

Days of Night

Days of Night

By : Imuildaeren

The back drop to the Blood Marriage world.

Published on
Booksie

booksie.com/Imuildaeren

Copyright © Imuildaeren, 2015
Publish your writing on Booksie.com.

Days of Night

It was the year 1899 in the county of Bludses which was part of a loosely formed states called the States of Bavaria. The county of Bludses along with many other counties had not had a real form of government for some time. Warlords and ambitious young heroes ran amok and with the invention of the rifle and other inventions. Now the vampires who dwelled in the huge Caraplin Mountains had been silent for some time, some say it was civil war others say it was the silence before the storm. By the year of 1905 Bludses had been cruelly united in the iron fist of Vasdolic Hajkikerik. Vasdolic was foolish in ruling his kingdom and he didn't look into the future so he missed about the future concept of "the Storm". 1925. Villagers are being snatched from their homes mysteriously in the night and Vasdolic refuses to do anything about it. Some say "The Storm" is only years away.

1930. A rebellion called the "White Horse Strike" have led a rebellion against Vasdolic. 1935. "The Storm" has come and it chose the right moment. The weakest of the two crumbled under Vasdolic's poor command, and the "White Horse Strike" has become more underground but are still the closest thing to a government.

1950. The battle of Nuybuivek. The legendary vampire warrior Valunek Vovs Dracula the king of the vampires was slain by a bomb dropped by a metallic bird. The Emperor of the Draculas is now Vadarek Vol Dracula with his heir Attila Val Dracula.

1960. Attila is arranged to marry.

Days of Night

Days of Night

Created from Booksie.com

Generated: 2015-01-25 22:26:54