

Was It Real Or Just My Eyes Playing Tricks On Me?

Was It Real Or Just My Eyes Playing Tricks On Me?

By : RyansGirlFOREVER1993

I was in Ocala, Florida with my family because we didn't have school at the time and we all went down to Rainbow Springs to go swim in the extremely cold river. I was having a blast, up until I thought I caught sight of what it looked like to be a mermaid gliding through the tall grass on the bottom of the river. The object was silver and bright, it just could of been my imagination but it looked exactly like a mermaid's tail...

Published on Booksie

booksie.com/RyansGirlFOREVER1993

Copyright © RyansGirlFOREVER1993, 2015
Publish your writing on Booksie.com.

Was It Real Or Just My Eyes Playing Tricks On Me?

Most of you may think this is just a waste of time to be explaining the impossibilities, but I think finding out about the supernatural/paranormal things is just fascinating, so here's my story...

I was with my family in Ocala, Florida, for a week-long break from school when my dad had arranged plans for us to go down to the river at Rainbow Springs National Park. I was so excited to have the chance to experience something new then my dad mentioned that the water was at least 20 to 30 degrees Celsius, I felt the cold chills go down my spine and the goose bumps go up my arms and legs, swimming in cold water was not on my to-do list. I got my bathing suit on, got sunscreen on, and my water shoes as well when my dad announced that we're leaving.

Was It Real Or Just My Eyes Playing Tricks On Me?

Was It Real Or Just My Eyes Playing Tricks On Me?

Created from Booksie.com

Generated: 2015-01-30 14:49:24