STUFF WORK!

STUFF WORK!

STUFF WORK!

Â

Â

Â

My working life restricts enjoyment

How I long for unemployment

My job obstructs the joy of life

Rebellion inside me cuts like a knife.

Â

Donâ t want you to think that Iâ m ungrateful

Fortunate to work, I know itâ s distasteful

To crave a life where I am free

Spend all day writing poetry.

Â

Carry on working till Iâ m sixty eight

By then Iâ ll be dead, lying in a crate

Iâ d rather end work at fifty five

On a positive note, Iâ d still be alive.

Â

Happy growing old, I feel Iâ ve done my bit

Grab pension whist I can(they may abolish it)

Refuse to wait till the watershed

To get lump sum in a hospital bed.

STUFF WORK!

STUFF WORK!

Â

All that money I put in the pot

Wonâ t see a penny, wife sees alot

Happy that family are secure for money

One drawback Iâ m up the swannee.

Â

I wouldnâ t need much to keep me goinâ

How much does it cost to write a poem?

Iâ ll buy my clothes from a second-hand store

After Iâ ve been busking and not before.

Â

Stay at home ironing, or washing my clothes

Youâ ll never find me watching tv shows

Crossword, sudoku, practice my sitar

Adept Iâ ll become like Ravi Skankar.

Â

Buy cheap tickets on a national train

Butties are perfect to sustain

Cup of cappuccino is my biggest treat

Zinged off my tits in search of something sweet.

Â

One Indian curry a week is fine

Camping in the Lakes at holiday time

Iâ ll buy no pricey ready-cooked meal

Veggie stew for balls of steel.

Â

STUFF WORK!

I'd rather be a pauper with heart beating strong

Than rich and shortly to be buried in the ground

I fly in the face of society's norms

Stuff work I want freedom in all forms.
