Night Of Ecstasy

Feel my lips upon your shoulder as my arms hold you close my chest pressed against your back.
The sweet taste of your skin intoxicated me so as the soft and gentle breeze of your breath as my fingers explores your sultry curves feeling your body shiver in ecstasy under the touch of my fingertips.
We continue to move through the motions of our love as we lay here in this candle lit room lying you down on a bed of silk lips caressing lips as your body opens like a flower to me inviting me into your heart as we share this night of sweet ecstasy.
