Curses from afar!

This be told to you this day,

As the moon is at his peek.

May you and your family hear me on this day I stand.

As you meet with pathetic friends,

I sit here spit on you horrid face,

Be this may a sign to you.

This be told to you this day,

As the moon passes o'er my side.

May you feel the ache through your chest as I have.

Be this day as I cry out,

Curses to you until your last!

Courses from afar!

Curses from afar!
