

Say you wont care.

Say you wont care.

By : LaceyGerardMonroe

my fifth peace. I wrote this piece a couple of years ago. please leave your comments. This was the first time that I was in love and the first time I got my heart broken.

Say you wont care.

Say you wont care.

Say you wont care.

This feeling tairing,

tairing at my soul.

You just left,

no more words.

I miss the feeling,

your soft lips,

your soft skin,

your beautiful eyes.

You said you cant,

cant no more.

I stood there,

trying not to show,

show the pain,

the pain you left.

You tell al your friends,

about my pain.

Not a tear,

no not the one.

Say you wont care.

Say you wont care.

With tears in my eayes,

I watched you leave.

I went over.

It was to late.

Say you wont care.

Say you dont care.

The moments die,

Cant live without you.

I am no saint,

I am no superman.

Your no angel,

no my dear.

I am infected with this pain,

Infected.

I am breaking down,

My soul is tairing down.

You said you love me,

say you dont care.

Say you cant remember,

Say you wont care.

Say you wont care.

Say you wont care.

Say you wont care.
