How can I be with You?

Wandering in cold darkness,

Lost all hopes and desires,

Want to end this dead journey,

Why do you still want me with you?

--

I bore a lot, without letting out a sigh

Never demanded or complained,

You were always in my heart and soul,

Did you ever wish me in your prayers?

--

You were amazed when I loved you,

You froze, when I was leaving you,

You didn't even utter a word to stop me,

In all those years, have you ever missed me?

--

Now you want me to come back,

Accepting all your faults, for my love,

Want to pay me back in happiness,

With nothing left inside, tell me how can I trust?

--

Have always loved you more than myself,

But now I have aged and withered

My lackluster looks please none

When I'm gone, will my absence be missed?

How can I be with You?

How can I be with You?

How can I be with You?

How can I be with You?
