- I am ashamed that women are so simple to offer war, when they should kneel for peace, or seek for rule, supremacy and sway, when they are bound to love serve and obey. Why are our bodies soft and weak and smooth unapt to toil and trouble in the world. But that our soft conditions and our heart should well agree with our external parts. Come, come you forward and unable worms, my mind hath been as big as one of yours, my heart as great, and my reasons happily. To bandy word for word and frown for frown. But now I see our lances are but straws, our strength as weak, our weakness past compare, that seeming to be most which we indeed least are. Then veil your stomachs for it is no
