Let me be your love

Let me be your love

Let me be a dried rose in the book of your life,

Spreading fragrance through your memories.

*

Let me be the pearl embedded in your silver ring,

As a reminder of how beautiful your life has been.

*

Let me be that pen in your shirt's pocket,

The one you write down your dreams with.

*

Let me be the breathing air around you,

Being the necessary thing for your survival.

*

Let me be your love as you are mine,

So I enter your heart and never leave.

Let me be your love

Let me be your love
