

Look Past The Veil, See What I See

By : SavvyApple

The world isn't what it seems to be, there's a stupid veil in the way. If I guide you... Could you see past the veil?

Look Past The Veil, See What I See

Blue skies,
puffy clouds,
green grass,
friendly people,
great lives
in this amazing world.

All that is the veil,
the Lies,
the Fake.

Polluted air,
dying children (of starvation
and child abuse),
global warming.

Earthquakes.

Fires.

Floods,
causing deaths.

Segregation,
ignore it?

Look Past The Veil, See What I See

Never.

How could I,
it's right in front
of our eyes.

But t'is not what we choose to see,
we don't accept it,
few in the world do.

Can't you tell?
The world is fake.
Under all that "green grass"
lay bottles, cans,
litter.

Our beautiful
blue sky,
filled with the air
of gas,
and pollution.

Please,
look past the veil.
It is not what it seems,

Look Past The Veil, See What I See

But it could be.

It could stop,

freeze,

slow down,

for we have the power to stop it.

Few are stopping it -

be one of the few.

The first step?

Look past the veil -

See what I see.

And fix it.
