Its A Fairys World

Its a rainy day, and Sally was looking out her bedroom window because it was 2 days before her 18 birthday and she hasn't seen her parents in 1 week, because they fell into the ocean and drowned. She was so sad that she cried so much she soaked the carpet. Sally went into her room, and there was a mysterious tiny little box, and it had a note it read

Dear Sally,

We have sent you a magic fairy to help you carry on with your life we know its hard without parents to take care of you and the fairy might be a little shy to tell her name straight away so we will tell you, her name is Silvia, she is a silver fairy with glitter wings, that grants you wishes to help you with your future, we hope you like her.

From The Fairys xx

P.s if she is hungry ask her to get you to fairy world and she will show you around and she will show you the 'fairy suply shop'

Enjoy

"Wow... my own fairy" Sally said quietly, as she opened the box. A silver fairy with glittery wings popped out.

"H-h-h-i..... i-i-'m s-s-s-ilveria m-m-ay i g-rant you a-a wish?" the shy little silvia said.

"i wish you know me so you know im nice and kind and i won't ever harm you." Sally wished

"ok" silvia said.

One ping of the wand and.... POOF! Silvia and Sally were not shy of each other.

It struck midnight, and they both slept...
