Ben Hardstaff posted a poem of limericks and I just wanted to try some. Let me know what you think.

Limerick Soup

1

This is a conversation between two
The guy wants to take her to bed and screw
She would rather not
The man takes a shot
You turn me on, my balls are turning blue

2

Hey big boy, what do you have in there
That bump in your pants can't be all air
Come and let me see
The size of your tree
If I like yours and you like mine, we share

3

You have the most beautiful pair of tits
I would love to caress them with my lips
Let us get them out
Cause I have no doubt
When I am done, you'll feel good in your hips

4

If you want to get in my hot sweet spot
You will have to show me what you've got
I won't open up
For just any pup
I want to make sure you are a big shot

5

If you tease me I will buy you a drink

I will buy you two for a sexy wink

Would you prefer cash

To do something rash

I have here two fifties, what do you think

6

I think you have the most beautiful eyes

Sure itâs a line but I am not telling lies

Tell me what you see

When you look at me

I hope you see I believe youâre a prize

7

Would you like to ride on my Schooner

Iâll sing to you I'm quite the crooner

If songâs not your thing

Try my ding-a-ling

I know youâll come later or sooner

8

Come lassie sit on down on my lap

I assure you I wonât take a nap

Now wag your cute ass

Iâll be coming fast

You will plaster a grin on this chap

9

I am old and my dicks a disgrace

Limerick Soup

But if you will come and sit on my face

I will treat you right

For my tongues a delight

I never miss my target, Iâm an ace

10

Oh, just kiss a little lower dear

Just a little higher, you are near

Oh no, donât kiss that

Iâll purr like a cat

Oh my god, what you do to my ear

Let me know what number you liked best

These limericks were written for a test

I wanted to see

Just to what degree

My readers might think I am obsessed
