

Little red riding hood altered #2

By : veltshmertz

Same idea as the first one, but here I turned red riding hood into an apple and the wolf into a worm... can't say it isn't different :p

Little red riding hood altered #2

Little-red-apple and the worm

There once was a worm, squirming about

It found itâs way into a basket of fruit

Once inside it gave a big shout

And once there, it slightly pooped

It had seen a little-red-apple

All shiny and bright

The worm just wanted a sample

No one was in sight

It slithered closer and closer

Then he took a big bite

He rested, afraid of an ulcer

An was startled with fright

As a hand had shot in

Fingers splayed wide

Searching for him or his kin

The fingers groped inside

They pinched, and he said âcrappersâ

Then he was severed, lay dead

Little red riding hood altered #2

No more little red apples

If only he'd eaten a grape instead

Little red riding hood altered #2
