Very Brief and to the Point

I am a simple man who has struggled through life while also becoming a private student of God once I was over 50 years of age. I am neither pastor nor any position within this world concerning any beliefs or religions because I only trust every word of God with absolutely zero trust in man, his ways and traditions.

I have written many hundreds of writings on what scripture says, the realities of this world and now have eleven free websites for my own education, yet not one single true brother, sister or friend on this planet; and that is not a problem because itâs just part of every word of God that I not only believe, but understand.

I just live each day with faith as my only needed fuel because my life is only God's words with my wage being very strong faith as my greatest reward for years and years of day and night efforts that never stop.

No matter who we have become in the eyes of God as one of His workman, all others worldwide can only find our faults while never hearing a word directly from the Bible which does not line up with their psychological thoughts placed by the god of this world who is the prince and power of the air and father of lies who works in all on earth including disobedient believers who do not live according to Godâs instruction for their life.

But the days are coming when all on this planet will learn righteousness.

â With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. (Isaiah 26:9)

These following words below were taken from the preface of my soon to be released book "Message for This Entire Human Race;

Whatâs most important for me to speak right now at the beginning of this book is that I expect to change no individuals while knowing that at this time few will believe all the facts which have been written for the purpose of only helping all people everywhere with a very strong warning of what will be. Yet whatever all may think, all that I ask is for all who purchase this book to just treat it as something that one day will be greatly needed as the only answer to all the whys regarding this worldâs civilization coming to an unexpected end in ways so dark with so much evil that there are no exact words for description beyond what has been written through this book for all on earth to read and understand.

Were you aware that the worldwide arsenals of NBC {Nuclear, Biological, and Chemical} weapons have the names of billions in this world written all over them? Has not every weapon ever created by man always been used? And just those few words spelling massive death are but only a minute surface scratch regarding the content in this book; and that is because whatâs written within these pages greatly concerns every living being on this planet; and what makes this book unique are the facts alone that it has not been written for money, not for popularity, not for pride, not for friends, not as a novel, not as a mind bender, and not just some worthless story, but rather a book inspired by our creator with a lifetime of human education through worldly existence filled with lifeâs storms, twenty years of Bible intake privately, and the last five years as a prison in life with nowhere to go and nothing to do other than making a slow spiritual exit from this world known to man for the purpose of seeing things just as our creator with this book as a message from Him to this entire worldâs civilization of every creed because the beginning of the end has arrived:

But not in the ways the minds of man think teach and believe, because in truth, man knows nothing. Therefore I speak no bull, not a vacuum for love offerings, tell no lies, have no greed, make no human guesses, have no interpretations, make no judgments, and possess no self-genius because by myself I would know absolutely nothing spiritually and could do nothing without an unseen lead; therefore I say again, this is an inspired book with only truth the entire worldâs civilization needs to be made aware of no matter what creed or where on earth they may be.

Once the words of our Lord become as our only blood-flow for life itself, we become alone, hated, judged and not believed simply because spiritually speaking we are no longer of this world.
