

Looking into the Painting

By : yazz4youu

You look at paintings and see the color. But what about their true meaning and adventure behind the frame.

Looking into the Painting

With a golden frame

And a sharp black nail

Paintings hang all over.

The water colors of a rainbow

And the untold stories within

Paintings are granted lower.

I see the colors dance

I see them fight

I see them cry

And I see them bring the world to life.
