

Just Listen, Watch, And Love

Just Listen, Watch, And Love

By : SavvyApple

Watch the rain as it falls, the sun as it shines, and the wind as it roars. Just watch, and love it. Inspired by my cousin.

Just Listen, Watch, And Love

Watch

Watch the rain

Watch it,

watch the way it falls,

the way it hits the floor,

the roof,

the trees.

Just watch it,

Just watch

Just listen

Just love it.

Watch

Watch the trees

Watch the birds

Watch the sky.

They way they sway

they chirp

it's beauty.

Think about

nature,

think about

life,

The love.

Just Listen, Watch, And Love

Just watch it,

Just love it.

Watch

Watch if you must

the television:

but watch the comedy

the humor

the film,

how would they think of it?

Just watch it,

Just love it.

Watch

Just watch the world

Just watch the world

and its beauty.

We shall work

seperately

to become as one.

We will save it

Love it,

Just Listen, Watch, And Love

listen to it and its needs.

Just watch it,

Just love it.

Just Listen, Watch, And Love

Just Listen, Watch, And Love
