My soul is binded

I bind my chest and cut my hair to keep the thoughts of woman away from me

I deepen my voice and change my name so the thoughts I have will be come a reality

And whats between my legs wont determin whats between my ears because my mind says boy

but my body says girl and my eyes they cry

because I want to be normal

please

I want to be normal

My soul is binded

My soul is binded
