Desperate Seduction Part IV

After the incident that happened between me and pinky, she became very close to me. She used to visit my home a lot. We used to kiss and hug each other whenever we got chance. One day when I returned from college, its pinky at my home talking with my mom. She is in her rose color dress and looking very sexy. I said hello to her and joined them in their talks. My mom went to kitchen to prepare some juice and snacks for us. Pinky also stood up from chair to accompany my mother. Suddenly, I pulled her behind kitchen and hugged her. I held her against the wall cupped her breasts on her dress and started pressing with one hand. I guided my other hand to her pussy and inserted a finger into her love hole. She screamed at once. I kissed her mouth to stop her screaming. My mom would have heard her scream and we heard her footsteps towards hall. I ran to my bedroom and pinky adjusted herself. She said that she saw some cockroach and screamed. My mother again left to kitchen to do her work.

Then she came to my room and gave a long deep kiss to me and saidâ Iâ m going shopping tomorrow. Do u wish to join me?. â â I am busy tomorrow, but I may join you, if you were going to bring your friendsâ

â No darling. â

â Sorry I canâ t comeâ

â Itâ s Ok. â she opened door to leave my room. I grabbed her back and gave her one long kiss as a good bye.

I went to shopping mall directly from my college. I wanted to give her a surprise. After waiting half an hour waiting, she was at mall. But she is not alone. She brought along her cousin sister Jazzlene. Jazzlene is as hot as Pinky is. I got stunned in my first look itself with her beauty. Pinky and Jazzlene though both are cousins, they look alike right from face to structure. I was ogling at Jazzlene all the time. Pinky didnâ t notice me. After selecting few dresses, they headed to trailer rooms. I pulled Pinky suddenly into an empty trail room and closed her mouth for she canâ t shout.

â Oh you scared me out of my pants, Rohan. What were you doing here?â

â After you left me hot and dry yesterday, I decided to get it relievedâ

â No Rohan, not now, not in here, my cousin will be waiting outsideâ

â I donâ t careâ

I pushed her against door with her back facing me and started unzipping her top and kissed and licked her neck . I guided my hands in her top and cupped her breasts from behind and started to press them hard. I can feel her soft nipples getting hard like buttons in a few seconds. I turned her to me and I grabbed her and started to kiss her in such a fast way that even she could not speak anything. I started to increase the speed of my kiss; slowly she started to respond for my kiss. Oh God I was in heaven because her juice lips were mine. Slowly I took my hand to her big breasts and started pressing them. I began pressing her breast one after the other. I completely removed her top and threw on ground then started to unhook her bra. After removing her bra she took my mouth to her right breast signalling to suck them.

Before starting to suck I took her right hand and directed towards my cock over my pant. She started to rub it. Mean time I started to suck her breasts like mad one by one . She started to unbutton my pant. She brought relieved our juices. Still my cock was inside her pussy and I was giving a good massage to her both breasts.

Then she rolled towards me and gave her breasts to my mouth. I sucked her both breasts . we got up and cleaned ourselves and got dressed and again started to kiss her by my lips.

Slowly she too responded very well. I began to explore her breasts again for which she was raising her chest above to give me good access. We kissed and smooched for 10 min. she realised it was getting late. So we seperated from ourselves and she left the dressing room. I looked her leaving recaping what just happened. I went to my home and fell on bed thinking about same.....
