

Cargo of the Carpenter

By : abyskaria

I would like you to remember one prayer of your hearts. Your goodwill have always earned several blessings and they stood gracelessly always in a scrutiny of time, space, existence and love of every blessings you enjoy with patterns of gestures which represent them. This memoir is a prayer that I once stood and opened up this true humble soul for next arena of a symphony once carpenter who took his cargo loaded by postal mail in your presence in this regard. The cargo never carried any price money but one letter which is always donated from one true heart. :)

In The Test Of Fire For Our Sake,

Embodied In Spirit You Are Committed,

If You Could Come One Par In Time For The Life's Blessing Sake Even Ismael & Issac Wouldnt Have Identified This Time,

If The Law Of Judgement Go Wrong, You Cant Be Held Liable,

You Stood By The Time A Day When Night Never Set,

Looking Up The Heavens My Cargo Lend Me A Hand,

Leading Every Spell Of Life Ahead,

So Much Indeed Could Never Be This Much,

And Your Heart Opened Up Learnt To Be For Us Knowing Ever Life Could Bring,

Upon The Sunset There Was An Morning Solving Secrets Of The Desert,

You Came One Supreme Harvest, I am Blessed,

Thanking You For Every Note That We Are Made Of,
