Sword Duel

Bluejay took out his long elegant blade the edges ripe with blood. Featherblade smirked at his thin weapon and pulled out her own thick sword fresh with blood. The tribe gathered around the fighting circle where they watched each other. Then they began to circle.

The crowd watched in awe their faces fresh with tears for Redthorn, the previous tribe leader. It was very, very rare to have a girl leader so all the girls were anxious to see what Featherblade would do. Bluejay thrust his sword forward but Featherblade darted away.

She struck at his arm which he deflected then she lowered to his leg and sliced from his thigh to his knee.

Bluejay's face tightened with pain and he struck at her and cut her arm slightly. Featherblade struck at him and cut his cheek and then his sword arm. He cried out and tried to strike back but she twisted and sliced his shoulder to his waist. Bluejay screamed and begged for mercy as he fell to his knees.

"We aren't finished Bluejay," she spat. She struck her sword down through his chest and lifted him like a puppet. Her sword was pierced through his chest the tip hanging out the back. She pushed him off and the body lay on the ground blood running around her shoes and she said, "I am your leader now."

She was crowned the next day and had ruled strongly ever since.
