Chapter 1

Bella's POV.

I stood in the forest, motionless watching him walk away. Finally he broke off into a sprint and his words lingered in my head as I walked on the trail to Charlie's house. They stayed there as I made dinner. Charlie hadn't come home yet, so I sat and drank about a gallon of water, not being able to get the fucking words out of my motherfucking head.

It will be as if I never existed, My ass! Urrrgh! Stop it Bella, You're eating with Charlie and he is watching you, I told myself. At least I wasn't lying to myself. Charlie had walk though the door, and we sat down to eat.

"So where is that Edward?" Charlie finally asked. I wasn't expecting the question so soon. I figured he would have noticed in a week or so. "The Cullens moved to LA this morning, Edward and I broke up" I said after making my lie. "I'm sorry Bells" Charlie said. "It's fine, it was just some stupid high school crush right? Happens to everyone." I said. I realized that after my gallon was finished.

Just then Charlie's phone rang. He answered and after a few minutes at the very least, he came to me in the kitchen just as I finished the dishes. "Bella, I have to head down to Seattle for a case and might be back in 2 weeks" Charlie said, unsure of what I would say. "Ok dad, umm I think Angela's parents went away for a little maybe she can come here" I said. Angela had ask me to come stay with her but I had to cook for Charlie.

So Charlie left and I called Angela who was on her way. I called Jessica and Lauren too both of them saying earlier in school that they had nothing to do so now we were all laying on blankets in the living room.

Jessica used to only like me because I was popular but now because she saw the real me, she admitted as we got popcorn. I called Mike who was unreasonably in love with her and told him that she liked him, and they all heard him scream to the heavens. Not to long after, he called her up and asked her to go on a date with her. Then she screamed yes at the top of her lungs.

The next day, the girls were even more shocked when I litterally begged to go shopping. We went and ran into two La Push girls, Emily and Kimberly, who we became close to instantly. So they ended up coming over until Jessica left for her date. They ended up calling their boyfriends to bring popcorn and their friends and I was shocked that Jacob was on of them.

So I met Sam-Emily's fiance-, Jared-Kim's boyfriend, Paul-the hothead-, Emby and Quil. Everytime I saw these La push guys they were growing like they were feeding them some mutant food down there.

My friends left which left me with the whole La push gang. We all watched scary movies 'til 2 am and we were so tired that Emily and Sam took Charlie's room, Jared and Kim took my room and I shared the living room floor with the rest of the guys after Sam pulled them in the kitchen and made it absolutely clear that we were all just friends. We all went to bed laughing our fucking heads off.

Emily, Kim and I got up at the same ime and made breakfast for the guys, and when we whispered food in Jared's ear, he jumped up and shouted it "Where's the motherfucking food?" He screamed which got all the guys up who surrounded in the coffee table or the dinner table.

After we ate, we talked and laughed like old friends and went to the mall and then went to Jacob's place. Billy was there and everyone left except for me, so I ended up making dinner and eating there. While Jacob drove me home in his Rabbit because I left my truck home, We saw some guys selling some bikes for cheap and ended up buying them. Charlie told me lots of stories of him and his friends on motorbikes and I always wanted to try so Jake took them back to his place to fix 'em up and I went to bed with one thought.

CULLEN WHO?

Chapter 2

I got up to make breakfast for Charlie who should be here any minute now. I left a note, stating I was in La push with Jacob with my new motorbike that didn't cause shit. I drove down there just to see Jake had just finished them.

They were so shiny, so clean. "You're a miracle worker" I said approaching him. I went to say hi to Billy, who was going fishing with Charlie and Harry.

Jake and I went in the garage and had a blast. We drank soda from a grocery bag and ate sandwiches courtesy of Emily who had sent them so we wouldn't be too hungry when we went over to show them our bikes.

We talked about anything that came to our minds like school or even our dads. Then we went to Emily's place on our bikes. Riding them was easier than I thought. Jake had said it was just as easy but I found that impossible because they weighed like a thousand more than one.

We headed down to Emily on our bikes and everyone took turns on them. Then I called up the girls and they came over and we went cliff-diving. It was such a rush.

OMFG!!!!!!!!!! It was so fun! We went swimming and I felt all the guys except Sam and Jared watching me with lust-filled eyes and drooling. Shit! Charlie's coming home today and I haven't cooked or cleaned since he left. Thank God for friends. Everyone came and helped me clean the house. The guys cleaned while the girls cooked, and we ended up inviting the Clarwaters and Billy down and Charlie was so shocked.

The kids got sent outside which was a blessing because the adults were talking about going fishing this weekend and Sue was watching soap operas. We all ran around chasing each other and it started raining making it even better!

Well fuck me but I don't think I ever slept so well in my life! I called Emily at 12:37pm to hang out but Sam answered.

"Hello" Sam said in an angry voice.

"Hey Sam, we all hanging out later right?"

"Umm, Bella, look we can't hang out anymore. Don't come to La push anymore either or you're going to get hurt. Leave us all alone because you and your little, filthy bloodsuckers are the cost of this. Got it?" He said in a stern tone. He sounded hurt under his mean words and I couldn't answer. I felt the tears and I knew now this was gonna be a pain that might last forever.

"O..Okkkk.....Ok" I said, my voice cracking as they made their violent escape from my eyes. Sam hung up and I walked up into my room. Thank shit that Charlie was working five shifts today because I don't think we would want to hear me cry like this.

I never cried so much in my life. Correction. Out of all the times I ever cried added up, it could never stand up to today. So today, September 25, was the day I cried for 6 hours which felt like 2 decades, 3 centuries, and a millieum. Today, September 25, I lost my La push friends to their Indian culture, to their new bodies and possibly their new personalities. Today, September 25, I lost what mattered to me the most, my family.

Chapter 3

Jacob's POV.

Well hell, its been a month since the guys and I found out the legends are true, its been a month since we phased, a month since we lost our friend, Emily and Kim's practical sister, Bella. The elders said we almost had to stay away from Bella because if we got angry around her she could get hurt. At least Sam imprinted on Emily and Jared imprinted on Kim because we still need someone to cook for us.

Right now we were sitting in Sam and Emily's living room, eating actually, when I got a phone call from Billy. I put it on speaker, seeing Billy was like another father to the guys and even the girls.

"Hello" I said as I watched the guys stuff their mouths with chicken legs. "Son, guess who is coming to stay with us" Billy said. "Who?" Jared asked. All of us were completely clueless.

"Seth." Billy said. Seth was my favorite cousin from my mom's side of the family. We were actually like brothers, even to the guys. See Seth used to visit every year, but he didn't last year because his dad and mom died in a car accident. Anyways, Seth was just a month older than Sam, making him 20.

All of us walked to the house wondering how we are going to stay away from Seth so we don't get angry if I am going to be living with him. We walked through the door just as the phone rang. Seth then walked out of the guest bedroom and looked at the number.

But I wasn't concentrating on that. Seth's brown eyes were gone, and replaced with gold, his dark tan skin was now light brown, just a little lighter than Quilete skin. "Why didn't you answer the fucking phone?" I asked, totally pissed that Billy didn't tell me my closest cousin was a blood sucking vamp.

He turned to look at me with the same disgust. "Billy said you guys weren't talking to Isabella anymore" He said, then a look of realization crossed his face. What was he thinking? "But then again, he said you couldn't." He said again with a smile. "So?" Quil said. "He never said I couldn't" > "Don't you dare!" I growled at him, so did the others. He growled back, but his growl was darker, more killer insist.

The phone pick off ringing again, no doubt it was Bella. Why all of a sudden was she calling now? She hadn't in a month and now she was blowing up the phone. It stopped a minute or two later, Seth's killer glare never left from us. A few minutes later, Billy came out of the room with tears in his eyes.

"Billy what's wrong" All of us said at the same time, our voices filled with worry.

"That was Bella" He whispered. "So what?" We asked. Is he crying only because he hasn't seen Bella?

"Billy what's wrong, what did Bella say?" Seth asked in a calm, careful voice. Billy took his glance off of us and looked at Seth. Tears were violently running down his eyes. Just then, Harry Clearwater immediately walked through the open door and went to sit next to Billy, his face also wet with tears.

Billy once again looked at all of us.

"C...Cha.....Charlie is d...dea...dead" He said forcing out the words.

Chapter 4

Jacob's POV.

"WHAT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!"The guys and I screamed."When?!"Sam asked after calling Emily and Kim who were on their way."A week after you all phased" Billy said,clearly hurt that he hadn't seen Charlie before he passed away.We all got into the cars as soon as Emily and Kim arrived and drove in full speed to Bella's place.

It was so different not driving on this road for so long.It was as if the road missed us.Charlie's cruiser wasn't there,which nearly made me ask Billy if they had any plans to go fishing.

We got out of the cars,wondering if Bella would talk to us.It has been a month of course.We knocked on the door,and it opened,but it wasn't Bella.The world stopped as soon as I looked in her eyes,and I felt a million strings pulling me to this girl.I imprinted on a girl I didn't know.Hopefully she was younger than me,because imprinting on a girl older than me was definitely not on my list.I decided to study her.

She had light-chocolate brown skin,like Emily or Kim's.She had black/brown hair reached her waist in a straight,yet wavy order.Her nails were painted black,my favorite color,and her long sleeve shirt was also black.

She looked like a supermodel,even that isn't worth comparing her too.She was just so beautiful.She stared at Billy,as if she knew her."Aliyah,you have grown so much" Said a shocked Billy.Aliyah,a beautiful name to fit her curves.Personality.A beautiful name to fit her smile."Billy" She said putting her hands on her hips.her voice was soft,but yet sweet and sexy.

She looked so fuckable."I am afraid to ask you how you got in a wheel chair"."Come in" She said,moving away from the door,while pulling it open."Bella was sitting on the sofa,just getting off the phone."So you guys aren't running on four feet anymore?" She asked with a laugh.How the fuck did she know we were werewolves?

"Bella,I don't know if you noticed,but dogs to bloodsuckers.No offence but dogs win" Aliyah said patting Bella's head.So we all talked about Charlie,and it turns out that I am sixteen months older than Aliyah,so she just turned 18.

According to Billy,Harry and Aliyah,My mom actually delivered her and she was born in the very house.She was gonna live with Bella since she doesn't want to live in Phoenix anymore,and Bella didn't want to go live with Renne.Thank fuck for that!

We ended up staying there for dinner,which was off the hook.A girl who can cook,definitely on my list.This girl can cook up a storm,it seems.How did I end up with one of the best girls in the world.Seth and Bella were on great terms,since they already knew each other.I have a feeling that Bella is in love with Seth though.

I will have to get Allie to check that out.We went home and Emily and Kim were meeting the girls tomorrow to go shopping.Bella even gave Billy and Harry some of Charlie's ashes.Charlie left notes for both of them,and I knew they would cherish it forever.Bella was in our life again,I imprinted on an amazing girl,the only downside is Charlie's dead, but other than that,how could life get any better?

Chapter 5

Aliyah's POV.

"Does Jacob has a past? Are you falling for Seth Carson? Are you blushing Isabella? Which room am I sleeping in? Can Jacob spend the night one night? What about Emily, Kim and the guys? What ever happened to Leah Clearwater? Does she still remember me? Can I have directions to her place? And how is Sue and Henry? Answer me chick" I screamed at her, pinning her to the fridge.

"Umm.....No, Jake is a nice guy. I fell for Seth since the day we met years ago. Yes. My room, I am gonna arrange Charlie's room tomorrow and move my things out so you can move your things in. Sure, and the guys, Emily and Kim can too. Nothing is wrong with Leah. Yeah she remembers you. Sure you can have directions to their place or I can have Jake take you. Sue and Henry are great, and Henry is practically growing in front of me. And stop screaming at me!" Bella said, while grabbing me by my wrists and pulling me over to the couch and sitting me down.

We then started laughing because either of us had breathed since she stopped talking.

There was a knock on the door and I got up to answer it. I opened the door to see Emily and Kim was standing behind her. "Hey, what's wrong?" I asked, wondering what they back.

"Left my phone" Emily said. I walked over to where she was sitting and picked it up. I walked back over to her and placed it in her hand.

"We are we still going shopping tomorrow?" Kim asked.

"Yeah" I answered her with a smile.

"Hey, can Leah come. Allie and her haven't seen each other in years" Bella said, walking behind me.

"Yeah. We'll call her" Both girls said at the same time.

Chapter 6

Seth's POV.

Well, today turned out to be fun. Everything is how it used to be before this vampire/werewolf shit and now it doesn't bother the guys that I am a "Bloodsucker" and it doesn't seem to bother me anymore that they are "Dogs".

God, Bella swan has changed so much. Her hair flew flawlessly down her back just to her ass. I can just imagine myself fisting that fuck long sex hair as I pulse into her, her mouth forming an O as my dick twiches inside her. Shit, I need to stop it before I blow my load.

She looks like she needs a good spanking as the way she curses every five minutes. That ass looks like it needs some bondage, just flip her over my knee and-. Shit this girl is going to be the fucking death of me, I thought to myself as I laid on my bed that was in the new part Charlie had made because Billy wanted me to be comfortable.

"What girl" I heard Bella's voice ask and I turned to look toward the door just to see Bella fucking Swan leaning on the door post, her hair across her shoulder in the sexiest way ever.

"What are you doing here, Swan?" I asked, calling her by her last name, as I used to do when we were kids. I was the only one allowed to call her that. My private little nickname for the chick who I fell for since the day we met.

"First of all, when I ask questions you answer them before I answer you. And I believe I asked you a question Carson" She said while walking over to my bed and sitting not even a few feet away from me.

"Why do you want to know what girl?"

"Because your my best guy friend next to Jake"

"You sure you wanna know? I don't think you'll like it."

"Just tell me" She begged.

I sighed then crushed my lips to hers. She didn't flinch, She didn't push away. She kissed back. She tasted like coconut and strawberries. It was addictive. She smelt like ambrosia and looked like every male's wet dreams.

She moaned and tugged lightly at my shirt, unbuttoning my shirt with shaky hands. As soon as it was off she straddled herself into my lap, me helping with the exercise by lifting her gently by her hips. When we pulled away, she got off of me with shaky legs.

"You still haven't answer my question Bells"

"I'm here because Billy wanted Allie and I to spend the night because he was worried"

I felt like blood was pulsing through my veins again and it moved like fire when she said that. But not the fire that burns, fire like sparks, like I was fireworks. She must have saw my smirk because she shoved me.

Bella's life after them.

We went out to the kitchen with Allie and Jacob, who were just about to watch Don't be afraid of the Dark and watched it with them. Bella and Allie were so scared, and Jake and I had no problem with holding them.

Bella and I walked back to my room after Bella declared that she would not be sleeping in her room alone. We started talking and when I told her I broke hearts on a daily basis, bad idea number one.

"It hurts a fucking girl's feelings" She screamed at me as tears ran down her eyes. I didn't want her to cry. My expression must have changed because she rested her head on my bare chest and whispered "I'm not crying because I'm sad, I'm angry".

"You get me so angry" She whispered, about to fall asleep.

"And you get me so fucking hard!" I whispered in her ear. She turned to me and I took her face in my hand and kissed her. The kiss was soft and passionate. She pulled away and I rested her head on my chest.

Just before she fell asleep, we both whispered, "I love you"

Chapter 7

Aliyah's POV

Bella and I were getting ready to meet Emily, Kim and Leah at the mall and we couldn't keep ourselves together. The guys were going to drop us off and then go on the basketball court with the others.

As soon as we got out, we saw the three girls standing around Kim's red Toyota Chevy. As soon as Leah saw me we ran into each other's arms. We all walked around the whole mall, and guys were checking us out like nothing. Guys even approached us and flirted and when they left, smacked our asses. We didn't let it slip that we had boyfriends and Emily was engaged, just like if girls were flirting with our guys they would have said nothing about us.

When we were done shopping, we headed home. As soon as we got to Emily's place, we started cooking knowing the guys would be hungry. Suddenly, the guys busted through the door.

"What's wrong?" Emily asked, concerned of their expressions.

"Two other vampires are on the other end of the fucking treaty line and we can't tell if it is a Cullen or not because we can't cross." Sam said, running his hands through his hair.

"Why don't you send Seth. He didn't sign no treaty shit." Bella said.

"Sent him a couple of minutes ago. Haven't heard from him yet." Jacob said. Just then his phone went off. He pulled it out and it was a text from Seth. He read it out loud.

"Two female vampires. Gold eyes. Not Cullens. Red-haired girl named Victoria. Brown-haired girl named Maria. No harm. Looking for.... Bella." Jake said and then looked up to meet Bella's shocked expression.

"Okay. I know Victoria, but the last time I saw her she wanted to eat me." Bella said as we all laughed. "And never met Maria, but as much as I heard if it's her she changed Jasper, so who wants to give me a ride." "I'll do it" Leah offered. So they said goodbye to everyone and were off, and we all watched movies until it was time for bed.

Bella's POV.

As I got out of Leah's car, I said bye to her and she drove off, Seth walked out of my place. He walked over to me and pulled me by my waist. At first I didn't understand his anxiousness but then he pushed me off of him, spun me by my arm and kissed me.

The kiss excited me, it had all the love a guy could give. I wrapped my arms around his neck as he did the same to my waist. He started kissing my neck and I told him to stop, not because I didn't want to, but because I couldn't right now.

He pulled away and we walked through the door and sure enough it was Victoria. We started to talk and I found out that she wanted to be friends and everyone else came over and talked to them, and it was pouring cats, dogs, elephants and monkeys outside when Maria suggested to play catch out there.

And we did it, we had to be outside for hours and Allie and I had got some guys to build us a pool so all of us ended up jumping in. Maria and Vicky are staying with Allie and me and everyone is on great terms. Billy and

Harry even like the girls.

We talked all night and eventually, Seth and I laid down in my new room, until I drifted off into my deep slumber.

Chapter 8

Bella's POV

I woke up in Seth's arms, comfortable as usual. But curiosity was getting the best of me. Were we... a couple? How could these feelings he have for me just come out of the blue? Am I over the Cullens? How will he react to my relationship with them? Were we like Carlisle and Esme, Mates? What is the difference between a vampire mating thing and a human mating thing? Was there difference? My thoughts were getting the best of me when I heard Seth chuckle. I turned to look at him and he was smirking.

"What"

"You said all of that out loud Swan"

I felt all the blood run to my cheeks when he said that. He heard every word I said. He was hiding his face in my rich brown curls that were spread all over the cinnamon brown pillow that it looked like a design.

"Hopefully we are, it's up to you. Isabella, I have been in love with you since the day we met, I thought about you first time when I woke up and the last thing when I went to bed. You can be over any Cullen except The pixie and the fucker. I honestly am fine with the fact that you were close to them and you had someone looking out for you other than Charlie and Jacob and Alliyah. Umm, actually, we are mates. the difference is that there is no such thing as human mating, people just say that and with vampire or werewolf mating, you're gonna have my babies Miss Swan and be mine forever." Seth said and kissed my hand.

I was about to object to what he had said about Alice and Edward but realized that he was right.

"Wait your a vampire we cant have kids."

"No. Female vampires cant have kids. Males actually can if we sleep with a human"

"Wow. I wonder if Carlisle knew that"

"Well, he probably didnt, but look on the bright side. Your sister Rosalie didn't kill you because she wanted to be human and you could have kids for the fucker" Seth said with a grin.

"Oh and on the topic of Alice and Edward?" I asked. I wanted to hear all his judgements on how they treated me.

"They manipulated you and made you do things you hardly ever agreed with, didn't they? Fuck, even Rosalie treated you better. Hell she was only jealous because you were giving up having kids and growing old and being proud of seeing your grands to spend eternity with Edward. I personally think that she was looking out for you. Besides, I dont think you could ever survive with him".

"Okay, Fuck you"

"I'd rather fuck you. Hard too."

"Boy don't make me start on you"

"Fine sweet thang"

Bella's life after them.

He leaned in and kissed me on my lips softly.

"I miss my brother"

"Who Emmett?"

"Yes.I have a question for you"

"Go for it"

"How do you know all the Cullen names and everything about them"

"You saved a diary to your computer where you kept everything and made a mistake and sent it to me last year.I didn't stay home last summer because my parents died.I was reading everything and The Volturi came to my place and changed me,stating that since I knew about vampires,I either have to be changed or be silenced....permanently"

I couldnt belive it.

"I ruined your life.I caused this.Forgive me please.You could have lived better than this and its now because of me-"

"No.Stop.I shouldn't have opened the file anyway.It was maked your diary and I went like an ass and read it.So I'll forgive you if it makes you feel better,but theres no need to".

"How did I end up with the Sweetest,Sexiest and Smartest guy in the world?"

"You wish Bells.Did you forget abut me?"We heard Jake's voice boom from down the steps and then a glass broke.

"Ouch! Fuck Allie why did you do that?"

"Leave them alone and eat your breakfast"I heard Allie say in a deadly voice.

We just sat there and listened to their conversation.

"Okay,come here breakfast"

"No problem"

I walked down stairs and Allie was sitting in Jake's lap and they were making out.Seth walked in the kitchedn behind me and then shouted.

"NO SEX IN THE LIVING ROOM!!!!!"

"Who are you to give demands in this house.I dont remember your name being Maria,Victoria,Aliyah or Isabella."

"Where are Maria and Vicky anyway"

By this time allie was back in the kitchen picking up her plate.

Bella's life after them.

"Went to find jobs for the four of us"

"Thats so nice"

So we allate breakfast except Seth who settled on a cup of coffee,and Maria and Vicky came back and said they found us jobs at the hospital,and sice the accident at the Cullens I wasn't faint at the sight of blood anymore,so it worked perfectly.

Soon,Seth and I were engaged and so were Jake and Allie.We were making half a million dollars each which was coming plus the money from Charlie's policemenhip funds , $$400.000.000.00$,so everything was working and Seth and my wedding was in a month so we were planning like crazy.

Everything works out in the end right?

Bella's life after them.

Chapter 9

Hey readers! Now I'm very busy these days so I am going to have to skip so much so if anything comes up in the story that hasn't been shown before I will fill you in on another chapter. I will let Bella flash back to the engagement and wedding so you guys can hear about it. Keep Reading :)

21 Years Later

Esme's POV.

I miss her. My little girl. Bella. It's been twenty years now and no one has gotten over her except Fuckward and Malice.

Carlisle and I are guilty. We feel the guilt that only parents could feel for abandoning their young. Bella always comes up in our conversations and especially now, more than ever because tomorrow, Edward will be getting married to his new human, Mary. Mary is a pastor's daughter and was raised to believe that a man is the king of his castle.

Emmett and Jasper are truly bored. Them and Bella bonded in so many ways that you would have really thought that they were blood relatives. They just miss their little sister.

Rosalie, who couldn't ever stand the thought of Bella, is tortured by herself and past that she treated Bella how she did.

Jenks can't find her anywhere. It's almost as if Isabella Swan dropped off of the face of the earth. He also looked into Charlie Swan and Renne Dwyer/Phil Dwyer and they were all deceased. My baby girl could be anywhere in this horrible world and I'm not there to fend for her.

Alice is a sour bitch. As soon as we left Forks she said she never liked Bella and never realized the trash she was until then. She handed Jasper their divorce papers, cursing him and saying "I can't handle your fucking bloodlust anymore so you are no longer a Cullen". I let her know that she cannot take anyone out of this family, and she went to Europe for an extended shopping trip. Edward "said" that he was going to track Victoria, and left for a year.

After that we all started to heal, staying with the Denali family who felt our pain for us and also for themselves, they always wanted to meet Bella against Edward's wishes. We moved to Amerest and Edward and Alice decided to go to Dartmouth, so we got them a house in Hanover. We lived two hours away from them, and wished they never visited. Of course they force their company on us on the weekends with the girl in tow.

We all work in Boston which is a thirty minute drive in human speed from Amerest. I own my interior design business, Carlisle decided to become an intern for a hospital, Rosalie has her own car repair shop with Jasper, and Emmett is taking classes in UNI.

Our house is big enough to hold everyone, including the Denali family, Peter and Charlotte and I personally designed a room for Bella.

I just want my baby girl home. We all miss her.

Bella's life after them.

Well, right now I need to go get ready for this bridal shower. I was sitting in the living room with the whole family plus Peter and Charlotte, who were also joining us with the saying "Who doesn't love a fucked up vamp wedding?". He was right, this was fucked up.

Bella's POV

I was in the kitchen cooking. That goodness my special ability allows me any any vampire around me to have human wants and needs. I was "human" at the moment, cooking for my human 18 year old daughter. We had houses all over the USA, but for now we were settled in South Beach, Miami, due to the fact that Seth was playing for Miami Heats, my son EJ which stood for Emmett Jasper, named by Seth was a singer otherwise known as Chris Brown, My singing career, known as Kelly Rowland and my daughter Reneesme Carlirosa Carson, had just graduated and wanted to become a vampire on her 19th birthday.

I haven't forgotten about my other family though, even though as Edward said, they were boed with me and wanted nothing to do with me. He said they showed me love because he asked them to, they never liked me.

That was bullshit. I never believed it and I never will.

I finished up with my baking, just as EJ and his best friend who was also like my son who also my son-in-law Princeton walked through the door. Princeton was a half breed like Ej and Carlie are, but EJ was bitten by Seth when he turned 21 to make him a full vampire and Princeton also. Both guys were 21, I was in vampire age 20 and Seth was really 22 when he was changed.

"Hey mom" Both of them said

"Hi boys. Chocolate cake?" I asked

"Sounds good, except we might eat all before Carlie gets a piece" EJ said and him and Princeton started to laugh.

"I'm not hungry. Mom, wanna go horseback riding?" Carlie said as she walked through the door, hugged Ej and kissed Princeton on the cheek.

"Sure sweetie"

We went horseback riding with our horses around the whole ranch that Seth bought for that purpose. It had a perfect view of the ocean from the cliffs, and in the area was fully green. It reminded me of Forks.

When we got back, Seth was in his office. I walked in there and he didn't look up from his book. I walked over and pulled it out of his hands, causing him to look at me. His face softened and I sat in his lap and stared into his eyes.

"You better say you missed me" His said and kissed my neck.

I moaned in response and I unbuttoned his shirt. I used my index finger and ran it up and down the plains of his chest. He reached under my shirt and I pulled off of him, taking a seat across the desk. He stared at me curious of my reaction because usually I would be all game for a little office sex.

"The kids are in the next room" I whispered softly. "I can fix that" He said and winked.

He walked out of the room and I waited on him to come back.

Bella's life after them.

Seth's POV

I walked out of the office and into the living room where Ej, Carlie and Princeton sat and said "Kids, Your mom and I are going to Boston because the team and I have a game against Boston tomorrow. She wants to see Maria and Victoria so she's coming along. Boys, take care of my little girl of else when I am done with the both of you-" I was interrupted by my beautiful wife.

"I think they got the picture" She said and hugged our kids. Ej, Princeton and I did our secret handshake and Bella and Carlie watched us and shook their heads. I hugged Carlie and Bella did after me and whispered in Carlie's ear "If EJ bring any tricks up in my house, let me know. That's why he got his own."

All of us burst out laughing and Bella and I left. We didn't have to pack since we were going to our house in Boston, we had clothes there already.

We got there about a hour later, and quickly continued where we stopped. Five hours later we were done and went shopping, when we saw.....

Chapter 10

"BELLA! SETH!" Maria and Vicky's voice screamed as they jumped on us. We all talked about basically anything that came to our minds. Eventually Seth saw the rest of the team as they waited, they came to greet the girls and I also.

Since Seth was also the team captain, I was like the mother/sister figure of the team. I would cook for them, help them pick out engagement rings for their girls and never say a word, or even helped them with other female problems.

Seth told me it was time for him to leave, so it was time for a little kiss. Of course I wasn't about to refuse, what sensible girl would. He leaned down and pressed his lips to mine softly, licked my lips open and bit gently on my bottom lip.

We pulled away after our tongues were done having war and of course he won. The guys left just then and I turned to look for Maria and Vicky.

They were signing autographs, and when everyone saw half of Hollywood's power couple, me of course, they went ballistic. Paparazzi were coming from every corner taking pics of the three ex-band members.

All our fans knew that Maira, who was known as Mariah Carey, Vicky who was known as Ciara, and me who was known as Mrs. C or Rihanna or even Bella were like sisters so it wasn't rare for us to be seen together. Seeing one half of Hollywood's power couple without the other half, now that was rare.

We eventually left the scene after all of that drama, and went shopping like we used to with Allie, who by the way was living peacefully with the others in La Push.

I turned to look for Maria and Vicky, and found them staring across the street. I looked over with them and saw them, walking on the street, totally unaware that they were being watched. The Cullens. But they had extra people with them, who I could only describe as The Denali family and Peter and Charlotte.

I knew that Maria loved Jasper, how hurt she was when she realized how she treated him, how she treated Peter and Charlotte also. I remember holding her for those pointless nights where she would just cry because she knew that Jasper loved that Pixie bitch. Speaking of the repressed bitch, her nor Fuckward was there and the family seemed totally relieved by the fact.

They looked lost though, we decided to talk to them besides I always wondered what would happen if we had ever met again, especially now since I was a mother of two biological kids, a mother-in-law and a wife plus a working woman.

We all walked over to them and they must have smelt vampires approaching because they turned quickly. Their mouths dropped when they saw me unable to say anything. I invited them to our penthouse in Boston of course and all they could do was shake their heads.

Seth and I had cleaned the place like OCD was coming when we finished our little movie. In every house we lived in, we had sex in every room before we moved in.

"Bella?" Esme's voice was broken, on the verge of tears. That's when they hit. "Yes?" I questioned. Just then I heard the door open and close and I heard my little girl's voice in the hallway.

Bella's life after them.

"Mom I jsut met the most annoying,pretencious bitch in my life! I mean all she can do is quote the fucking bible!!! And she was with a sort,irritable pixie hoe who probably has never been laid in her life because she is so stuck up and repressed!!!" Carlie said as she walked into the room. I could read the shock on my family's faces but their was something else,anger?

"I am guessing you met Mary and Alice"Tanya said. carlie nodded and looked at them with a comprehensive expression. I had told her about them when she told me she loved Princeton. They came in behind her and we explained everything to them until finally,Seth came home.

Thats when all hell broke lose.

Chapter 11

Bella's POV

"Who are you?" Esme's voice was soft in asking Vicky, who was sitting beside me, surprisingly quiet as she twisted and curled my hair, playing in it as Maria sat away from the group at the kitchen counter, flipping through a magazine with Seth and I on the cover. I could tell she wasn't really reading it, she was thinking about Jasper. I could see it in her eyes.

I knew exactly what was in the magazine, the trash she was seeing about her and Kobe Bryant. They were close and some paparazzi spotted them together. They aren't together of course not, Maria loves Jasper with everything she had. She wrote her hit "Don't Forget About Us" all about him.

"And who are you?"

"You don't need to know"

"But I want to know"

"You should already know"

"ME?" Charlotte asked Maria, "I don't know you,"

"No, you don't think you know me" Maria said then walked into the kitchen and opened the fridge.

"Looking for anything specific?" I asked.

"A bottle"

That's all she had to say, she wanted a bottle of wine or anything she could get drunk from.

"I didn't know grown women still drink bottles" Jasper teased.

"You got the wrong bottles Major" Maria said, pulling a bottle of champagne from the fridge and popping it open. "How do you know about my P.O.?" Jasper asked clueless. Maria looked at me in the corner of her eye, and I knew what it meant exactly.

"Umm.. Peter, Charlotte, Jasper, I'm sure you remember Maria" I said and they locked eyes with their laughing creator.

Chapter 12

Maria's POV.

They stared at me in pure shock, as I took down a whole bottle of champagne, "What? A first-class girl can't drink?" I asked them with a mocking tone. "Ma...Mar...Maria, you look di-dii-different from the last ti..tim..time we saw y..you" Charlottle stuttered out, surely afraid.

Jasper just stared at me, I noticed the look from somewhere. It was the look he gave me the last time I saw him, it couldn't be though. That look was full of grief, sorry and love. I'm probably just misreading it. Peter growled at me, obviously angry that Charlottle is terrified of me.

"Sit Peter, NOW" I ordered.

He sat uncontrollably, my commanding voice was strong, as strong as the God in the living room who hasn't said anything yet. He stared at me in shock as Peter's legs gave out on him and followed my command.

"You know I hate doing that to people," I said, throwing away the now empty bottle and walking over to where Bella and Vicky were sitting and sat next to them. We all heard the door open and close, and in came Seth with his gym bag over his shoulder. He only gave the Cullens a look and walked over to Bella.

"Your not getting a kiss cause your all sweaty" Bella said to him.

Seth chuckled and looked at Vicky and me: "But you see when she was fat I couldn't say nothing," He said and we burst into laughter as he walked out of the living room.

"That's because when I was fat I was carrying your baby!" Bella said, walking after him.

"No proof" He said grinning at her. One thing Seth loved was a girl who could answer back at him, he loved to tease Bella with it. They walked upstairs arguing as they did, and left Vicky and I in here probably for us to entertain the guest while they were up there fucking each other.

Bella's POV.

As soon as I closed the door, I was greeted to Seth's face. I decided to make this quick.

"Seth I know what you must be thinking right now but your the one who always tells me that if I love something let it go and if it doesn't come back it was never mine in the first place but they came back so they are my family and i'm gonna need you to accept that or else I don't know".

"Bella, I'm good" He said and picked me up and undressed me, pulled me in the shower and we showered in steaming hot water. We jumped out and pulled on some clothes and walked downstairs, ready to introduce my husband to my family, well, as my husband.

Chapter 13

Vicky's POV.

As soon as Bella and Seth left the room, Maria snatched her ipod and headphones from the table and put them in her ears. She was listening to Princeton's song, Find Your Love and she had it on full blast so it sounds just like it would without the headphones to us. Everyone on the other side of the table just watched Maria with shocked expressions, it was hilarious.

"So Victoria, you look good", Esme said looking at me softly.

"I feel good too", I answered happily.

"Why does she hate us?" Tanya asked through a whisper, looking at Maria who was deep in the music.

"Ask Her. She'll tell you" I said to her.

"Umm....Okay", Tanya said and turned to Maria. Maria, feeling eyes on her looked up from her Ipod and stared back at Tanya, without a word. "Can I ask you a question Maria?", Tanya asked. Maria pulled her headphones out of her ears and gave Tanya a playful glare.

"You Just did", She said to Tanya.

"Well can I ask another?", Tanya asked.

"You just did", Maria said again.

"Okay then, why do you hate us?", Tanya said. Maria looked at her and said, "I don't hate you guys, trust me if I hated you all everyone would know. I wouldn't change my attitude towards that person in public. It's not in my nature". Just then Bella and Seth walked by, hand in hand. It was adorable how close and loving they were. They sat down in the loveseat close to the fireplace. "So what's your name?", Carlisle asked Seth. "Seth Carson""So are you two.....married?" Emmett asked. Bella nodded and Emmett glared at Seth. "Did I do you something?" Set asked Emmett after catching his eye. Maria had been quiet up until this moment, "Don't worry Seth. he's only looking at you like that because Bella and You have the craziest sex life alive". Bella looked at Maria mortified, Seth and I were killing our selves laughing and Emmett was staring like a mad man. "Maria how you get so rude?", Bella asked Maria. "Seth rubbed off on me" She said laughing. We all talked some more, got to know some more stuff and soon, we could feel the bong. Carlie, EJ and Princeton came and Bella had to explain Carlie and EJ's names about twice. This was really gonna be one big messed up familia.

Chapter 14

Maria's POV.

I couldn't stand staying in that room with Jasper. Jasper was my past,I wanted him in my future,but at the same time,he cheated on me,told Peter and Charlotte,instead of Charlote being my best friend and telling me,left and now they show up a hundred years later and expect everything to be peachy clean? Nah,I want Jasper back,and bad too,but Cardinal Rule No.1: Even If You Want Yo Man Back,Even If He Only Did The Smallest Thing,Punish Him. Why? Because he should have known better.

Knock,Knock

The sound of the door interrupted me from my thoughts. "Come in" I said. It was probably Seth,Because the Cullens had just left with Bella and Vicky. "I dont care if you dont want to talk to me,I need to talk to you," Charlotte said attacking me to the floor,pinning me down to make sure I didnt leave.

"Charlottle,Get Off Of Me,"I said in the calmest tone I could manage.

"Talk to me,"

"No."

"Please Ria,"

I hadnt heard that name in decades. "What Char?". Charlotte climed off of me smiling and continued," Maria,Please forgive me. I am so sorry,I didnt want to leave,but at the same time you always were busy with newborns and new territories and Jasper and Gabriella Didnt mean to sleep together and Jasper is still in love with you, and he married Alice out of force and now their divorced and you hate us and its so hard because-

I interrupted her,"I dont hate you guys,as much as i was hurt"

6 hours later....

Bella,Vicky and I were getting ready for Carlie'sbatchlorette party,and we were meeting Carlie,Claire,Kelly,Keri and Nicki at the club. The Cullen girls were stuck with Mary,Her mom and Alice for the night. Our guys were at Prince's batchelor's party,and The Cullen guys were having Fuckward's batchelor's party.

Chapter 15

Maria's POV

We had a table right in the middle of the club, between the two stages. I was sitting between Nicki and Bella. Thinking about Jasper. Jasper. Jasper. Jasper. That's the only thing that's been on my mind for days now, anything I do I think about him. And I don't think about my exes at all. Never have. Trey Songz was my best friend before we dated, and he still is my best friend after we've broken up.

Did I mention that Trey and I dated? Three years, seven or eight months. Performed together, made music together, top the billboards together, got best interview kiss, we just never worried about the drama. Which probably made our relationship last so long. We made the video for "Heart Attack" before we started dating. The Kobe rumors never got to him, at least not like how they get to Vanessa.

Oh, how Vanessa hates me. And we used to be so close. She named Gianna after me. I don't know what got into her after that. She really doesn't like me anymore, and it's like a year before I started dating Trey, around the time after we filmed "Heart Attack". She didn't come home and Kobe had a game that night, and since I was in L.A., I volunteered to take care of the girls. They already thought of me as their aunt and I had no problem with it, even though my original plan was to go to the game.

Anyways, I let the girls watch the game, gave them some dinner, got them ready for bed. I was telling them my life story as a fairy tale, you know, the beginning of my new life, saying it was an old story I grew up hearing in Texas. Kobe got home early enough to kiss them goodnight and they went to sleep. Kobe asked me to spend the night since it was only 2am, and I agreed, tired as ever. But I still went and made something for Kobe to eat, and we sat and watched a movie. I fell asleep on him and he fell asleep too, and well, long story short, Vanessa came.

Jasper. Jasper. Jasper. I was serious now, I was smelling his scent. I turned around and I saw them. All the Cullen guys were seated at least three tables away from us, talking. "Maria. Truth or Dare?" Nicki said, causing all the guys to turn to look at the sound of my name, and spotted us quickly. "Dare," I said smoothly. Nicki practically started glowing, and I instantly regretted my choice.

"I Dare you to flirt with the waiter when he brings our drinks." I was about to give up, but I got a flash of jealousy on Jasper's face. What was that about? I'll find out now. Time to flirt.

As if on key, the waiter came to bring our drinks. "May I get you ladies anything else?" The waiter said. He was about 5'9, with brown eyes and black hair pulled back into a ponytail. He reminded me of the Quietes. And he had to have Spanish descendants, he had that accent. The Spexican accent, what Bella and Vicky called it.

"How About you on a silver platter?" I asked.

"That's not on the menu but we can take it somewhere quiet and have desert".

"Your Spanish?"

"My mom's side of the family is from Mexico. How'd you guess?"

"Your accent is too on key to be from the States only"

Bella's life after them.

"And you are to beautiful." He said kissing my hand.

"I don't mess with guys from the club so no strings at all"

"Ouch. That hurt"

"Stanley,back to work" Another waiter came up to us.

"Yeah bruh." He said,walking off.

"So you gonna flirt with me and walk off without a bye. Aight boo I see you" I said.

Stanley stopped walking,turned around and aproached me. He pressed his body against mine and whispered on my neck " TÃ° eres la mujer mÃ;s hermosa y embriagadora que he visto" (You are the most beautiful and intoxicating woman i have ever seen). I smiled and he walked off.

"What did he say" Carlie asked. I was about to answer,but I was interupted.

"Maria can I talk to you?"

"Jasper?"
