Quenching my thirst

She watched with baited breath
As he stroked himself before her
His hand moved slow from base to tip
Making himself hard for her
Swollen head and fully erect
He released it from his grip
She dropped to her knees before him
And brushed it with her lips
Her hand now wrapped around him
Moving slowly she felt him quiver
Then taking him deep in her mouth
She made his whole world shiver
Letting him thrust a little inside her
She used her teeth to regain control
Setting the pace she wanted
Before letting him reach his goal
She sucked his aching love muscle
Made love to it taking her time
Wanting to taste his love juice
As his passion began to climb
Feeling his shaft swell even more
She opened her warm mouth wide
Her hand gripped him tightly
Quenching my thirst

Quenching my thirst

As she let him cum inside

Quenching my thirst

Quenching my thirst
