BEING FRANK (AN ODE TO THE POPE)

BEING FRANK (AN ODE TO THE POPE)

BEING FRANK

(AN ODE TO THE POPE)

Pensive with sadness whilst reading the news

Only despair-no progress to muse

Then suddenly it hit me, now I feel I can cope

Our saviour, the Lord, dressed as a Pope.

An atheist I am but respect people's right

To follow religion, I know they don't bite

I draw the line at their hierarchy

Pompous papal patriarchy.

I mitre wear a hat, then again, I might not

Decision of the day if a pope is your lot

He lives with wealth in the Vatican

Gets all the publicity that he can.

Zimmer and viagra and a tendency to leak

Christ, he's quite old, in fact an antique

Won't be so long before he's gone as well

What's the difference? -no-one can tell.

Priests gathered round, discussed and then picked

A successor to that bloke Ben who'd kicked

Frank is a freak with a flared furry nose

Francis of Ass-is-he, the name by which he goes.

Looks like Jim Bowen after a night on the ale

Just look what you could have won he does regale

BEING FRANK (AN ODE TO THE POPE)

BEING FRANK (AN ODE TO THE POPE)

Likes a bit of a bully when it gets late

A massive spliff super, smashing, great.

It's just pot pourri.
