Personally, it drives me through a wall when Facebookers have the inclination to use catch phrases, mispronunciations, invented worditure, or the ingrammatically incorrect to get there point across to cast the mirage of interlecktual levity.

With all dew respectfulness, this is literarily my pest peeve 24/7.

Keep your eyes peeled for these ignoramooses, but at the end of the day, it is what it is.

I just wanted to touch base and pick your brain to flesh out any fairly unique fokes that have this reoccurring problem at this point in time.

Thusly and lastly I must say, if you've tolerated these impactfuleess Rachel-Ray-isms, I feel for ya, nuff said, just sayin' lol.
