I feel you here even if your not

I feel you here even if your not

I feel you here even if your not I feel your touch on my skin lingering I feel your kiss on my lips like the last I feel your arms around me like a tight embrace I feel your legs tangling with mine playfully I feel your whispers as you say i love you I feel your heartbeat slowly watching ur chest rise and fall But your not here i can feel you close, I can't see you what i'm feeling is nothing but a memory a beautiful memory you'll forget a beautiful memory i'll cherish.

I feel you here even if your not
