

Blowin in the Wind

Blowin in the Wind

By : attanasio

Response to a challenge to honor a song title with our own creation. Challenge is by: MAmberConrad Hope you enjoy my mix of ideas with Bob Dylan's theme from this song.

Published on Booksie

booksie.com/attanasio

Copyright © attanasio, 2015

Publish your writing on Booksie.com.

Blowin in the Wind

How many times can you fall in love
Before they call you a Cad?
Just how much injustice can you watch in the world
Before it makes you angry and mad?
Yes, Just how many senseless deaths does it take
To make you cry cause youâre sad?
The answer, my friend, is blowinâ in the wind
The answer is blowinâ in the wind.

How many poems must a young man read
Before he feels with his heart?
And how many plays must a person see
Till they want to act in a part?
How many times can we walk in this world
Before we see natureâs art?
The answer, my friend, is blowinâ in the wind
The answer is blowinâ in the wind.

How many times can we see peopleâs needs
And not care to give them a hand?
Yes, how many times can we ignore the pain

Blowin in the Wind

And stick our heads in the sand?

How many times can we sit back and watch

Without us taking a stand?

The answer, my friend, is blowinâ in the wind

The answer is blowinâ in the wind.

Blowin in the Wind

Blowin in the Wind

Created from Booksie.com

Generated: 2015-01-31 03:53:18