Being heartbroken can take alot out of you espicaly knowing that the guy you love, claims to love you back, but yet he saids goodbye, and leaves you. Sometimes you've gotta smile it off and try to move on, no matter how much its hurts it may take awhile to shake it off. Lets face it its not gonna be anymore easy on the next heartbrake. So all you can do is become strong brave and kind, Then start wearing you're heart back on you're sleeve no matter how scary it can be. Just remember dont loose you're heart or you're faith.
