

A Desert Experience

A Desert Experience

By : goldenpetal

Poems from Love

Published on Booksie

booksie.com/goldenpetal

Copyright © goldenpetal, 2015
Publish your writing on Booksie.com.

A Desert Experience

The trials of man determine the plan set before you to test the heart and see what you believe and in the end the wayward emotions will not lead any astray. I feel that comprehension shall justify love and all truth will manifest as love. You shall spend every moment with Me I will never leave nor will any pestilence come near your dwelling. The cause and effect of truth is tied together with a choice to choose life.

A call to all who believe reason not counsel often as you come to Me and seek my wisdom. Shall all truth be revealed as you search my heart in Deuteronomy 26. I shall be as you need when you speak truth to all mankind and schools and towers will reveal the new ability in man who looks up at a trophy and proclaims today Jesus is Lord. All your ways shall magnify and all your actions shall justify for in truth revelation is seen and all will see true majesty. I can declare for my family there that the hurting world will tear or tear like a cloth pulled apart with force and justification will be set apart. You have not enough strength to carry on yet you are a vessel that will hold great power for in the world we see human effect and in the spirit we will reflect. Do a deed of kindness as soon as you may and all my points of entry will bless you today. Amen.

A Desert Experience

A Desert Experience

Created from Booksie.com

Generated: 2015-03-06 06:22:47