Desperate Seduction Part II

My hands explored her tummy and slowly grabbed her boobs over bra, Softy soft like sponge. I was astonished how smooth and soft they felt. she was moaning. She is not a busty girl. She had firm boobs. I cupped them firmly in my arms fondled them. She drew me to her face. I withdrew from her, opened the fridge and took an ice cube. I pulled her shorts down and put the ice cube near her pussy and pressed the ice cube over her jeans onto her pussy. That aroused her very much. She started to kiss me passionately. I started to squeeze her tits with my left hand, while my right hand was still pressing the ice cube on her pussy. She was smooching me ferociously. We were tongue kissing for a while.

She kissed my upper and lower lips and I did the same to her. Our mouths exchanged each other's saliva. She stopped when the ice got melted. Half of our faces were covered by each other's saliva. We laughed looking at that. Then she was totally wet down. Her pink underwear was wet with water. I touched it and it was quite slippery, which means it was wet with her juices too. I took off her sexy top. Her pink bra was not in proper position since I had squeezed her so much. I took it off and she removed her underwear too. Now she was totally nude. I was staring at her private parts.

Then she took a banana and she pulled my dick out. She held both in either hands and smiled at me. She ate the banana once and bit my dick once. Naughty girl! It was time for me to take off my clothes. I made her lie on the dining table and grabbed some already cut pieces of apple. Pinky held her legs straight so that the apple pieces contained amidst her legs near her pussy. I ate the apple pieces touching her pussy with my tongue each time I went for a bite. I licked her belly area and then bit her belly. She pulled me onto her over the dining table. Again a long sexy wild passionate kissing session was steaming up. Our hands ran all over our fruity bodies. The kiss was much tastier this time with lot of fruits. By this time, we had licked each and every corner of each other's body. We stood up, hugged tight and kissed and moved to her bedroom kissing each other's body.
