Like an Oleander

Like an Oleander

Love can be beautiful,
Colorful and wonderful,
Yet to all the wiser
She holds a deadly cipher.

Like an Oleander

Hiding her true self in beauty
Deceiving the naive who knew no better,
Poisoning the lover who sold her sanity
For a beautiful man who loved her never.

Like an Oleander

Love shares the beauties in life
But handled trite will do no better,
For the flower holds a deadly blight,
An inevitable poison with a morbid closure
