"Lumberjack Larry's Party Saw"

Men of the forest; are you tired of being left out?
Is the fact you're working tork your little snout?
Can't drink because that chainsaw takes both hands?
We are one company that understands Introducing Lumberjack Larry's Party Saw
We say, So what if it's against the law?
We know that you, as a hard-working lumberjack, cannot partake of that ice-cold half-rack the clean-up crew bought and brought, because, after all, is so fricking hot You keep on cutting, but, oh, how you're pissed
At a relaxing, ice-cold beverage, you've again missed out. What if we told you we've come up with a way you can keep working and chug cold beer all day?
We've come up with a brand-new invention, one that defies today's weak-a convention
You know, the one that says its very wrong to operate machinery with a hardcore buzz on These are probably the same girls who only drink tea Real men know drinking spirits is the only way to be That's why we've included a hook-on tank that's refrigerated; like the beer at home you just drank

Simply fill it up with your favorite beverage, and insert the 5ft. of rubber hose, for hands-free suckage.

Beer, a mixed drink, water or pop

But you didnât buy from us, if you see a cop!â
