time, so they don't know that we are dating AND in love AND living together. I sat down at my desk and began to print out everything Kane needed for the day and my phone rings, "Sheppard Holdings Inc. How can Iâ!"

Seduction by Desire

"You two better explain yourselves when I get up there. See you in ten minutes," Daddy said and hung up. My hands shook and I looked over at Kane and he is on the phone and he smirk changed into fear. I know he just talked to Daddy. I breathed in and walked into his office and my hands are shaking. I sat the papers down and then sat myself down. "What's wrong baby? Your father cannot do anything to us!" Kane said and I heard the elevator doors open and everybody saying hello to my father. Daddy pushed his way inside and Kane coolly passed him and shut the blinds so nobody can see us. "Denise told me everything, Rose, so spill it!" Daddy said through his teeth. Fucking Denise, what a friend she is!

"Yes Daddy, I moved in with him, what is that such a problem?" I said to him and he is shocked at my boldness.

"It's that also, but she said he is the man you love. You only dated him for a few daysâ!"

"Actually a week." Daddy sat himself down and ran his fingers through his slightly graying hair. For a man of Fifty years old, he sure looks good!

"Why do you hide these things from me, Rose? I thought we tell each other things, open up with each other?" Daddy said, sounding pretty hurt.

"Because you have done thisâ! went ape shit! Yes, I love him and I moved in with him. I made the decision and I am not turning my back on it!" Daddy nodded at me and then looked up at Kane, he gave him a very angry look.

"Did you sleep with my daughter, Kane? Did you fuck her then begged her to move in and proclaimed your love for her as you fucked her, huh?" Daddy asked and he stood up and I ran between them and put my hand on Daddy's chest.

"You have no right to say those things to him. You loved Mom for a year and it took kidnapping her and forcing her to live with you to tell her!" Daddy gave me a shocked look and I can hear Kane shift in his feet. Daddy relaxed and then sighed. "Kane right out told me he loves me, and he did not force me to do anything. Yes, we are having sex, but I wanted it too. I love Kane, daddy, and he loves me. I am a grown woman now, not no little girl that scrapped her knee when I fell on the bike."

"I know that baby girl, but I forgot you knew aboutâ! aboutâ!"

"Yes, and I also know about Uncle Blake too. He was a terrible man, raping mom and torturing you and her until you had to kill him. It's been twenty-one years, nobody is coming to hurt us!" Daddy sighed and sat down in the seat and looked over at Kane and then back at me.

"It will take me some time forâ!" Daddy said and Kane finally spoke up.

Seduction by Desire

"I understand Mr. Scott, and I really do love her. I am sorry for the mess you've been through, we all have messesâ!"

"Kane, you didn't kidnap and let your younger brother rape the woman you love like I did. I was a pansy then, I just let him do what he wanted until I had enough about two weeks later. We had to kill him, he found us here in San Diego when we escaped Seattle. He was going to do something to harm Claire and our babies," Daddy said and he looked at me.

"I'm sorry sir." Kane is being awfully polite now, I thought he might flip his lid when he found out the real deal how my parents met.

"Well, congratulations, I guess, on moving in, and call me when you get off, Rose, you need to explain this to your brother and your mother." Daddy kissed my cheek and shook Kane's hand and walked out the door. I cannot believe I just done that to my own father. I blurted out the Scott Family's darkest secret to Kane. I would have told him anyways, but not in front of my own father!

Chapter 8: This is MAJOR News!

*A/N: Hey guys, I will try and put another chapter into this one and Sweet Changes today since I work tomorrow. This story is almost finished, like 3 more chapters finished. A lot of things happened in this story didn't it? Well, this chapter will blow your socks off! Enjoy!***

Chapter 8

This is MAJOR News

Two months later

I'm just stared at the pregnancy test, three to be exact. "Oh fuck, oh fuck!" I kept saying. Somebody knocked on the bathroom door, and I knew it's Kane.

"Baby, is everything okay in there? You've been in there for a half hour!" Kane said and I ran my hands through my hair. I grabbed the other box and dumped three more pregnancy tests onto the countertop. Do I even have enough piss to do three more.

"Uh, not feeling too hot, Kane. Give me a few minutes," I said and as soon as I heard him leave the area, I grabbed a clean cup and peed in it. I dunked the three pregnancy tests and lined them up on the counter. I threw the first three away and stood there with my arms crossed. Five minutes later, all three of them had the word "pregnant" in the results window. That makes 6 positive pregnancy tests. I don't think I need to go to the health department to make #7. I slid down the counter and into the floor and began to cry. I heard the door opened and I looked up and Kane is staring down at me. "Baby, what's wrong?" Kane said and got on the floor with me. I pulled the three tests I recently took and the three I threw away. He grabbed them and looked at each one of them individually. "Y-you're pregnant?" He stuttered.

"Looks like it, if six pregnancy tests says I am, I think I am!" I said and wiped my nose on the back of my hand.

"I mean, I am happy that you are, butâwhat about you?" I just looked at him and then finally smiled. He was the one I worried about. I hoped that he would accept my pregnancy, and he is.

"I am happy, too," I said and leaned against him. We stayed quiet for a few moments and he kissed my forehead.

"What do we do now?" Kane finally spoke up.

"I guess make an appointment with an OB/GYN and get the due date and then, tell my parents. You need to tell your family too, Kane," I said and he looked away.

Seduction by Desire

"I have not spoken to Father since I left Yale. Why would he want to talk to me now?"

"Well, he is gonna be a grandfather, and he should know." I touched his stubbed cheek and leaned over and kissed him. "I love you, Kane, he should know." He nodded and kissed me back.

"I love you, too, baby, I guess I can call him."

*****

I haven't talked to my father, Oscar Sheppard, in almost ten years. I went to the office and Rose is behind me, and I found the number of my father's new place. My mother sent to me by email, hoping I will talk to him. I never felt so nervous in my life. "You can do it baby, while you do this, I will make the appointment," Rose said and kissed me before she left the room. I dialed the number and I heard his voice answer. "Sheppard residence?" Father answered and I sighed.

"Hello Father," I said and he gasped.

"Kane? Is that you?"

"Yes, it's me! So how are things up there?" I never felt so awkward in my life, other than trying to come up with a way to ask Rose on our first date.

"Fine son, just fine, so what is the pleasure of this call? I haven't heard your voice in over nine years."

"I have some news for you, and it will shock you." I closed my eyes and fought back the tears. I really miss my father, more than I expected. With talking to him and the excitement of becoming a father, I feel like exploding with tears.

"Well, spit it son!" Father said and I sighed.

"You are going to be a grandfather. My girlfriend, which I love more than life itself, found out she is pregnant this morning," I said and the other end went silent.

"Kane? Is everything okay?" Rose said and I didn't even hear the door open. I just nodded and waited on my father to speak again.

"Well, son, I am shocked that you decided to call me after this long to tell me this news. I am happy that I am going to be a grandfather and your mother will be very happy with the news. Are you planning to make a trip to Hartford soon?" I looked over at Rose and she is smiling at me.

Seduction by Desire

"Possibly, I would love for you to meet Rose," I said and I can hear my father smile.

"I am sure she is a delight to meet. I have to get off son, your mother has a meeting at the country club. I love you, son, sorry about not agreeing with your decision. I know you are highly successful and I am proud of you." That broke me right there, I longed for those words from him. I looked up and the tears came out of my eyes.

"I love you, too, Dad. I will call later on today," I said and got off the phone. Rose stood in front of me and wrapped her arms around me, holding me and letting me cry.

"I waited almost ten years to hear him say that. He is proud of me, I wanted to hear him say that," I said and she ran her fingers through my hair. I feel like an idiot for crying.

"Cry it out, Kane, it's okay. We all need a cry here and there," Rose said and we sat in the seat and she held me in her arms as I cried like a baby. When I finally calmed down, she wiped my tears off my cheeks with her thumbs and she has a serious expression.

"The appointment is in two hours and we got another thing to conquer," She said and I knew right then what that "thing" is, her father.

"We are suppose to go on a double date with your parents tonight, do you think we should tell them over dinner?" I asked her and she shrugged her shoulders.

"it's a fair field, he cannot do anything to us in a public place, so yeah, we will tell them there."

"Miss Scott, you are six weeks pregnant, so you are due in Late November," Dr. Ricardo said and we smiled. We get to come back in a month and hear the heartbeat, the baby is too little for us to hear his heart. "The baby is very good in size, perfect for his gestation age. Just maintain your weight gain and take your prenatal vitamins daily. Also, review the list of medications you can and cannot take. No large amounts of alcohol, lower your intake on sodas. Congratulations you two!" The male doctor smiled at us and Kane shook his hand. We are suppose to meet her parents in two hours, so we have all that time to plan.

On the way back to the loft, Rose sighed and then touched her stomach. She is glowing, like a pregnant mother should. "He will have your hair and eyes if it's a boy and my hair and eyes if it's a girl," I said and she laughed.

"I want the baby to look like you if it's a girl or a boy!" We both laughed and we walked into the loft and we sat around until it was time to go. When Rose went to the bathroom to put on some makeup, I reached for the drawer and pulled out a velvet box. I opened it and a engagement ring is in there. It was my grandmother's, mom gave it to me to hope someday I will give it to my future wife. Rose is my life, I want her to be my wife.

Seduction by Desire

I plan to propose to her in front of her parents right before we announce the pregnancy. "Kane, you ready to go?" Rose said as she walked out the bathroom and I put the ring box in my coat.

"Yeah, are you?" I asked her and she sighed.

"Ready as I can be. I know Mom will be happy for us. It's Daddy I am worried about," she said and I nodded.

"I don't think he will do much, probably freak out, but then be happy for us." I hope he will be happy for us, because I am this baby's father!

"Hey baby girl," Daddy said and I reached over and hugged him. He let go and gave me a weird look. "Kane's housekeeper must be feeding you good, you've gained some weight!"

"She is a good cook!" I said and Kane nodded. He just shook Kane's hand and Mom kissed both of our cheeks. We walked in and we all ordered something to drink, but I ordered some sparkling water.

"No red wine for you?" Daddy asked, giving me a questioning look.

"Not in the mood for wine tonight," I said and he nodded. The waiter came back and took our food orders and gave us our drinks and I looked up at Kane and he smiled and gave me a quick kiss.

"So, how are things with the two of you?" Mom asked and I smiled to myself.

"Great, I've never been happier," I said and Kane smiled really big. The violin players came over to us and surrounded us. Mom and Daddy grabbed each other hands and gave each other blissful looks. I hope someday Kane and I be like that someday. I heard a chair move and the whole room of talking got quiet. I looked beside me and Kane is on his knee. I looked over at Daddy and Mom and they both are staring at Kane.

"Rose Scott, I love you more than life itself. You're my very breath in my lungs, my heartbeat, my blood that runs in my veins. Rose, will you do the honor?" He reached into his jacket pocket and pulled out a beautiful antique diamond ring. I covered my mouth and tears flow out of my eyes. "To be my wife? Rose, will you marry me?" The room got quiet and my parents are stunned right now. I cried and I nodded my head.

"Yes!" I squeaked out and the room roared with cheer. I threw myself on top of him and kissed him. "I love you so much!" I said and he kissed me back. I can feel dampness against my cheek that came from him. He is crying too!

Seduction by Desire

"I love you, too, Rose, so much!" He said and we finally got back to our seats and then we looked at our parents. Mom is wiping her eyes because she cried and Daddy is sitting with his arms crossed. Is he happy or mad, I don't know.

"Oh, that was so romantic!" Mom said and hiccupped a cry. "I am so happy for you, Rose!" I smiled then Daddy finally grew a small smile.

"I never seen you so happy, Rosie. I am happy for the two of you as well," Daddy said and I smiled and leaned across the table and hugged my parents at the same time. When I let go, Kane cleared his throat and then, I had to tell them.

"Well, we got more news for youâ!" I grabbed Kane's hand and I sighed. "You two are going to be grandparents!" I said and Daddy spit his wine out of his mouth and he looksâ 'angry?"

"What did you just say?" Daddy said through his teeth and my heart squeezed and Kane squeezed my hand.

"I am six weeks pregnant," I said and Daddy's angry gaze went straight to Kane.

"WHAT THE FUCK DID YOU DO, KANE?" The next thing I seen was Daddy diving on top of the table and went straight for Kane.

"KANE!" I screamed as I watched my fiancÃ©e gets tackled by my own father.

"BRENT!" Mom wailed as her husband took a dive at her future son-in-law.

Chapter 9: Deal with It!

A/N: Hey Guys! Two more chapters after this one and then I will concentrate on "Sweet Changes" If you haven't read that yet, go read it! It's gonna be a VERY hot story! Thanks for reading! Enjoy cause this chapter as A LOT of things happening in it!

Chapter 9

Deal With It!

"YOU SON OF A BITCH!" Brent said as he punched me across the jaw. I can hear all the gasps in the room and I can hear Rose crying. Claire is screaming for her husband to stop, but Brent won't. I covered my face, to prevent anymore damage. I can taste blood in my mouth and Brent finally got pulled off of me. "You two, get out of here if you want to fight!" The owner of the restaurant said and Brent grabbed my lapels and dragged me out, and Rose and Claire is screaming at Brent.

"BRENT SCOTT, STOP THIS!" Claire screamed.

"PLEASE DADDY, DON'T DO THIS!" Rose screamed with tears in her eyes. Once we made it outside, Brent punched me in the stomach. I cried out in pain and got on my knees and cradled my stomach. Rose went to my side and held me in her arms. "Kane, oh Kane!" Rose cried out and she looked up at her father.

"What the fuck was that about, Daddy?" Rose said and Brent took a step back and looked at his daughter.

"He asked you to marry you because you got pregnant, that's why. He is no gentleman my daughter should be with!" Brent said and I felt more pain now with those words then when he punched me. I am not a gentleman to him? Did he kidnap his wife and let his brother rape her?

"As I remember from the conversation with Rose and yourself, you kidnapped Claire!" I stood up and Rose touched my stomach and I gently pushed her away and walked over to be face to face with Brent. "You loved Claire to the point of kidnapping her. You let that psychotic brother of yours rape her," I said and Brent clenched his teeth together.

"Don't you dare bring that up!" Brent said and I kept going.

"Then you said I am not a gentleman because I asked your daughter her hand and marriage after we found out she is having your grandchild? I love you daughter than life itself, that's why I asked her to marry me, baby or no baby! Brent, you are not the gentleman, no man would kidnap a woman just because he was too scared to ask her out in the first place!" The area got quiet. Claire held herself in her arms and Rose sniffed, her crying spell ending.

I think I probably pissed Brent off more. He took a dive at me and held me down by my shoulders.

"How dare you bring that up! I knew I was too scared to ask Claire out, and I am a fucking idiot to kidnap her. That is in our past, Blake has been dead for twenty-one years!" Brent said and punched me and I can feel one of my teeth come loose. I spit the tooth out and Brent threw his hand up, but I seen a graceful hand hold him back.

"Brent, if you lay one more hand on Kane, I am going to my mothers!" Claire said and Brent relaxed immediately. He looked up at his wife and she has tears in her eyes. "How could you hit him just because our daughter is pregnant! I am happy that our daughter has the man she loves and she is pregnant with our first grandchild. You!" she let go of him and then threw her hands in the air and then ran her fingers through her hair. Rose grabbed me and pulled me to her.

"I don't know what to say Brent! Let's go home! Kane, go home and take a hot bath, get the soreness out. Call us tomorrow, Rose, after all of us cool off!" She glanced over at her husband and stormed off to their car.

Rose helped me to my feet and she drove us back to our loft.

Brent's POV

My wife is very quiet on the way home. This is the first time I ever pissed her off. The twenty-one years we been together, I never made her mad once, not counting the few weeks after I kidnapped her. "Baby?" I said and she shifted in her seat, now looking at the window. "Baby, I know I over reacted!" She laughed and then finally looked at me with those beautiful blue eyes I fell in love with.

Seduction by Desire

"Over reacted? That is more than over reacting! Brent, you never approved of their relationship, Rose is twenty years old, let her go!" Claire said and I sighed. Rose is my baby girl, I still remember holding her after she was born. I remember her and Brad dancing to my guitar music. I remember taking her and Brad to their first day of kindergarten. Rose went to me instead of her mom and Brad went to Claire. She cried and cried, didn't want to go in. I think I cried more than she did. I remember getting her first car, when she graduated from high school. I remember her starting her menses, she came to me! I still don't understand why, but she wanted to tell me first and she was hurting real bad. She lay across my lap and I held her in my arms. I know she is twenty years old, she is a beautiful woman, a splitting image of her mother. I do need to let go. "I need to, Claire, butâ " !"

"She had a wonderful childhood, both our kids did. Brad wants to move out, but you won't let him. Rose moved out and you about flipped your lid. Let our kids go, LET THEM GO! Call Kane tomorrow, apologize to him. You really hurt him tonight, and Rose," Claire said and she put her hand on mine.

"I will call them tomorrow, I cannot believe we are going to be grandparents," I said and I finally smiled. The thought is warming up in my mind, a grandfather!

Kane seemed more sore this morning than last night. We took a bath together when he got home and I washed his face and his lip has already swelled. He has a black eye this morning and I hugged him. "I am so sorry about Daddy," I said and he held me in his arms and rocked me.

"I am glad Claire finally got fed up, maybe she talked some sense into him," He said and the phone rang. I reached over and it's Daddy.

"Hey," I said plainly. I am still pissed at him for hurting Kane.

"Rosie, I am sorry about last night, how is Kane?" Daddy said and I sighed.

"Thanks to you, he is missing a tooth, has a swollen lip, his stomach is sore and he has a black eye!"

"Jeez, I am sorry baby girl. It just came to a surprise and the first thing that came in mind was he asked you to marry him just because of the baby."

"We are in love, Daddy. This baby is proof of our love! Want to talk to Kane?" Kane sighed and Daddy agreed and I gave the phone to Kane.

I held the phone to my ear and I heard Brent sigh. What did Claire do to make him has this change of heart?

"Kane, listen, last night, I kind of over reacted," Brent said and I laughed.

"Over reacted a bit! I understand that you really care about your daughter, I love her. You don't understand how much I love her. I would never do such a thing!" I said and Brent sighed again.

"I am sorry, the thought of this baby is finally sinking in and I never felt so happy. I felt this happy right after Claire told me about her being pregnant." I smiled because he is finally happy about this pregnancy. "Listen, Claire wants the wedding to be at our beach house where we raised our kids. Got a lot of acreage and a beach. Does that sound nice?" He is talking weddings to me? I leaned over and asked Rose and she smiled really big and nodded.

"Yeah that sounds good," I said and Brent and I talked for a little while. Amazingly, Brent is a cool guy with good intentions. I understand why he attacked me and I forgive him. If that was my daughter, I would think the same thing. I look down at Rose's stomach and thought, well, that can be my daughter in there.

Six Weeks Later

"You may now kiss the bride!" Minister Geigen said and I smiled down at my wife. She is already showing a little and I leaned over and gave my wife a kiss. The crowd cheered and Rose and I looked over and Brent and Claire is smiling at us and Claire is wiping the tears from her eyes.. Brad, my now brother-in-law, is giving me a thumbs up. My father and mother made it and they are smiling at us as well.

"I am proud to announce Mr and Mrs. Kane Theodore Sheppard!" The minister said and we ran down the aisle, hand and hand and the doors we're shut behind us. I looked down at Rose and she is smiling at me and I leaned down and kissed her. God, I love this day, I am now married to the love of my life. It was really her parent's idea for us to go ahead and get married soon. Glad we did, because I couldn't have waited long. "So,

Seduction by Desire

Mr. Sheppard, I think we need to head to the reception to see our families," Rose said and I wrapped my arms around her and pulled her closer.

"Mrs. Sheppard, I think that is a good idea, or our honeymoon will start here and now," I said and she blushed. Even after almost five months of being together, she still blushes. It's just adorable! She looks beautiful in her simple gown that is floor length and lace is covering her chest. It is tied by ribbons on her back, and I cannot wait to take that dress off. We finally ran down to the reception tent in her parents backyard and everybody cheered when we entered. My mother, Gladys Sheppard, came up and kissed Rose's cheek. "Welcome to the family, Rose. I am so proud to call you my daughter-in-law," She said I smiled as Rose hugged my mother and then my father.

"You look so beautiful and Kane, I never seen a man so happy when he seen his bride walk down that aisle," He said and Brent and Claire came up and hugged us both. "Rose Anne Sheppard, it does got a ring to it," Claire said and she giggled. It does got a nice sound to it, Rose Sheppard.

"So, when are y'all leaving for Tahiti?" Brent said, always so serious. We are finally getting along after that tussle in the restaurant six weeks ago. He has been so busy planning this wedding and building a nursery in their new house for the baby that he barely wanted to argue with me.

"Our plane leaves in two hours," I said and Rose grabbed my arm and gave it a reassuring squeeze. I think she is excited about our honeymoon.

*****

The reception went well. We cut the cake, ate the food and we done our first dance. When I looked into Kane's eyes, no body existed in my world. It was just me and him and our baby. When it's time for us to go, we said our goodbyes to our parents and ran to the limo. When we got alone, Kane wrapped his arms around me and kissed me. He slid his tongue into my mouth and I moaned at the taste of him. I wrapped my arms around his neck and pulled him closer. He let go and he smiled. "Cannot wait to get you out of that dress," Kane said in his deep, husky voice. I bit my lip and the limo stopped. I looked out and I gasped. The airplane has Kane's company logo on the side and people are standing, waiting on us.

"I decided that we should take my private plane to Tahiti," Kane said and I jumped into his arms and he laughed. We got out of the limo and he lifted me into his arms and he carried me inside the plane. He sat me down and the stewardess gave Kane a glass of scotch and me some sparking water. Kane must have told her about me being pregnant. "Enjoy you flight and congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard!" She said and I smiled. I am no longer a Scott, I am a Sheppard. Kane's wife. We finished our drinks and we buckled in and the plane took off. I never flew a plane and I am scared shitless. I grabbed Kane's hand and he held it as we climbed into the evening sky. When the plane got flat, Kane grew this smile that make my heart race. He pulled me to my feet and lead me to the door, which lead to the bedroom. I gasped when I knew what is about to happen. "I want our wedding night to be at thirty thousand feet," Kane said and he took his tie off. I just stood there and watched my husband strip out of his shirt and he unbuckled his belt and then his pants, but didn't take his pants off. He reached behind me and untie the ribbon ties and I felt the dress go loose. The dress fell down to the ground and Kane groaned. Mom bought me my wedding underwear from Victoria's Secret. I am wearing a all white corset bra and matching thong and garter set. "Do you like?" I said in my seductive voice. He swallowed and nodded. I stunned him speechless! "Do you want to take them off?" he just nodded and reached behind me and unhooked my corset and it fell right beside my dress. I lifted my leg up and Kane's hands went up my leg and pulled down my garter and his fingers left nerve signals all over my body. After the garter got disposed, my underwear was taken off. I kicked my shoes off and I laid on the bed, legs spread. Kane took his pants off and crawled on top of me.

"I waited all day for you, Rose. I need you right now!" He said as he leaned against me and pushed his cock inside me and I groaned. I love being pregnant because sex feels MUCH better! "Oh God!" I groaned as he reached the top of my sanity and pulled out slowly. "Fuck me hard!"

"With pleasure baby," Kane moaned and he fucked me hard. Every time he hit my special spot, it brought me closer to oblivion. A few thrusts later, "I'm COMING!" I screamed and I felt my pussy tighten around him and he didn't come much longer after me. "Rose!" He breathed and he fell on top of me. I ran my fingers up and down his spine and I smiled. I am already enjoying this marriage and we haven't been married two hours!

Chapter 10: Baby Time!

*A/N: I will have the last chapter up tonight! This is a very beautiful chapter and sort of HOT! Well enjoy!***

Chapter 10

Baby Time!

Eight Months Later

"Daddy, I ain't China for Christ's sake!" I said and Daddy helped me onto my feet. I am due to have my daughter, Raine Juliana, any day now and Daddy practically moved in with us. Kane bought the beach house I was raised in from Daddy because the loft is not a family house.

"Well, you are about to pop! Kane is at work and someone needs to be here in case your water breaks!" Daddy said and I stomped my foot and screamed.

"I can take care of myself!" I yelled and Daddy laughed. He knows I don't mean to be rude, it's the hormones. Kane came in and I smiled. "Daddy, you can leave now!"

"Nuh uh!"

"Please! Can I have some alone time with my husband?" Daddy winked at me and grabbed his light jacket.

"Of course baby girl, but please call ifâ " "

"I highly doubt I will break my water soon, Daddy. I feel fine! I love you!" I went over and hugged as best as I can with my full blown pregnant belly.

"I love you, too, darling, bye now." When he finally left, I sat back on the couch, by accident. I didn't mean to! Fuck, I cannot get up!

"Now, why did you do that, baby?" Kane said and I grimaced at him.

"Shut up and help me up!" I snapped and Kane laughed. He also knows I don't mean no harm. Kane has been so good to me through these nine months. He went to every appointment, asked all the questions we want answered, and built the nursery. Kane grabbed my hand and pulled me back onto my feet and I collided with him and we laughed. Kane's hands went to my breasts and he cocked an eyebrow. He squeezed them and I threw my head back and moaned.

"Is it okayâ " Kane said and I touched his lips.

"It's fine, just fuck me!" I attacked his lips and I jumped on him, wrapped my legs around him and he carried us to our bedroom. He sat me down and he took his work clothes off pretty quickly. I took my sweats and tee-shirt off, and I am commando. I find it useless if I have to put underwear on now since I am so close to delivery.

"No underwear?" Kane asked and I nodded and I can feel the tip of his fingers brushing up against me. I gasped and your index finger began to play with my clit. I panted and grabbed the sheets and I already can feel myself about to cum. Kane let go and I whined. "I want you to cum on my cock, baby," Kane said and I got on my knees and got face to face with his bulging cock. I looked up at his smiling expression and I licked the tip of his cock then I went all the way down to the end. I taugt myself to take it all in, Kane loves it when I deep throat him. I moved my head and slowly pulled away, Kane groaning and running his fingers through my hair. I repeated the process a few times, until Kane cannot take it anymore.

"I need inside you, now," Kane said and I got on my side, yes, its quite uncomfortable to fuck missionary when you are nine months pregnant. Kane grabbed my leg and pulled it up and around him and he pushed his cock inside me. I groaned and cried out in pleasure. He moved fast and hard and since we both almost came before the sex, it didn't take us long. "Kane, oh Kane!" I cried out and my whole body shook and my pussy squeezed and pulled inside me more and he shoved hard inside me three more times and I can feel himself fill me up. "ROSE!" He moaned and he wrapped his arms around me and on my stomach. Raine is moving a little, I think she already knows mommy and daddy has sex a lot because the first time she moved was during sex!

"I cannot wait to meet her," Kane said into my neck. I laced my fingers through his where we are both touching our daughter.

"Same here baby, same here. I love you, Kane."

Seduction by Desire

"I love you too, baby."

*****

Rose acted sort of strange the next morning. She held her stomach and grunted when she came into the kitchen. "Baby, you feeling okay?" I asked her as I finished our breakfast and she shook her head.

"It hurts," she mumbled as she sat down in the seat. Oh fuck, is this it?

"Want me to call the doctor?" I asked and I ran to my Blackberry and dialed the doctor. "Yes, this is Kane Sheppard calling. My wife, Rose Sheppard, said she is hurting," I said and the doctor yawned. Did I seriously wake him up?

"She is forty weeks, how far apart is the pains?" Dr. Sain asked me. I covered the mouth piece and asked her.

"Every twenty minutes now, it was longer a few hours ago," Rose said and I told the doctor.

"Get her to UCSD hospital now. She is in labor. I will have the admission done by the time you get there." I got off the phone and ran and grabbed our already packed to-go bag. Rose needed help putting on her shoes and we went to the car. I dialed Brent's number and told him about her being in labor. "Claire and I will be there as soon as possible!" Brent said and got off the phone. I called Denise for Rose and she said she will be there after she gets off work. Then, I dialed my parents.

"Your father is calling the airline right now. We will be down there as soon as we can. I hope I get to see my granddaughter to come out!" Mom said and I smiled.

"I do too, but if you can't, her parents will be there taking pictures," I said and mom sounded thrilled.

We finally made it and Brent ran out of the hospital with a wheelchair and Rose is in a middle of another contraction.

"ARRRRRRGH!" Rose yelled in pain. She grabbed mine and her father's hand and Claire is rubbing her cheeks, helping her through the pain.

"In through your nose, out through your mouthâ it will be over soon!" Claire cooed at her and Rose done just that and tears began to build in her eyes.

"This hurts so bad!" Rose cried and I leaned down and kissed her and touched her cheek.

"You're strong and you know it. I love you so much baby," I said and she smiled.

"I love you, too, Kane." We finally wheeled her in and the receptionist told us what room we are going. We went up to the forth floor, the labor and delivery floor. When we passed the window, I peeked in. I see two cute babies moving around and crying. Raine will be in there soon. Dr. Sain is already in her room and they put the monitor on her belly and I can hear Raine's heart beat.

"We need to make sure she is not in any trouble during contractions, okay?" Dr. Sain said and we nodded.

Trouble? What can happen? I am freaking out right now. I began to pace around the room, breathing fast and running my fingers through my hair.

"Kane, calm down! It will be fine!" Brent said and he helped me sit down and he gave me the rest of his soda.

"Brent, you we're the same way when I was in labor. You actually passed out because you freaked so much," Claire said and she rubbed her daughter's shoulders. The doctor came back about a half hour later and he checked how far along she is. I ran to Rose's side and I can tell how uncomfortable she is. "She is five centimeters, she can get a epidural if she wants it," Dr. Sain said and Rose nodded fast.

"PLEASE! Bring it in!" Rose said through her teeth and he called the anesthesiologist. About fifteen minutes later, a man that looks like he just came out of med school came and administered her epidural. During the procedure, I sat in front of her, kissing her.

"You're doing so good, baby!" I kept saying to her. She finally got relief and I can see her eyes getting heavy. She must have been in pain for a while. "How long have you been in pain, Rose?" I asked her and she turned away.

"Since three this morning. I didn't want to wake you up," Rose said and I shook my head.

"Baby, I need to know these things. I wouldn't care for you to wake me up." Brent laughed and we both looked at him.

"She is a Scott alright! Claire done the same thing! She was in labor six hours before I even knew she was hurting!" Brent said and Rose finally smiled.

"Us Scott women don't wanna worry our husbands!" Rose said and Claire agreed. Rose finally fell asleep and the three of us went to the cafeteria and got some lunch. We talked about the baby and about the nurseries we built. Brent built one at their place so whenever we let Raine stay the night with their grandma and grandpa, she has her own nursery. I have a feeling that this labor will last for a few hours.

Seduction by Desire

"She is ten centimeters now, she is ready to push!" Dr. Sain said and her labor lasted for six hours. Denise is on her way over and my parents just touched down at the airport. The nurse prepped Rose and her legs are in stirrups and they prepped her birth canal, ready for Raine to come out. Claire and Brent was on one side and I am on the other side. "PUSH!" The doctor yelled and the nurse began to count as she pushed. I stared at my wife, her face is blood red from pushing. She relaxed and the doctor smiled through his mask. "This baby wants out! She is already crowning!" he said and I looked down and I can see light brown hair, just like me! I can feel the tears building in my eyes and Rose pushed again. After that push, my daughter is half way out. It's so amazing, the birthing process is amazing and beautiful! Brent is watching too because he never seen a vaginal delivery. Brad and Rose was delivered via C-section. "Shit, that looks wild, but I feel so weird looking at my daughter's vagina!" Brent said and Rose laughed, or cried.

"Daddy, you seen me naked, I am your daughter!" Rose cried out and she pushed again. I counted with the nurse and then Raine Juliana is born. She wailed loudly and Brent took a lot of pictures. They put her on Rose's chest and she touched her light brown hair and she cried.

"She has your hair!" Rose said and I kissed her forehead.

"I love you, baby," I said and she smiled.

"I love you, too."

"Kane, cut your daughter's cord," the nurse said and I got to cut the cord and the nurse carried her over and I followed her. She weighed her at seven pounds and two ounces, nineteen inches in length. She wrapped her up and Raine finally opened her eyes. She has my grey eyes and she looked straight at me. My heart soared as my daughter looked at me with such amazement. "Hey Raine, I'm daddy!" I said and I leaned down and grabbed her. She feels like nothing in my arms and she cooed finally and I smiled. I carried her over to Brent and Claire and I gave her to Brent. "She looks like Rose right after she was born," Brent said and then looked at me. "Except she has your eyes and hair." Brent gave Raine to Rose and we all watched her inspect her daughter from head to toe. She giggled and touched a spot on her arm. "She has a birthmark," She said and I looked and it's a cute heart shaped birthmark underneath her left forearm.

"How cute! She is so beautiful!" I said and we all stood around and adored Raine Juliana Sheppard. This is such a blissful day!

Chapter 11: Epilogue--Beach Bums

A/N: Hey Guys, I made this epi short and sweet. I loved this story so much! I will keep going on "Sweet Changes" and MAY began another action story cause you know me, I get ideas ALL THE TIME! I may began and write it along with Sweet Changes, or actually write it by itself when I finished with it. I need to stop watching movies! Enjoy and thanks for reading this guys!

Epilogue

Beach Bums

Two years later

"Mama, seal!" Raine, my two year old, yelled and pointed at a baby seal on the shoreline. Kane is holding our four month old son, Teddy (or Theodore, after Kane's middle name), and let him kick the sand.

"I see that baby, get over here so I can put this cream on you!" I said and she ran over here, her beautiful light wavy brunette hair, flowing in the wind. Her glowing grey eyes, just like her father, is excited to go to the beach this morning.

"Teddy wants to come too, daddy!" Raine said as I put the sunscreen on her skin and Kane shook his head.

"Teddy cannot come and play, he is too small!" Kane said and she pouted.

"Do what you did last time!" Kane nodded, understanding what Raine wanted. He lifted Teddy, which has my blonde hair but Kane's grey eyes, then helped me on my feet. I am not pregnant, I had my tubes tied, I just lazy! We all walked over to the shoreline and Raine immediately ran in. I see a swimmer in her. Kane kneeled down and I kneeled with him and Teddy immediately kicked the water and laughed in delight.

"Told ya he wants to!" Raine said and I laughed. Raine lifted some ocean water and threw it above her head and laughed as it landed on her.

Daddy and mom loves the babies. They are spoiling them to the point of driving me crazy. Dette and Fritz finally came back over to the states and shocked to see what is going on with the family. They love Kane, and Christoph is engaged to be married. Grandma Opeth loves Kane and adores her great-grandchildren. She is still in shock that she has great-grandchildren, but she loves them. For Kane's parents, of course they love them, but they wants us to fly them to Connecticut to see them, they don't want to fly to California. I am not flying my babies across the states to see them! They are way too young.

"Okay babies, time to go back inside!" I said and Raine ran back to the sand and grabbed her towel and clothes. All four of us walked in and I watched Kane hold our son and Teddy is already asleep. Raine is tired too because she yawned when we got to the house and went immediately to her room. Kane carried Teddy to his crib and wrapped him up tight and tiptoed out of the nursery. We went to the living room and he sat down beside me and wrapped his arm around my shoulder. "Ah, quiet time!" Kane said and his lips went to mine. I moaned as his tongue tickled my lips and I opened up and his tongue dominated my mouth. He pushed me down onto the couch and he pulled down my shorts and his finger ran up and down my wet sex. "You know we have to be quick cause of the kids," Kane said and I nodded. He pushed down his shorts and his underwear and then my thong disappeared and he slid inside me. I groaned loudly and he began to move quick and hard. We have sex often, but half of the time its like this, quick. He is hitting my sweet spot every time and it feels way too good. I can feel myself getting closer and closer. "Oh Kane!" I moaned and my pussy squeezed him as I cum all over him and he came right after I started. He grunted then fell on top of me. Before either of us could move, the door bell chimed and we moved quickly. He was all fixed up and ready before me and he answered the door. "Brad, Denise!" Kane said and I smiled. Brad, I never seen this coming, asked Denise out on a date a year ago, now they are engaged to be married and Denise is four months pregnant with his child.

"Hey guys!" I said as I hugged my brother first then Denise. Denise finally warmed up to the idea of Kane and I being together and apologized for telling on me to dad that day I moved out.

"Hey, where is Raine and Teddy?" Brad said and he smiled really big. He loves his niece and nephew a lot. He is going to be a great father!

"Napping, want to come in?" Kane said and they nodded and Denise put her hand on her baby bump and I smiled. At first, I hated getting big and round, then I loved it. I think I look beautiful pregnant and Denise does too.

"We get to find out if this baby is going to be a Brandon Michael. or Bridgett Nadine," Denise said and I giggled. How come the men in our family names began with a B? First, there is Brent and Blake, then Bradley, now Brandon!

"The B's are taking over the world!" I said and we all laughed. I looked over at Kane and he is smiling down at me. I love this man so much, I think I even love him more. He is a fantastic father, a wonderful husband, and he loves me!

"I love you baby," Kane said and I pushed my face up to his and then smiled on his lips.

"I love you too, Kane," I said and we kissed. This has to be the happiest life ANYBODY can have!
