Snow White's Darker Side

Once upon a new age time seems it was a perfect crime and Disney's little princess finally came to her senses.

The poison apple that she ate changed Snow White's fate.
That tainted, red, deadly food completely changed her mood.

No more frolicking with the elves.
No more cleaning off those shelves
No more singing Hi Ho Hi Ho.
No more happiness for Snow.

to that darling, our little dear.
She picked a spooky darker cloth and joined the ranks as a Goth.

Though her beauty became richer
it didn't quite fit Disney's picture of what a true princess should be so they found the poison apple tree.

She took a bite of that bitter fruit.
She didn't flinch or give a hoot.
She nodded off and fell asleep
She's lying there counting sheep.

Her prince he came and gave a look

Her story ends but not like in the book.
He didn't appreciate the darker side
so he claimed Cinderella for his bride.
